ANZ signs new agreement on credit cards with Qantas

ANZ today announced it had signed with Qantas a new agreement for the provision of a credit card rewards program to the more than one million cardholders currently using Australia's most popular co-branded rewards credit card - the Qantas ANZ Visa Card.

ANZ Consumer Finance Managing Director Mr Brian Hartzler said ANZ and Qantas had worked together successfully since 1996.

"The agreement provides the basis for extending the relationship between ANZ and Qantas developed through the highly successful Qantas ANZ Visa Card," Mr Hartzler said.

"It also provides a framework for us to work together in the coming months to address the important challenges ahead for the cards industry including the implementation of the Reserve Bank of Australia's credit card reforms later this year," he said.

Details of the agreement between ANZ and Qantas are commercial-in-confidence.
