Shareholders and potential investors should note that the Acquisition, which is conditional, may or may not complete, that the making of the Offer is subject to Completion and that the Offer, if made, may not be successful and may not complete. THE ACQUISITION

On 9 November 2005, First Pacific entered into the Share Purchase Agreement pursuant to which it agreed, directly or through a wholly-owned subsidiary, to acquire from the Seller the Sale Shares, representing, as at 30 June 2005 (the date of Del Monte's most recent published interim financial statements), approximately 39.72% of the issued share capital of Del Monte. Del Monte is listed on the SGX-ST and is the holding company in the Del Monte Group. The Del Monte Group is an integrated producer, marketer and distributor of processed food products under the Del Monte brand name.

The consideration for the Sale Shares is US$163,628,026 (representing approximately HK$1,276,298,603 or S$278,560,351). This consideration represents US$0.3818 or approximately S$0.65 per Del Monte Share. The consideration and other terms of the Share Purchase Agreement were arrived at after arm's length negotiations between the parties involved with reference to the prevailing market price of Del Monte Shares.

Following signing of the Share Purchase Agreement, First Pacific will arrange for US$25,000,000, being a part of the consideration for the Sale Shares, to be held in an escrow account. Subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, the amount will be released to the Seller shortly before or at Completion. The Sale Shares will be acquired with full title guarantee free from any Encumbrance and together with all rights and advantages attaching to them as at Completion (including, without limitation, the right to receive all dividends or distributions declared, made or paid on or after Completion).

The Acquisition is subject to the following conditions being satisfied or (in the case of the third condition only) waived:

- (a) the pre-emption rights, which are applicable to the majority of the Sale Shares, not having been validly exercised;
- (b) the passing at the SGM of the Company of a resolution to approve the Transaction; and
- (c) since the date of the last published audited accounts of the Del Monte Group, being 31 December 2004, there being: (i) no material adverse change in the assets, business, financial condition, profits, liabilities or results of operations of the Del Monte Group taken as a whole; and (ii) no litigation, arbitration or other legal proceedings instituted or threatened against any member of the Del Monte Group or no member of the Del Monte Group having taken any action outside the ordinary course of its business which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial or trading position of the Del Monte Group taken as a whole.

Following satisfaction or waiver (where permissible) of these conditions, Completion is expected to take place by 15 January 2006. In the event that the third condition is waived or satisfied and both the other conditions are satisfied, the Company will issue an announcement promptly to inform the Shareholders and the market of such development and that the parties will proceed to Completion. First Pacific will make a further announcement as and when appropriate to keep Shareholders and the market informed on whether or not the conditions have been satisfied or waived and whether or not the parties will proceed with Completion. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived (where permissible) on or before 31 January 2006, any party may give notice to terminate the Share Purchase Agreement and the agreement will thereupon terminate and save as expressly provided therein, cease to have any effect and the Offer will not be made. In the event that the third condition set out above is not satisfied, First Pacific will consult the SIC prior to making a decision as to whether to invoke the condition and terminate the Acquisition.

As Del Monte is listed on the SGX-ST, the Acquisition is governed by the Singapore Takeovers Code. In accordance with Rule 14 of the Singapore Takeovers Code, upon Completion, when the First Pacific Group acquires Del Monte Shares which (taken together with Del Monte Shares held or acquired by its Concert Parties (if any)) carry 30% or more of the voting rights of Del Monte, First Pacific will be required to make a mandatory conditional offer for the Offer Shares. The mandatory conditional offer will be made by the Offeror.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the First Pacific Group held no Del Monte Shares and to the best of the knowledge of the Board having made all reasonable enquiries, none of its Concert Parties held any Del Monte Shares.

THE OFFER

Offer Announcement in Singapore

At the same time as making this announcement, First Pacific also announced the Offer in Singapore in compliance with the Singapore Takeovers Code.

Terms

Upon Completion, the Offeror will make the Offer for the Offer Shares, in accordance with Rule 14 of the Singapore Takeovers Code.

The Offer, if and when made, will be made on the following basis:

For each Offer Share: US$0.3818 in cash
(representing approximately S$0.65 or HK$2.9780)

The Offer Price will be the same as the price per share in US$ for the Sale Shares under the Acquisition. Del Monte shareholders will be given an option to elect to receive the Offer Price in S$. Further details on settlement of the consideration will be provided in due course. Del Monte shareholders who accept the Offer will be asked to indicate, on the form of acceptance, their preferred currency of settlement of the Offer Price.

The Offer Price represents a premium of approximately 18.2% to the closing price of S$0.55 per Del Monte Share on 9 November 2005 (as traded on the SGX-ST) and a premium of approximately 18.5% to the 10-day volume weighted average price of S$0.5486 per Del Monte Share for the period ended 9 November 2005 (as traded on the SGX-ST).

The Offer will be extended to all Del Monte Shares to be issued unconditionally pursuant to the valid exercise of any Options prior to the close of the Offer.

Acceptance Condition

The Offer will, if and when made, be conditional on the Offeror having received, by the close of the Offer, valid acceptances in respect of such number of Offer Shares which, when taken together with the number of Del Monte Shares owned, controlled or agreed to be acquired by the Offeror or its Concert Parties (either before or during the Offer and pursuant to the Offer or otherwise), will result in the Offeror and its Concert Parties holding such number of Del Monte Shares carrying more than 50% of the voting rights attributable to the issued share capital of Del Monte as at the close of the Offer (including any voting rights attributable to Del Monte Shares issued or to be issued pursuant to the valid exercise of the Options prior to the close of the Offer).

Accordingly, the Offer will not become or be capable of being declared unconditional as to acceptances until the close of the Offer, unless at any time prior to the close of the Offer, the Offeror has received valid acceptances in respect of such number of Offer Shares which will result in the Offeror and its Concert Parties holding such number of Del Monte Shares carrying more than 50% of the maximum potential issued share capital of Del Monte. For this purpose, the "maximum potential issued share capital of Del Monte" means the total number of Del Monte Shares which would be in issue had all the Options been validly exercised as at the date of such declaration.

The Offer, if and when made, will not be subject to any other condition.

Value of the Offer

On the basis of the Offer Price, the entire share capital of Del Monte in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date (assuming there has been no change to Del Monte's issued share capital since 30 June 2005, the date of Del Monte's most recent published interim financial statements) was valued at approximately US$411,903,859 or S$701,225,129 (representing approximately HK$3,212,850,100) and the Offer Shares as at the Latest Practicable Date (assuming there has been no change to Del Monte's issued share capital since 30 June 2005, the date of Del Monte's most recent published interim financial statements) in aggregate were valued at approximately US$252,619,940 or S$430,060,186 (representing approximately HK$1,970,435,532). The Offer Price will be the same as the price per share in US$ under the Acquisition.

Offer Document

The formal document, making the Offer and setting out the terms and conditions of the Offer and enclosing the appropriate forms of acceptance, will be despatched to holders of Offer Shares not earlier than 14 days and not later than 21 days from the date of the announcement of a firm intention to make the Offer, if any.

FINANCING OF THE ACQUISITION AND THE OFFER

The Acquisition and the Offer will be financed by a combination of the Company's internal resources and external funding, the amounts of which are yet to be determined. The external funding will be secured by security interests in shares of PLDT held by the First Pacific Group and Del Monte Shares to be acquired under the Transaction.
