Hutchison Global Crossing introduces new residential phone line service packages

Hutchison Global Crossing (HGC) announced that three new packages of residential phone line service, branded as HomeLink 6, HomeLink 5 and HomeLink 4, will be introduced to the market on 15 March.

Similar to the existing HomeLink services, these three new packages will include a basic phone line as well as additional features. Monthly tariffs of the three packages are $83.8 (a basic phone line with 1 add-valued service), $103.8 (a basic phone line with 4 add-valued services) and $112.8 (a basic phone line with 9 add-valued services) respectively. Please refer to the attached table for more details.

Over the years, HGC has been dedicated to providing superior residential and business voice services, branded as HomeLink and BusinessLink. In addition, HGC has put huge investment in building its 100% fiber-optic network, covering nearly 1,000 buildings in districts like Causeway Bay, Central, Chai Wan, Ho Man Tin, Hunghom, Lam Tin, Ma On Shan, Mongkok, North Point, Quarry Bay, Tin Shui Wai, Tsim Sha Tsui, Tsing Yi, Tsuen Kwan O, Tsuen Wan, Wan Chai, Western District and so on. Going forward, HGC plans to expand its coverage to over 2,000 buildings by the end of 2002, which enables more customers to enjoy its quality services.

Monthly tariffs of the existing HomeLink services, namely HomeLink 3, HomeLink 2 and HomeLink 1, will be revised to $83.8, $95.8 and $112.8 respectively, while monthly tariffs of our various business telephone services will be increased by $18. For example, monthly tariff of our basic business telephone lines will be $106. These revisions, to be effective on 15 March, put HGC in a position to continue provide excellent services to its customers, as well as to maintain its operating needs.

With the newly announced HomeLink services, supported by its reliable and comprehensive infrastructure, Hutchison Global Crossing is committed to providing the best telephone services to the community and businesses in Hong Kong.
