Gamania Digital Entertainment's subsidiary company – NC Taiwan holds the open-beta service press conference for "Lineage II" today

NC Taiwan holds the open-beta service press conference for "Lineage II" at Taipei's "New York New York" on January 12, 2004. Taiwan's "Lineage II" is scheduled to start its open-beta service at 11:00 AM on January 13, 2004.

Currently, "Lineage II" is scheduled to commercial launch in March 2004. Depending on open-beta service status, 6 to 10 sets of servers will be added. In terms of server capacity, each server set can accommodate approximately 5,000 concurrent users. To better reflect "Lineage II's" game production and operational cost, NC Taiwan plans to price "Lineage II" higher than "Lineage" in Taiwan.

NC Taiwan has a capital of NT$140 million. Gamania and NCsoft hold 51% and 49% of NC Taiwan respectively. For Taiwan market, NC Taiwan will focus on R&D, and license new products developed by NCsoft; on the other hand, Gamania will continue to expand its digital entertainment platform and increase market share.
