Entities incorporated or established outside of Australia

76.  Evidence that the entity is registered as a foreign company in Australia

N/A

77.  Confirmation that the entity's Prospectus, Product Disclosure Statement or Information Memorandum includes a clear statement of its place of incorporation or registration and a statement to the effect that:
"As [name of entity] is not established in Australia, its general corporate activities (apart from any offering of securities in Australia) are not regulated by the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth of Australia or by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission but instead are regulated by [insert name of governing legislation] and [insert name of corporate regulator administering that legislation]."

N/A

78.  A concise summary<sup>27</sup> of the rights and obligations of security holders under the law of its home jurisdiction covering:
- what types of transactions require security holder approval;
  - whether security holders have a right to request or requisition a meeting of security holders;
  - whether security holders have a right to appoint proxies to attend and vote at meetings on their behalf;
  - how changes in the rights attaching to securities are regulated;
  - what rights do security holders have to seek relief for oppressive conduct;
  - what rights do security holders have to bring or intervene in legal proceedings on behalf of the entity; and
  - whether there is any equivalent to the "two strikes" rule in relation to remuneration reports in Part 2G.2 Division 9 of the Corporations Act

N/A

<sup>27</sup> The concise summary is not intended to be a legal treatise on the laws of the entity's home jurisdiction or a detailed comparative analysis of those laws with the laws of Australia. For those matters where the entity's home jurisdiction has broadly comparable laws to Australia, a statement to that effect will generally suffice.
