1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 Medusa Mining Limited is an Australian registered mining company listed on the ASX with a focus on operations in the Philippines. The Group has a number of existing significant exploration and mining interests in the Philippines and, in particular, on the island of Mindanao. These interests include the Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement with Philsaga (described in more detail below) which allows the Company to process ore from the Co-O Mine and produce gold. Additionally, the Company and its subsidiaries have interests in various projects and joint ventures including the Abacus, Anoling, Apical, Das-Agan, Panaon, Masapelid and Saugon projects. The Company refers you to ASX announcements as displayed on its website (www.medusamining.com.au) for information as to these existing projects.

2. PHILSAGA ACQUISITION

On 29 September 2006 the Company obtained shareholder approval to complete the acquisition of Philsaga within 3 months or such later date as permitted by an ASX waiver.

(a) Introduction and history

The Company has worked with Philsaga in the Philippines since late 2003 through an initial joint venture exploration project.

Through the Original Deed, the Company and its Philippines subsidiary were to acquire control of all the share capital in Philsaga. The purchase price comprised A$14,000,000 in cash, the issue of 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares, the payment of A$2,000,000 to fund the purchase of mining equipment to service the mine area and a royalty of US$20 per ounce of recovered gold obtained from defined extensions of the Co-O Mine system up to a limit of US$10,000,000. In April 2005 a prospectus was issued by the Company in Australia in respect of the proposed transaction and related share issue.

One of the conditions of the Original Deed was that the Picop legal case was either discontinued or withdrawn by the applicant or dismissed by the Supreme Court of the Philippines. The Picop legal case is a legal case that is still currently before the Supreme Court of the Philippines by which the applicant is seeking to prevent the Department of Environment and Natural Resources in the Philippines from issuing a mineral production sharing agreement to Philsaga. A mineral production sharing agreement when granted provides a 25 year period for mining and is renewable for a period of 25 years.

The Picop legal case is summarised in paragraph 10.1 of this appendix. An adverse ruling in the Picop legal case could restrict or prevent mining operations in respect of the Co-O Mine area.

As the Picop legal case was not resolved within the time proposed, the Company withdrew the April 2005 prospectus. Although completion could not occur under the Original Deed, the parties agreed to extend the time for completion.

On 5 August 2005 the Company entered into the Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement with Philsaga (in addition to the Original Deed). Through this agreement the Company obtained the benefit of a 3 year lease of the Co-O gold treatment plant with the option to buy that plant, for a total payment of A$3,000,000 and further secured a guaranteed 3 year supply of gold ore, at cost price plus a management fee of 15 per cent..

The requirement upon Philsaga was to deliver gold bearing ore to a minimum quantity of 2,000 tonnes per calendar month from any source. It is the obligation of the Company to pay for and fund the mining and milling operations of the Co-O gold treatment plant and associated facilities for the relevant 3 year term.

The Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement was conditional upon the Company completing a capital raising for a minimum of A$4,500,000. The Company issued a prospectus in Australia in August 2005 and successfully closed that offer in September 2005 raising approximately A$6,000,000. Settlement occurred under the agreement in September 2005 using part of the funds raised under the prospectus offer.

In January 2006 Philsaga was granted a special mining permit (“SMP”) covering the Co-O Mine area. The SMP has the same terms and conditions as a mineral production sharing agreement to the extent that full scale commercial mining operations are able to be conducted. However, a SMP is granted for a 1 year period and is renewable for like period while awaiting the grant of the Mineral Production Sharing Agreement (“MPSA”). Currently, commercial mining operations are being conducted at the Co-O Mine under the terms of the SMP.

In July 2006 the Company and its Philippines subsidiary entered into the Amended Deed with the Philsaga Vendors to seek to achieve completion of the Philsaga acquisition. The purchase price under the Amended Deed comprised A$12,000,000 in cash, the issue of 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares, payment of A$1,000,000 to fund the purchase of mining equipment to service the Co-O Mine area and a royalty of US$20 per ounce of recovered gold obtained from defined extensions of the Co-O Mine system up to a limit of US$10,000,000.

In view of the grant in January 2006 of the special mining permit, the resolution of the Picop legal case (although still material) is no longer a condition precedent to settlement under the Amended Deed. The completion of the Philsaga acquisition under the Amended Deed is conditional on the Company obtaining approval from its shareholders (achieved on 29 September 2006) and a placing of shares to fund the cash element of the consideration for the Philsaga Transaction.

(b) Reasons for the Philsaga Transaction

On completion of the Philsaga Transaction, the Company, will exercise the option to acquire the Co-O Plant, the only one in the district. The Board believes that Medusa will have a strategic advantage to maximise the development of any gold deposit discovered within trucking distance of the Co-O Plant.

The Directors believe the benefits of the Philsaga Transaction will also include the following:

- control of a profitable high grade mining operation;
- an initial production of approximately 40,000 ounces on an annualised basis produced at anticipated cash costs of less than US$200 per ounce;
- milling facilities which are centrally located and can be expanded as production increases from multiple mine sites;
- interests in more than 700 km² of prospective tenements which will facilitate modern and systematic exploration; and
- an existing workforce, management and infrastructure that are working effectively and co-operatively with local communities.

The Philsaga Transaction completes Medusa’s corporate consolidation of tenement interests, mines, administration facilities and experienced management teams.

As noted above, through the Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement the Company has already secured:

- (i) a 3 year lease from September 2005 to process ore and produce gold from the Co-O Mine;
- (ii) an option to acquire the Co-O Plant at any time during the 3 year lease for the payment of A$100; and
- (iii) an ore supply agreement by which Philsaga Mining Corporation agrees to supply a minimum of 2,000 tonnes per month of gold bearing ore to the Co-O Plant for a 3 year period from September 2005 at cost plus 15 per cent..

The Company's rights and obligations under the Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement have been assigned to its wholly owned subsidiary, MMPRC.

c) Details of the Philsaga Transaction

The Philsaga Vendors will on completion of the Philsaga Transaction own in aggregate approximately 25 per cent. of the Company. Two key individuals associated with some of the Philsaga Vendors, Bill Phillips and Samuel Afdal, will continue as senior executives and directors of Philsaga. These key individuals will share a common interest with the Company in further developing the Co-O Mine. Bill Phillips, through Advance Concept Holdings Limited (or its nominee) will be interested in 14.6 million Ordinary Shares and Samuel Afdal, through Seden Philippines Holding Corporation, will be interested in 4 million Ordinary Shares on completion of the Philsaga Transaction.

The Company as a Philippines based mining company is well aware of the political and sovereign risks associated with such an acquisition and has accordingly structured the transaction so as to enable seamless continuity of the work done in minimising the exposure of Philsaga to such risks by Bill Phillips and Samuel Afdal.

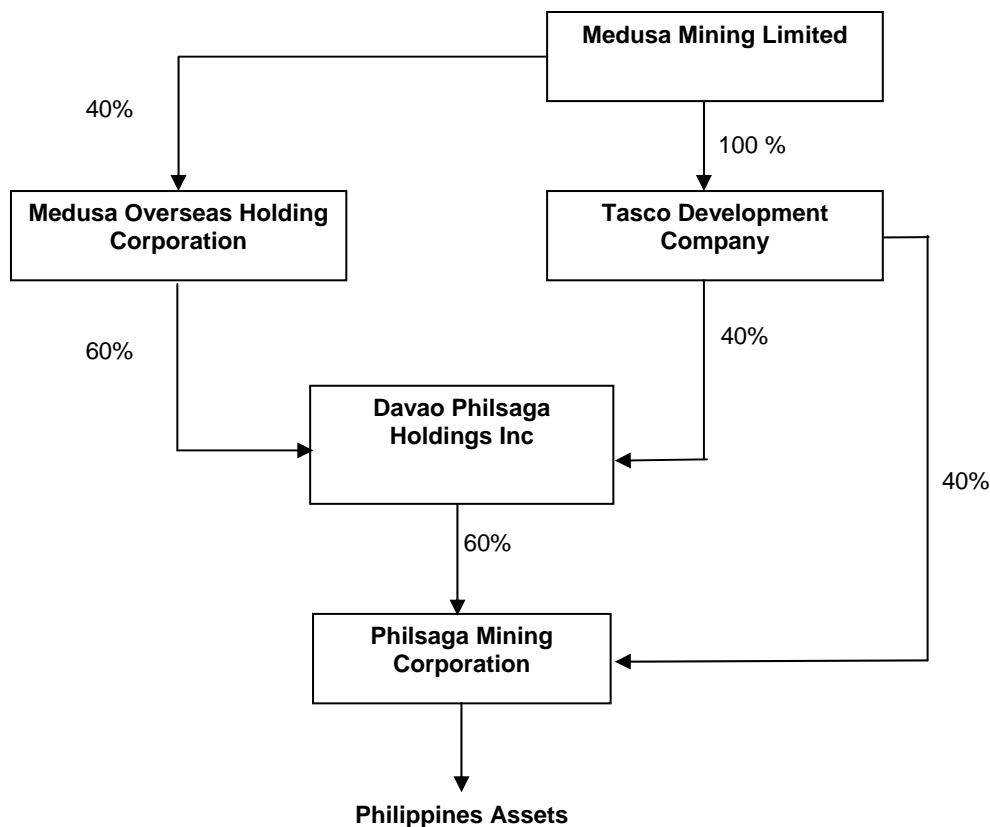

The Board of the Company will not be changed by the Philsaga Transaction.

The key terms of the Philsaga Transaction are as follows:

- the issue of 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares to the Philsaga Vendors at completion (being within 10 business days of completion of a capital raising);
- the payment of a total of A$13,000,000 in cash on completion, being A$12,000,000 to the Philsaga Vendors and A$1,000,000 to a contractor associated with the Philsaga Vendors to purchase equipment for the provision of services to the Co-O Mine;
- a payment of US$20 per ounce of recovered gold obtained from any extensions of the Co-O Mine mineralisation mined on the eastern side of a fault (defined as the Oriental Fault) limited to a maximum of US$10,000,000;

(d) Post transaction Group structure

Following the completion of the Philsaga Transaction, the Group structure relating to the Philsaga assets will be as follows:

The Company owns 100 per cent. of Mindanao Mineral Processing and Refining Corporation which under the terms of the Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement has the benefit of 100 per cent. of the revenue from the sale of gold produced by the Co-O plant.

Further details of the Philsaga Transaction are given in paragraph 19 of this document.

5. SHARE CAPITAL

- 5.1 The Company does not have an authorised share capital as it is understood in the UK that sets the limit to the number of shares a company can issue. The issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this document and at Admission will be 59,758,211 fully paid Ordinary Shares. The Ordinary Shares have no nominal or par value and are recorded in the accounts of the Company at their issue price. There are no issued shares which have different voting rights attached.

- 5.2 Some of the restrictions which apply to companies incorporated in England and Wales intending to issue new securities do not apply to Australian companies. In particular:

Shareholder approval to issue shares:

There is generally no limit in the Corporations Act or in a company's constitution on the power of the Directors to issue shares. However, subject to certain exceptions (including those in respect of pro rata issues):

- (a) Rule 7.1 of the ASX Listing Rules prohibits a company which is listed on the ASX from issuing shares or options representing more than 15 per cent. of its issued ordinary capital in any twelve month period without shareholder approval. Such shareholder approval requires an ordinary resolution passed by a simple majority; and
- (b) Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act forbids the acquisition of a "relevant interest" in voting shares in the Company (whether by transfer or issue) if, as a result, the "voting power" of the acquirer (or any other person) would increase from 20 per cent. or below to more than 20 per cent. of the voting shares.

Some of the restrictions to which UK companies intending to issue new securities are subject, do not apply to Australian companies. In particular:

Pre-emption rights on issue:

There is no similar statutory requirement under Australian law, as is found under English law, providing that shareholders have a right to be offered any shares in the Company which are being newly issued for cash before the same can be offered to new shareholders and consequently there is no requirement for shareholders in general meeting to provide a waiver to this obligation.

- 5.3 In addition to the Ordinary Shares, the Company has in issue the Options, details of which are set out in paragraph 6 below.

- 5.4 Since 30 June 2006 and save as disclosed in the Public Record and in this document:

- (c) no commission, discount, brokerage or other special term has been granted by the Company or is now proposed in connection with the issue or sale of any part of the share capital of the Company;

7. WORKING CAPITAL

The Directors believe (having made due and careful enquiry) that the working capital available to the Group is sufficient for its present requirements, that is for at least twelve months from the date of Admission.

8. SETTLEMENT

The Ordinary Shares are in registered form and will be transferable by way of the CREST and CHES systems as detailed below.

8.1 UK Registered Shareholders and CREST

CREST is a computerised paperless share transfer and settlement system which allows shares to be held in electronic rather than paper form in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 of the United Kingdom. Securities issued by Australian registered companies, such as the Company, cannot be held or transferred in the CREST system. However, to enable investors to settle such securities through the CREST system, a depositary or custodian can hold the relevant securities and issue dematerialised depositary interests ("Depositary Interests") representing the underlying securities which are held on trust for the holder of the Depositary Interests.

With effect from Admission, it will be possible for CREST members to hold and transfer interests in the Ordinary Shares within CREST pursuant to a depositary interest arrangement established by the Company with the UK Registrar. CREST is a voluntary system and holders of Ordinary Shares who wish to receive and retain share certificates will be able to do so.

The Ordinary Shares will not themselves be admitted to CREST. Instead the UK Registrar, acting as depositary, will issue Depositary Interests in respect of the underlying Ordinary Shares. The Depositary Interests will be independent securities constituted under English law which may be held or transferred through the CREST system. Depositary Interests will have the same international security identification number (ISIN) as the underlying Ordinary Shares and will not require a separate quotation on the London Stock Exchange. The Depositary Interests will be created and issued pursuant to a deed poll entered into by the UK Registrar, which will govern the relationship between the UK Registrar, as depositary, and the holders of the Depositary Interests.

Application will be made for the Depositary Interests in respect of the underlying Ordinary Shares to be admitted to CREST with effect from Admission.

8.2 Australian Registered Shareholders and CHESS

Settlement on the Australian register will continue to be conducted under ASX's electronic CHESS system.

9. LOCK IN ARRANGEMENTS

9.1 Each of the Directors and their connected parties who holds or has an interest in Ordinary Shares has entered into a lock-in agreement with Ambrian Partners and the Company relating to all of his existing shareholding and any Ordinary Shares which might be issued to Directors pursuant to Options granted as at the date of Admission. On Admission the Directors will be interested in an aggregate of 3,503,700 Ordinary Shares, representing approximately 5.86 per cent. of the share capital. Details of the Directors' holdings of Ordinary Shares and Options are set out in paragraphs 12.1 and 12.2 of this document.

The Directors have undertaken to the Company and Ambrian not to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any interests in Ordinary Shares (except in certain limited circumstances) prior to the first anniversary of Admission. There are in addition, orderly market restrictions for a further 6 month period.

10. RISK FACTORS

The risks set out below are not an exhaustive list and are not presented in any order of priority.

Investing in the Company involves a high degree of risk. The price of Ordinary Shares could decline due to any of these risks and investors could lose all or part of their investment. An investment in the Company is only suitable for investors who are capable of evaluating the risks and merits of such investment and who have sufficient resources to bear any loss which might result from such investment.

The Directors have identified the risks below, and, if they were to materialise the Company's business, financial conditions and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

The exploration, mining and development of natural resources are speculative activities that involve a high degree of financial risk. Any one or more of the risks set out below could have a material adverse effect on the value of any investment in the Company and the business, financial position or operating results of the Company and should be taken into account in assessing the Company's activities.

10.1 Title Risks and the Picop Legal Case

The Company's activities are focused upon the Philippines. New mining legislation was introduced in the Philippines in 1995, which involved converting previous mineral tenements to the new title system. The implementation of this new legislation has resulted in significant delays in the tenement approval process. All companies investing in mineral exploration in the Philippines have to operate under similar conditions with the possibility of an application being rejected or challenged.

A number of the mining claims in which the Company is interested are in application stage. There is no guarantee or certainty that any application will be granted or, if granted, will be done so in a timely manner or on acceptable terms.

There is a specific title risk that could restrict or prevent mining operations in respect of the Co-O Mine area which is in central eastern Mindanao in the Philippines. The principal mining claim within which the Co-O Mine is located is the application 000084-XIII for a MPSA. This application is affected by the Picop legal case. An MPSA is granted for a period of 25 years and is renewable for a period of 25 years.

The Picop legal case involves a claim in the Philippines courts by Picop Resources Inc (a holder of existing timber licences or concessions) in respect of various mineral production sharing agreement applications including MPSA application 000084-XIII held by Philsaga and within which the Co-O Mine is located. Picop Resources Inc is a timber concession holder attempting to link surface rights to mineral rights and has contended that the mining application areas should be closed to mining without its consent. Initially the mining applications were set aside by a Panel of Arbitrators for a failure to secure the consent of Picop Resources Inc.

On appeal the Mines Adjudication Board set aside the decision of the Panel of Arbitrators and reinstated the applications. The Mines Adjudication Board by its decision dated 10 December 2002 held that the right of Picop Resources Inc to occupation, possession and control over its concession areas refers only to its timber plantation and does not include the disposition of minerals that may be found therein, which solely and exclusively belongs to the Government.

Picop Resources Inc filed an appeal with the Court of Appeals. In its decision delivered on 28 November 2003 the Court of Appeals dismissed the petition of Picop Resources Inc.

Still dissatisfied, Picop Resources Inc elevated the matter to the Supreme Court of the Philippines by filing a Petition for Review on Certiorari against the Department of Environment and Natural Resources in an attempt to prevent, inter alia, the Department from issuing the MPSA to Philsaga. Philsaga is not a party to the proceedings. A resolution of the proceedings is still pending.

Pending the grant of the MPSA, Philsaga in January 2006 was granted a Special Mining Permit ("SMP") covering the Co-O Mine area. The SMP has the same terms and conditions as a MPSA to the extent that full-scale commercial mining operations are able to be conducted. However, a SMP is granted for a 1 year period and is renewable for like period. Currently full scale commercial mining operations are being conducted at the Co-O Mine.

In the worst case scenario of an unfavourable decision by the Supreme Court in the Picop legal case, Philsaga will be unable to pursue its MPSA application within the Picop concession area. Philsaga will likewise be prevented from continuing its mining operation within the 423.1562 hectare area subject of its Special Mines Permit No. 05-2006 to the extent that it overlaps Picop's concession area which would materially adversely affect the prospects and financial performance of Medusa.

10.2 Land Access

Immediate access to mineral tenements in the Philippines cannot in all cases be guaranteed. The Company may be required to seek consent of land holders or other persons or groups with an interest in real property encompassed by, or adjacent to, the Company's tenements. Compensation may be required to be paid by the Company to land holders in order that the Company may carry out exploration and/or mining activities. Native title exists in the Philippines and is governed by law. Where applicable, agreements with indigenous groups have to be in place before a mineral tenement can be granted.

10.3 Sovereign Risk

The Company's projects are located in the Philippines. The political conditions in the Philippines are stable but are somewhat uncertain on the south-west corner of the island of Mindanao. Changes may occur in relation to the political, fiscal and legal systems of the Philippines which may affect the ownership or operations of the Company including, amongst other things, changes in exchange rates, control or regulations, exploration or mining rights, changes in government and in legislative, fiscal and regulatory regimes, violence and lack of law enforcement, political insurrection or labour unrest, inflations or economic recession.

10.4 Dependence on Key Personnel

The Group is dependent upon its current executive management team. Whilst it has entered into contractual arrangements with the aim of securing the services of these personnel, the retention of their services cannot be guaranteed. Accordingly, the loss of any key management of the Group may temporarily have an adverse effect on the future of the Group's business. The Group competes with numerous other companies and individuals in the search for and acquisition of mineral claims, leases and other mineral interests as well as for the recruitment and retention of qualified employees and contractors.

10.5 Future Capital Needs and Additional Funding

The future capital requirements of the Company will depend on many factors. Should the Company require additional funding there can be no assurance that additional financing will be available on acceptable terms, or at all.

Any inability to obtain additional finance, if required, would have an adverse material effect on the Company's business, its financial condition and performance and its ability to continue as a going concern.

10.6 Resource Estimates

Resources estimates are expressions of judgements based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. Estimates which were valid when made, may change significantly when new information becomes available. In addition, resource estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate. Should the Company encounter mineralisation or formations different from those predicted from past sampling and drilling, resource estimates may have to be adjusted and mining plans may have to be altered in a way which could have either a positive or negative effect on the Company's operations.

10.7 Commodity Prices

As a gold explorer and producer the Company's expected earnings will be closely related to the price of gold together with the terms of any off-take agreement(s) under which the mineral concentrates it produces will be sold.

Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by numerous factors beyond the control of the Company. These factors include worldwide and regional supply and demand for the specific commodity, commodity trading on the futures markets, general world economic conditions and the outlook of interest rates, inflation and other economic factors on both a regional and global basis. These factors may have a positive or negative effect on the Company's exploration, project development and production plans and activities, together with the ability to fund those plans and activities.

10.8 Currency

The Company's future revenue may be in US dollars whilst its cost basis will be payable in Philippine pesos, United States dollars or Australian dollars.

The exchange rates between the various currencies are affected by numerous factors beyond the control of the Company. These factors include economic conditions in the relevant country and elsewhere and the outlook for interest rates, inflation and other economic factors. These factors may have a positive or negative effect on the Company's exploration, project development and production plans and activities, together with the ability to fund those plans and activities.

10.9 Environmental

The Company's operations are subject to the environmental risks inherent in the mineral production and exploration industries. The Company is subject to environmental laws and regulations in connection with all of its operations. Further, the Company may require approval from the relevant authorities before it can undertake activities that are likely to impact on the environment. Failure to obtain such approvals will prevent the Company from undertaking its desired activities. The Company is unable to predict the effect of additional environmental laws and regulations that may be adopted in the future, including whether any such laws or regulations would materially increase the Company's costs of doing business or affect its operations in any area.

10.10 Potential Acquisitions

As part of its business strategy, the Company may make acquisitions of, or significant investments in, complementary companies or prospects, although no such acquisitions or investments are currently planned. Any such transactions would be accompanied by risks commonly encountered in making such acquisitions.

10.11 Uninsured Risks

The Group, as a participant in exploration and mining programmes, may become subject to liability for hazards that cannot be insured against or against which it may elect not to be so insured because of high premium costs or other reasons. The Group may incur a liability to third parties (in excess of any insurance cover) arising from pollution or other damage or injury.

10.12 Commercial Risks

Like many companies, the Company faces commercial risks such as competition, litigation, industrial disputes, operational risks and liabilities.

10.13 Exploration, Development, Mining and Processing Risks

The business of mineral exploration, project development and mining, by its nature contains elements of significant risk with no guarantee of success. Ultimate and continued success of these activities is dependent on many factors such as:

- securing and maintaining title to tenements;
- the discovery and/or acquisition of economically recoverable ore reserves;
- successful conclusions to bankable feasibility studies;
- access to adequate capital for project development;
- design and construction of efficient mining, processing, transport and handling facilities within a capital expenditure budget;
- obtaining consents and approvals necessary for the conduct of exploration, mining, transport, handling and export of products;
- access to competent operational management and prudent financial administration, including the availability and reliability of appropriately skilled and experienced employees, contractors and consultants;
- avoiding or minimising environmental hazards, industrial accidents, labour disputes, mechanical failures of plant and equipment; and
- adverse weather conditions.

10.14 Share Investment Risk – ASX, Frankfurt Stock Exchange and AIM

There are various risks associated with investing in any form of business and with investing in the stock market generally. The value of the Ordinary Shares will depend upon general stock market and economic conditions as well as the specific performance of the Company. There is no guarantee of profitability, dividends, return of capital, or the price at which the Ordinary Shares will trade on ASX, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and AIM. The past performance of the Shares is not necessarily an indication as to future performance as the trading price of shares and options can go down or up in value.

The shares prices of publicly quoted companies can be volatile. The price of shares is dependent upon a number of factors some of which are general or market or sector specific and others that are specific to the Company.

The Ordinary Shares will not be listed on the Official List and although an application has been made for the Ordinary Shares to be traded on AIM, this should not be taken as implying that there will always be a liquid market in them. The market for shares in smaller public companies is less liquid than for larger public companies. Therefore an investment in the Ordinary Shares may be difficult to realise and the share price may be subject to greater fluctuations than might otherwise be the case. An investment in shares quoted on AIM may carry a higher risk than an investment in shares quoted on the Official List. AIM has been in existence since June 1995 but its future success and liquidity in the market for the Ordinary Shares cannot be guaranteed.

The market price of the Ordinary Shares may not reflect the underlying value of the Company's net assets. The price at which investors may dispose of their securities may be influenced by a number of factors, some of which may pertain to the Company and others of which are extraneous. On any disposal of their shares investors may realise less than the original amount invested.

10.15 Economic Risk

Changes in the general economic climate in which the Company operates may adversely affect the financial performance of the Company. Factors that may contribute to the general economic climate include the level of direct and indirect competition against the Company, industrial disruption, the rate of growth in the Company's markets, interest rates and the rate of inflation.

11. CONSTITUTION

- 11.1 The Constitution was adopted at the Company's meeting of Shareholders on 29 September 2006 and is available on the Company's website, www.medusamining.com.au.

The Constitution contains provisions, inter alia, to the following effect:

Voting Rights

Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at a general meeting of members every member has one vote on a show of hands and one vote per Ordinary Share on a poll. A person who holds a share which is not fully paid shall be entitled to a fraction of a vote equal to that proportion of a vote that the amount paid on the relevant share bears to the total issue price of the share. Voting may be in person or by proxy, attorney or representative.

Dividends

Subject to the rights of holders of Ordinary Shares issued with any special rights (at present there are none), the profits of the Company which the Directors may from time to time determine to distribute by way of dividend are divisible among the holders of Ordinary Shares in proportion to their holding, and among the holders of partly paid shares in proportion to the amounts paid (including amounts credited) of the total amounts paid or payable (including amounts credited) on the shares in respect of which the dividend is paid.

Issues of Shares and Options

Subject to the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules, the Directors may allot, issue, grant options over, or otherwise deal with shares in the Company at the times and on the terms and conditions that the Directors think proper and a share may be issued with preferential, deferred or special rights, privileges or conditions or restrictions including, but not limited to, restrictions in regard to dividends, voting or return of capital as the Directors from time to time determine.

Transfer of Shares

A Shareholder may transfer shares by a market transfer in accordance with any computerised or electronic system established or recognised by ASX or the Corporations Act for the purpose of facilitating transfers in Shares or by an instrument in writing in a form approved by ASX or in any other usual form or in any form approved by the Directors. A transfer in the CREST system is specifically authorised.

Meetings and Notices

Each Shareholder is entitled to receive notice of, and to attend, general meetings for the Company and to receive all notices, accounts and other documents required to be sent to shareholders under the Constitution, the Corporations Act or the ASX Listing Rules.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with the Corporations Act.

Election of Directors

There must be a minimum of 3 Directors and a maximum of 10 Directors. The Company may by ordinary resolution alter the minimum or maximum provided the minimum is not less than 3 Directors.

At every annual general meeting one third of the Directors (rounded down to the nearest whole number) must retire from office. If the Company has less than 3 Directors, one Director must retire from office. These retirement rules do not apply to the managing director.

Managing Director

The Directors may from time to time appoint one of their number to the office of managing director on such terms as the Directors resolve. They may revoke such appointment, without prejudice to any agreed terms as to his tenure. The managing director shall receive such remuneration as the directors may determine.

Indemnities

To the extent permitted by law the Company must indemnify each past and present Director and secretary against any liability incurred by that person as an officer of the Company and any legal costs incurred in defending an action in respect of such liability.

Winding Up

Subject to the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and rights and restrictions attached to any shares, Shareholders will be entitled, in a winding up, to any surplus assets of the Company in such proportion as the amount paid (including amounts credited) on the shares of a member bears to the total amount paid and payable (including amounts credited) on the shares of all members.

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Shareholders and the subject to the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and any rights or restrictions attaching to a class of shares:

- divide among the Shareholders the whole or any part of the property of the Company; and
- determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

Alteration to the Constitution

The Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. At least 28 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution must be given.

ASX Listing Rules

If the Company is admitted to trading on the official list of ASX, then despite anything in the Constitution, if the ASX Listing Rules prohibit an act being done, the act must not be done. Nothing in the Constitution prevents an act being done that the ASX Listing Rules require to be done. If the ASX Listing Rules require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be). If the ASX Listing Rules require the Constitution to contain a provision and it does not contain such a provision, the Constitution is deemed to contain that provision. If the ASX Listing Rules require the Constitution not to contain a provision and it contains such a provision, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision. If a provision of the Constitution is inconsistent with the ASX Listing Rules, the Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision to the extent of the inconsistency.

Full details of corporate governance policies that have been adopted by the Company's Board are available on the Company's website www.medusamining.com.au. The Board as a whole is responsible for the remuneration arrangements of the directors and executives of the Company. However, the Board has adopted a remuneration committee charter to guide any future implementation of a separately constituted remuneration committee.

- 17.2 The Corporate Governance policies, charters and codes adopted by the Board and in effect are the Board Charter, the Code of Conduct, Continuous Disclosure Policy, Share Trading Policy and Shareholder Communications Policy. 18. TAXATION

Summary of taxation implications

The paragraphs below comment on the general Australian and UK taxation position of individual and corporate resident and non-resident Shareholders in relation to the payment of dividends by the Company and the future disposal of their Ordinary Shares or Depository Interests.

The following comments are intended as a general guide to the Australian and UK tax implications only. This should not be a substitute for individual advice from an appropriate professional adviser and all persons are strongly advised to obtain their own professional advice on the tax implications of acquiring, owning and disposing of Ordinary Shares or Depository Interests based on their own specific circumstances.

In particular, all such Shareholders should consider the potential impact of any relevant double taxation conventions on their shareholding.

The comments are based on the law and understanding of the practice of the tax authorities in the UK and Australia at the date of this document.

18.1 Australian Taxation

- (a) Taxation of Future Share Disposals

Australian Resident Shareholders – General

Australian Shareholders who trade Ordinary Shares in the ordinary course of their business or who acquire Ordinary Shares for the purpose of profit-making by sale will hold their Ordinary Shares on revenue account. These Shareholders must include any profits made on the disposal of their Ordinary Shares in their assessable income. Shareholders who include profit made on the disposal of their Ordinary Shares in their assessable income are not assessed for tax under the capital gains tax provisions but under the ordinary income tax provisions.

All other Australian Shareholders will hold their Ordinary Shares on capital account. These Australian resident Shareholders must consider the impact of Australian capital gains tax rules on the disposal of their Ordinary Shares. A Shareholder derives a capital gain on the disposal of Ordinary Shares where the consideration received on disposal exceeds the capital gains tax cost base of the Ordinary Shares.

A Shareholder derives a capital loss on the disposal of Ordinary Shares where the consideration received on disposal is less than the capital gains tax reduced cost base of the Ordinary Shares. All capital gains and losses for the year are added together to produce a net capital gain. A net capital gain for a financial year is included in the resident taxpayer's assessable income and is subject to taxation in Australia. A net capital loss may generally be carried forward indefinitely to future financial year to be deducted against future capital gains.

Non-Australian Resident Shareholders – General

Non-Australian resident Shareholders who hold Ordinary Shares on revenue account may need to include profits from the sale of Ordinary Shares in their assessable income. Applicable double taxation agreements may provide relief from Australian taxation.

Non-Australian resident Shareholders who do not hold Ordinary Shares on revenue account may be subject to Australian capital gains tax upon disposal of their Ordinary Shares. Non-Australian resident Shareholders will only be subject to Australia's capital gains tax on the disposal of Ordinary Shares if they and their associates held 10 per cent. or more of the issued capital of the Company at any time within five years of the disposal. These Shareholders may be able to obtain relief from Australian capital gains tax via the application of any relevant double taxation agreement.

Non-Australian resident Shareholders, who together with associates own less than 10 per cent. of the Company's issued capital, will not be subject to Australia's capital gains tax rules.

The Australian government has introduced legislation to Parliament to amend the capital gains tax legislation as it applies to non-Australian residents. Under the proposed legislation, which will apply to capital gains tax events on or after the date of assent of the legislation, non-Australian residents will no longer be subject to capital gains tax on the disposal of their ordinary shares, subject to measures to preserve Australian taxation on non-portfolio shareholdings where more than 50 per cent. of the value of the Company's assets is attributable (directly or indirectly) to Australian real property including mining rights.

Capital Gains Tax Discount

Shareholders that are either individuals, trusts or complying superannuation funds (and in some cases a life insurance company) (whether resident or non-Australian resident) may be entitled to obtain a capital gains tax discount in relation to a net capital gain derived in a financial year. The "discount percentage" is 50 per cent. for an individual or a trust and 33 1/3 per cent. for complying superannuation entities. Broadly, this capital gains tax discount is only available if the Shareholder has held the Ordinary Shares for at least twelve months. The concession is not available to a Shareholder that is a company.

(b) Dividends

Dividends are paid to Shareholders from the accounting profits of the Company. Australian resident Shareholders will receive credits for any Australian corporate tax that has been paid on these profits. These credits are known as “franking credits” and they represent the extent to which a dividend is “franked” by company tax having been paid on the company’s profits. It is possible for a dividend to be either fully or partly franked. Where a dividend is partly franked the franked portion is treated as fully franked and the remainder as being unfranked.

It should be noted that the definition of dividend for Australian tax purposes is broad and can include certain capital returns and off-market share buy-backs.

Australian Resident Shareholders – Individuals and trusts

Resident individual and trust Shareholders will need to include dividends and the amount of any franking credits attached thereto in their assessable income in the period in which they receive the dividend. Individual Shareholders will receive tax credits for any franking credits attached to the dividend. Individual Shareholders may receive a tax refund if the franking credits attached to the dividend exceed their tax payable on the receipt of the dividend. Individuals will need to pay additional tax at their marginal rate of tax if the tax payable as a result of receiving the dividend exceeds the franking credits attached to the dividend.

Australian Resident Shareholders – Corporate

Dividends payable to Australian resident corporate Shareholders together with the amount of any franking credits attached thereto will be included in their assessable income in the year the dividend is paid. The corporate Shareholder will be entitled to a tax offset to the extent that the dividend is franked. This would result in the dividend being free of further company tax to the extent that it is franked. A fully franked dividend should effectively be free of tax to an Australian resident corporate Shareholder. Where franking credits are unused by a corporate shareholder because the corporate shareholder’s tax payable has been reduced to A$Nil they may be converted to income tax losses. The franking credits attaching to dividends received will be added to the corporate shareholder’s franking account.

Non-Australian Resident Shareholders – General

Unfranked dividends payable to non-Australian resident Shareholders will be subject to withholding tax. Withholding tax is generally imposed at 30 per cent. unless a Shareholder is a resident of a country with which Australia has a double taxation agreement. The double taxation agreement may reduce the withholding tax rate to a range of between 5 per cent. and 15 per cent. depending on the country of residence of the non-Australian resident Shareholder.

Unfranked dividends paid to non-Australian residents by a resident company from conduit foreign income may not be subject to withholding tax. Broadly, the conduit foreign income measures provide tax relief for unfranked dividends paid to non-Australian residents from conduit foreign income, being amounts of foreign income and gains that are earned by or through an Australian corporate tax entity and, which are ordinarily sheltered from Australian tax when received by the Australian corporate tax entity. The conduit foreign income rules generally apply even where the conduit foreign income passes through a series of Australian corporate tax entities to the ultimate foreign owners.

Fully franked dividends are not subject to withholding tax. Non-Australian resident Shareholders may be assessable for tax on any such dividends in their country of residence. They should consider the impact of dividends under their domestic tax regime.

(c) Depository Interests

Australian resident and non-Australian resident holders of Depository Interests will be subject to Australian taxation laws in the same way as if they held the underlying Ordinary Shares directly.

18.2 UK Taxation

(a) Taxation of Chargeable Gains

UK Resident Shareholders

A disposal or deemed disposal of Ordinary Shares or Depository Interests by a Shareholder who is (at any time in the relevant UK tax year) resident or ordinarily resident in the UK may give rise to a chargeable gain (subject to the availability of exemptions and reliefs) or an allowable loss for the purpose of the UK taxation of chargeable gains.

Non-UK Resident Shareholders

Broadly, a Shareholder who is not resident in the UK for tax purposes but who carries on a trade, profession or vocation in the UK through a branch or agency or, in the case of companies only, a permanent establishment, in connection with which the Ordinary Shares or Depository Interests are used, held or acquired may also be subject to UK taxation on chargeable gains on a disposal of those Ordinary Shares or Depository Interests.

Special rules may apply to tax gains on disposals or deemed disposals made by individuals who are not currently (but who have been) either resident or ordinarily resident in the UK or to any individuals who are temporarily not resident nor ordinarily resident in the UK. Any such individuals should obtain specialist tax advice.

(b) Dividends

The Company will not be required to withhold UK tax from dividends paid on the Ordinary Shares.

UK-resident shareholders

Dividends received by a UK resident or ordinarily resident shareholder will be subject to income tax at that individual's marginal rate of tax. Companies will be subject to corporation tax on dividends received if they are resident in the UK.

Relief for Australian tax

Relief may be available against a charge to tax in the UK for Australian dividend withholding tax ("WHT") suffered. The amount of the dividend received plus the WHT will comprise the assessable income of the UK-resident Shareholder.

In these circumstances the Shareholder may be entitled to a credit for the WHT. If available, the credit would be limited to the lesser of the WHT or the UK tax payable on the combined amount of the dividend plus WHT. If the WHT exceeds the UK tax payable on the dividend, the excess is neither creditable nor repayable.

A UK-resident company may also seek relief for underlying tax (for Australian tax charged on profits out of which the dividend was declared) where the UK company owns 10 per cent. or more of the voting rights in the Company. As the credit given in the UK for Australian tax suffered on the dividend cannot exceed the UK corporation tax liability on the dividend, a UK-resident company may, subject to it satisfying the relevant provisions, be entitled to claim credit for any eligible unrelieved Australian tax (both WHT and underlying tax) against qualifying dividends received from other sources.

UK resident shareholders may be able to take advantage of the double taxation convention in force between the UK and Australia to reduce the amount of WHT suffered in Australia (if any).

(c) Inheritance Tax

If any Shareholder is an individual and is regarded as domiciled in the UK for inheritance tax purposes, inheritance tax may be payable in respect of the Ordinary Shares or Depositary Interests on the death of the Shareholder. The gift of the Ordinary Shares or Depositary Interests may have inheritance tax implications.

In the case of a Shareholder who is an individual but who is not regarded as domiciled in the UK for these purposes, no such UK inheritance tax will be payable if the Ordinary Shares or Depositary Interests are not situated in the UK for inheritance tax purposes. The Ordinary Shares or Depositary Interests must be regarded as situated in the UK for these purposes if they are registered on the Company's UK branch register.

(d) UK Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax

The following comments do not apply to Ordinary Shares issued or transferred into depositary or clearance arrangements, to which special rules apply.

There is generally no liability to UK stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax ("SDRT") on the issue of Ordinary Shares by the Company.

The transfer of Depositary Interests after the admission of the Company to AIM will be exempt from SDRT. If the Ordinary Shares are transferred outside of CREST using a written instrument of transfer, there may be a charge to UK stamp duty at 0.5 per cent. of the consideration given if the transfer is executed in the UK or relates to anything done, or to be done, in the UK.

Any person who is in any doubt as to his tax position or is subject to taxation in a jurisdiction other than Australia or the UK should consult an appropriate professional adviser.

19. MATERIAL CONTRACTS

In addition to the agreements summarised in the Public Record (which can be found at www.asx.com.au), the following is a summary of material subsisting agreements to which the Company or a subsidiary of the Company is or will be a party and which relate to the assets and liabilities of the Company:

19.1 Philsaga Share Sale Deed

The Company has undertaken to complete a transaction by which the Company and its Philippines subsidiary, MOHC, acquire shares in two companies so that the Company and MOHC hold an indirect downstream interest in all the share capital of Philsaga and thereby control its assets and interests.

The Philsaga Transaction documents consist of the Philsaga Share Sale Deed and various ancillary agreements described in paragraphs 19.3 to 19.7 below. All of the agreements are governed by the laws of the Philippines. By the Philsaga Share Sale Deed the Company and MOHC together purchase the entire shareholding of Davao Philsaga Holdings Inc and Tasco Development Company from the Philsaga Vendors.

The two interdependent transactions under the Philsaga Share Sale Deed are firstly the purchase of the Company of 100 per cent. of the shares of Tasco Development Company which are held by Advanced Concept Holdings Limited and Yandal Investments Pty Ltd and secondly the purchase by MOHC of 60 per cent. of the shares of Davao Philsaga Holdings Inc which are held by Secdea Philippines Holdings Corporation or its interests. All the shares to be purchased are unencumbered.

The assets held by Philsaga include the Co-O Mine with its infrastructure, various tenement and joint ventures interests and business licences.

The purchase price consideration to be paid and/or issued on completion to the Philsaga Vendors is 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares and A$12,000,000 in cash. By one of the ancillary agreements a further A$1,000,000 is payable in cash at completion.

If the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, discovers a significant deposit on or within any of the mining tenements defined in the Philsaga Share Sale Deed and the relevant Medusa entity disposes of either the tenement containing the discovery or transfers effective control over the discovery, then the Company must pay the Philsaga Vendors 10 per cent. of the consideration received for the disposal as it relates to the discovery.

The Philsaga Vendors have agreed to a voluntary escrow of the 25,000,000 Ordinary Shares to be issued to them for a period of 12 months from their date of issue, except that this period will cease upon a relevant change of control affecting the Company and will extend (where applicable) until the grant of Mineral Production Sharing Agreement 000084-XIII within which the Co-O Mine is located.

The Philsaga Vendors have each covenanted in favour of the Company that at all times up to and including and immediately post-completion their relevant interest the Company will be less than 20 per cent.. The Philsaga Vendors have also provided various warranties as to their independence.

The Philsaga Vendors provide basic warranties as to the shares sold whilst Bill Phillips and Samuel Afdal provide warranties consistent with a share sale agreement of this type. Any claim against Bill Phillips and Samuel Afdal is limited to a 3 year period and a total claim together of A$1,875,000.

Completion under the Philsaga Share Sale Deed will occur no later than 10 business days after the satisfaction of all conditions precedent. The outstanding condition precedent is that the Company makes payment of the consideration as detailed above. It is intended that this condition will be satisfied by the Company successfully completing a capital raising.

The ancillary agreements described below at paragraphs 19.3 to 19.7 will be executed on completion of the Philsaga Share Sale Deed.

19.2 Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement

The Plant Lease, Option and Ore Supply Agreement is constituted by an agreement dated 5 August 2005 as amended by a deed of 29 July 2006.

By the agreement the Company entered into a lease of the Co-O gold treatment plant and all associated facilities for a period of 3 years that commenced from a settlement date of 27 September 2005. The Company was further granted an option to buy the Co-O gold treatment plant and associated facilities at any time from settlement on 27 September 2005 until a period of 28 days after the conclusion of the 3 year lease period. The option is to be exercised by the payment of A$100 and delivery of a written notice to Philsaga. The consideration for the lease and option was the payment of the total sum of A$3,000,000, which was paid by the Company on 27 September 2005. The payment of A$3,000,000 included the payment of A$1,000,000 to Vibrant Earthmovers Inc which funds will be used by Vibrant Earthmovers Inc to purchase in its own right equipment and assets to be used during the 3 year lease period to facilitate and enhance the quantity and quality of gold bearing ore processed through the Co-O gold treatment plant.

By the agreement, Philsaga and the Company further agreed that for the 3 year lease period Philsaga will sell and supply to the Company gold bearing ore at a cost price reflecting the best price obtainable by Philsaga plus a management fee of 15 per cent.. Philsaga must deliver gold bearing ore to a minimum quantity of 2,000 tonnes per calendar month from any source (which includes sources other than the Co-O mine). Notwithstanding this, Philsaga must deliver all gold bearing ore from the Co-O mine for sale and supply to the Company for the 3 year period. The cost of the ore and management fee will be paid by the Company monthly in arrears on presentation of an account by Philsaga with substantiating documents.

During the 3 year lease term the Company will pay for and/or fund the mining and milling operations of the Co-O gold treatment plant and associated facilities and will have the sole unencumbered right to all product processed through the Co-O gold treatment plant and all revenue generated from the sale and supply of such products.

In September 2005 the Company assigned all its rights and obligations under the agreement to its wholly owned subsidiary, MMPRC. These rights included the right to the option to buy the Co-O gold treatment plant and associated facilities and the right to receipt of the gold bearing ore.

In consideration of Vibrant Earthmovers performing the services, Philsaga will pay Vibrant Earthmovers 15 per cent. on a cost plus basis being 15 per cent. of the total direct cost of mining and milling operations performed at the Co-O Mine and area.
