talent management for the future

Multi-Media Marketer

- > Leading direct marketing multinational
- > Media and production focus
- > Circa $140,000 package

As a commercial, media savvy marketer, with the ability to proactively and profitably expand media channels, this role, within an entrepreneurial business will appeal.

Reporting to the CEO, responsibilities span both media and production. Negotiating media contracts, media analysis, writing media briefs and liaising with external media buyers and directly with the media are key. You also work closely with international and in-house production units in overseeing the editing, scripting and filming of advertisements. Managing a multi million budget and a team of 4, your remit is to drive growth and best practice through existing and complementary media channels.

You have a successful track record working across all areas of media, with a strength in TV, knowledge of the changing media landscape, sound DM and production credentials and good fiscal/ROI skills. With a can-do approach and being a people person, you will be attracted to this dynamic opportunity.

Business Model

Key Trends

Two key mega trends underpin the Talent2 business model:

- > Organisations are discovering that effective human capital practices provide better returns to shareholders substantially in excess of companies which have weak human capital practices. Talent2 delivers improved human capital practices for its customers.
- > One of the strongest-growing markets in HR is HR outsourcing, estimated to be more than US$100B worldwide. Talent2 Managed Services business has the technology and skills today to take advantage of this trend.

Brief History

A calendar of the main events in the company's history is outlined at the end of this note. The key components of the story are as follows:

- > The HR payroll and software company Concept Systems was established in 1985 and undertook a listing on the ASX in early 2000.
- > In April 2002, Morgan & Banks Investments (MBI), a private company associated with Andrew Banks and Geoff Morgan, acquired a substantial shareholding in Concept.
- > In 2003, Concept announced that it would acquire a newly established HR business from MBI and associated interests in return for shares in Concept. The business was initially called MB2 but later renamed Talent2. Following the acquisition, effective 29 September 2003, MBI's interest in Concept increased to an effective holding of 45% [which has since reduced to 28%]. At the same time, Andrew Banks became Managing Director and Geoff Morgan moved on to the board.
- > In May 2004, at an EGM, the group changed its name from Concept Systems to Talent2 International (adopting the name of the subsidiary). The ASX code changed to TWO (from CSI), effective 1 June 2004.

Morgan & Banks – a Precursor to Talent2

- > Geoff Morgan and Andrew Banks established Morgan & Banks in 1985 and later sold it to Select plc in UK for A$38.3m, before buying it back in 1991 for A$2.6m.
- > In 1994, Morgan & Banks Limited (MBL) listed on ASX with market capitalisation of $33m, 250 staff and 200 contractors. In 1998, MBL was bought by TMP for $380m, MBL having at the time revenue of $330m, EBITDA of $25.5m and NPAT of $11.2m. From 1993-1998 MBL's compound annual growth rates for revenue and EBITDA were 46% and 35%, respectively.

Valuation Consideration

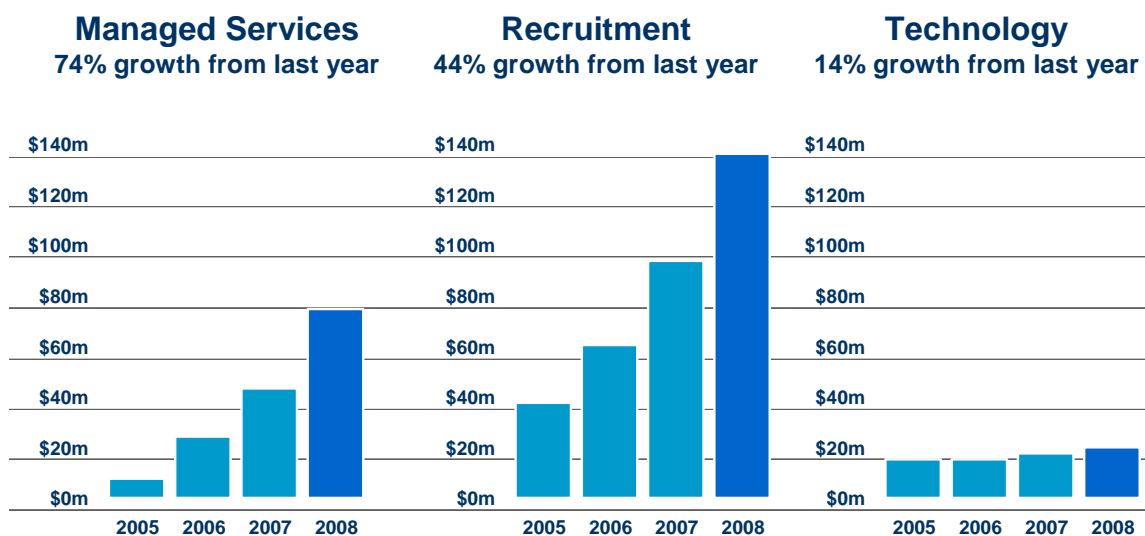

When valuing companies such as Talent2, it is standard analyst practice to:

- > Calculate adjusted (core or normalised) profit and adjusted EPS numbers which add-back acquisition amortisation (and other non-recurring items) after tax
- > For Talent2, the amortisation adjustment relates to 'amortisation of acquired intangible assets'. This reflects in the main to the acquisition of NPS and its intellectual property, which under the AIFRS accounting standards is subject to amortisation over a period not exceeding eight years.
