Talent2 short listed at NZ Ministry of Education

Talent2 International Limited (TWO) have been advised that its subsidiary Talent2 Works, together with a New Zealand partner, have been short listed as the preferred supplier of payroll and some associated human resource technology and services to the Ministry of Education in New Zealand for use in the schools sector in New Zealand. It is anticipated that this contract could be worth to Talent2 in excess of $10 million over 5 years. The proposal is subject to New Zealand government approval. Full particulars will be provided if government approval to proceed is granted and contractual negotiations are finalised, in approximately June or July 2005.
