Talent2 selected to provide Talent Acquisition Management services to Konekt

Talent2 has been selected by Konekt to provide Talent Acquisition Services (TAM) to all Konekt divisions. The agreement commences immediately.

"We are particularly pleased with this new managed services agreement," said John Rawlinson, CEO of Talent2. "It once again proves that our managed services model is the best way for our customers to enhance their talent acquisition activities, giving them first rate recruitment practices whilst retaining control over process and cost."

Carl Woodbridge, CEO and Managing Director of Konekt said "that attracting and retaining talent was crucial to the success and future growth of Konekt. I am confident that the partnership with Talent2 will give Konekt a competitive advantage and create true value for both organizations".
