Talent2 Tokyo ranked as Japan's best headhunting firm for second year running

Talent2 comes out top again in AsiaMoney's 2011 Headhunter's Poll

TOKYO, September 5, 2011 – Talent2 have been voted the number one choice for recruitment services in Japan, as voted by hiring managers in the country.

The accolade, won for the second year running by Talent2 Tokyo, was a result of topping the 2011 Headhunter's Poll, conducted by Asiamoney, a publication for executives in the financial services industry.

The survey, now in its 11th year, gave the overall title to Talent2 Tokyo following strong showings across a range of headhunting categories. Individually there was a powerful presence too, with four of the top ten individual ranking spots going to Talent2 Tokyo.

Commenting on the success, Bruce Lepore, Manager at Talent2 Tokyo, said: "It's a tremendous honour to be voted top of the prestigious 2011 Headhunter's Poll for the second year running. Talent2 Tokyo is a relatively recent addition to the market which makes the achievement even greater for us. We are thrilled and will continue to innovate and evolve the range of services that we deliver, ensuring we are in a strong position to make it a hat-trick of wins in 2012."
