Talent2 triumphs again at FEMA

Talent2 wins prestigious 2011 Best Recruitment Firm of the Year award

SYDNEY, September 12 2011 – Talent2 are proud to have been honoured at the 2011 Fairfax Employment Marketing Awards (FEMA), winning the “2011 Best Recruitment Firm of the Year” award.

Held at the Luminare in Melbourne on September 9, Talent2 was a finalist for three award categories including “Employer of Choice”, “Recruiter of the Year” and “Best Recruitment Firm of the Year”. In winning the “2011 Best Recruitment Firm of the Year” award, Talent2 bagged their fifth major win since the FEMA awards commenced in 2005.

The 7th annual awards recognise and reward creative and effective employment advertising and excellence in the field of recruitment. FEMA is widely acknowledged as an industry benchmark for the recruitment industry.

Speaking on the win, Talent2 General Manager, Recruitment ANZ, Paul Jury said:

“We are delighted our high achieving and hard working Australian team has been recognised with this award. Our brand recognition is stronger than ever and we are achieving consistently high satisfaction levels in our candidate surveys. This award would not be possible without the support of our clients who trust us with us with their most important asset, their people.”

“This year was our most creative as we continue to adapt our service offering to meet the changing markets. This is only possible when you have the leading recruiters in their respective markets like Sarah Piper, Head of Sales & Marketing in Victoria, who was a finalist this year in the Recruiter of the Year category.”

Talent2, the leading HR BPO organisation in Asia Pacific, has had consistent and continuing success at FEMA with Neil Galvin taking the acclaimed award “Recruiter of the Year” at last year’s ceremony, and, Talent2 was named the industry’s “Executive Recruitment Firm of the Year” for four consecutive years (2005-2008) which resulted in it being inducted into the esteemed FEMA “Neville Jeffress Hall of Fame” in 2009.
