RECOMMENDED TAKEOVER OFFER FOR BROCKMAN RESOURCES LIMITED

- Proposed takeover offer by majority shareholder Wah Nam to acquire the remaining Brockman shares it does not already own
- Offer is A$1.50 cash and 18 Wah Nam shares, being an implied Offer price of A$3.03, for each Brockman share
- Brockman's Independent Directors unanimously recommend Brockman shareholders ACCEPT the Wah Nam Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal for Brockman, subject only to the independent expert concluding that the Wah Nam Offer is fair and reasonable to Brockman shareholders
- Offer will simplify the current shareholder structure by consolidating all shareholdings into Wah Nam
- Consolidation should improve funding options to develop Brockman's Marillana iron ore project
- Offer provides immediate value certainty via the A$1.50 cash component as well as exposure to the potential upside of the Marillana iron ore project via the 18 Wah Nam shares scrip component

Brockman Resources Limited ("Brockman") (ASX: BRM) and Wah Nam International Holdings Limited ("Wah Nam") (HKEx: 0159, ASX: WNI) are pleased to announce that they have entered into a Bid Implementation Agreement ("BIA"), pursuant to which Wah Nam International Australia Pty Ltd ("Wah Nam Australia"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Wah Nam, intends to make a conditional off-market takeover offer for the remaining shares in Brockman that it does not already own ("Wah Nam Offer" or the "Offer").

Wah Nam Australia currently owns 55.33% of Brockman's shares on issue. A copy of the BIA will be separately announced on the ASX.

The Brockman independent directors (namely Brockman Joint Deputy Chairman Mr Ross Norgard, Brockman Non Executive Director Mr David (Michael) Spratt and Brockman Interim Chief Executive Officer Mr Colin Paterson, being those Brockman directors who are not nominees of, nor suggested to Brockman by, Wah Nam (the "Independent Directors")), unanimously recommend that Brockman shareholders ACCEPT Wah Nam's Offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject only to the independent expert concluding that the Offer is fair and reasonable.

The Independent Directors, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject only to the independent expert concluding that the Wah Nam Offer is fair and reasonable, intend to accept the Wah Nam Offer made in respect of any Brockman shares they own or control, (representing 11.35% of Brockman shares currently on issue), no later than 2 days after the satisfaction of the conditions of the Wah Nam Offer set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of Annexure 1.

Wah Nam Offer Details

The Wah Nam Offer comprises:

- A$1.50 in cash; AND
- 18 Wah Nam shares (“Wah Nam Shares”)

for every 1 (one) share in Brockman (“Brockman Share”).

The implied value of the Wah Nam Offer is:

- ~A$3.15, based on the 90 calendar day VWAP¹ of Wah Nam shares to 9 December 2011, representing a premium of ~A$1.17 per Brockman Share or ~59% when compared to the 90 calendar day VWAP of Brockman’s shares to 9 December 2011.
- ~A$2.92, based on the 30 calendar day VWAP¹ of Wah Nam shares to 9 December 2011, representing a premium of ~A$0.80 per Brockman Share or ~38% when compared to the 30 calendar day VWAP of Brockman’s shares to 9 December 2011.
- ~A$3.03², based on the last closing price of Wah Nam shares on 9 December 2011, representing a premium of ~A$0.77 per Brockman Share or ~34% when compared to the last closing price of Brockman’s shares on 9 December 2011.

Rationale for recommendation

Both Brockman and Wah Nam recognise the benefits that will result from Wah Nam Australia acquiring the remaining shares it does not already own.

Brockman Joint Deputy Chairman, Ross Norgard said “The Independent Directors believe the Wah Nam Offer is in the best interests of Brockman shareholders, providing an attractive premium over recent trading levels and allowing our shareholders to realise value through the receipt of cash, as well as retaining exposure to the upside potential from the world-class Marillana iron ore project. Based on the Wah Nam VWAP for the past 90 days, the Offer values all of the equity in Brockman at approximately A$456 million and provides Brockman minority shareholders with a premium of 59%.”

Brockman Interim Chief Executive Officer, Colin Paterson said “With Wah Nam Australia already a majority shareholder with a 55.33% interest in Brockman, the Wah Nam Offer makes strategic sense. If Brockman shareholders support the Wah Nam Offer and it succeeds, the consolidated shareholding structure should improve the ability to secure funding for the Marillana iron ore project.”

Wah Nam Chairman, Peter Luk said “This transaction is a major step toward realising the future value of the Marillana Project for the shareholders of both Brockman and Wah Nam. Brockman shareholders are able to crystallise some of the value in their investment now, but importantly they are able to participate in the on-going development of the Marillana iron ore project under a simplified ownership structure with unified management and development strategies.”

¹ VWAP calculated by converting the daily value of Wah Nam shares on the HKEx traded to A$ using the respective daily A$:HK$ exchange rate

² Calculated based on Wah Nam’s closing share price on the HKEx of HK$0.67 on 9 December 2011, converted to A$ using A$:HK$ exchange rate of 7.8825 as at 9 December 2011

The key reasons for the Independent Directors' unanimous recommendation to accept the Wah Nam Offer are that the Offer:

- (i) represents an attractive premium to recent trading levels of Brockman Shares and should provide a more liquid investment.
- (ii) will simplify the current shareholder structure by consolidating all shareholdings into Wah Nam. Consolidation should improve funding options to develop Brockman's Marillana iron ore project.
- (iii) provides immediate value certainty via the A$1.50 cash component as well as exposure to the potential upside of Brockman's Marillana iron ore project via the 18 Wah Nam Shares scrip component.

Following consideration of the strategic alternatives available to Brockman, the Independent Directors concluded that Wah Nam's Offer represents the best opportunity for Brockman shareholders to maximise the value of their investment.

Offer conditions

The Wah Nam Offer is subject to the conditions set out in Annexure 1. Further detailed information relating to the Offer will be provided in the Bidder's Statement and the Target's Statement which incorporates the Independent Expert's Report.

As set out in the condition in paragraph (b) of Annexure 1, the Offer is subject to Wah Nam shareholder approval. The Wah Nam shareholder meeting to vote on the shareholder resolutions is scheduled to be held on or around 6 January 2012.

Financing

Wah Nam Australia will fund the cash consideration payable under the Offer using a combination of:

- existing cash resources;
- the proceeds from the issue of the Wah Nam Shares ("Subscription Shares") and the issue of a convertible bond ("Convertible Bond") to Ocean Line Holdings Limited and its associates (as that term is defined in the listing rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange ("HKEx")) ("Ocean Line") under a subscription agreement between Ocean Line and Wah Nam dated 12 December 2011 ("Subscription Agreement"); and
- the proceeds from the issue of Wah Nam Shares ("Placement Shares") to places procured, on a fully underwritten basis, by REORIENT Financial Markets Limited under an underwriting agreement between REORIENT Financial Markets Limited and Wah Nam dated 12 December 2011 ("Underwriting Agreement").

Shareholder approval is required to approve the Subscription Agreement and the transactions contemplated under it, including the allotment and issue of the Subscription Shares and the issue of the Convertible Bond. Shareholder approval is also required to approve the Underwriting Agreement and the transactions contemplated under it, including the allotment and issue of the Placement Shares.

The issue of the Subscription Shares will raise ~HK$333 million (~A$42 million³) from the issue of 555.1 million Wah Nam Shares at HK$0.60 per Wah Nam Share to Ocean Line. The issue of the Convertible Bond will raise ~HK$174 million (~A$22 million³). The issue of the Placement Shares will raise ~HK$78 million (~A$10 million³) from the issue of 130.0 million Wah Nam Shares at HK$0.60 per Wah Nam Share. Wah Nam currently holds unrestricted cash equivalent to ~A$33 million, which is uncommitted and will be available to fund the Offer.

Ocean Line is one of Wah Nam's substantial shareholders, with a shareholding of ~6% of Wah Nam shares currently on issue.
