REASONS FOR THE SUBSCRIPTION AND USE OF PROCEEDS

The Group is principally engaged in the development of digital applications, including but not limited to handheld electronic game consoles, mobile game applications, digital marketing solutions, development of liquefied natural gas, compressed natural gas and related clean energy business, and the manufacturing and trading of power and data cords for household electronic appliances, mobile phones and medical control services.

As mentioned in the interim report of the Company for the six months ended 30 September 2016, it is the Group's operational strategy to expand its market presence and profitability by broadening its revenue base and exploring new business opportunities. The Directors are of the view that the Subscription represents an opportunity for the Company to raise capital for the development and expansion of the Group's existing business and to capture potential investment opportunities as and when such opportunities arise. The gross proceeds and the net proceeds (after deducting professional fees and other related expenses) from the Subscription will be approximately HK$70.70 million and approximately HK$70.28 million respectively. On such basis, the net price of each Subscription Share is approximately HK$0.1004. It is intended that the net proceeds from the Subscription will be utilised as to (i) approximately HK$48.00 million for development and expansion of the existing businesses of the Group, including funding the sales and trading of chemicals and refined oil business and the development of natural gas and related clean energy business; and (ii) the remaining balance of approximately HK$22.28 for general working capital of the Group and/or for financing future investment opportunities.

Before resorting to the Subscription, the Board has considered and compared feasibilities of other fund raising alternatives for the Group, such as placement of new Shares to independent investors, rights issue, open offer, debt financing and bank borrowings. Taking into account the benefits and cost of each of the alternatives, the Board considers that the Subscription is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole as it would not impose any interest burden or finance costs to the Group and increase the gearing level of the Group.

Further, the Subscription also demonstrates the confidence of Mr. Zou (as the executive Director and the chairman of the Board) places in the Company and the support to the development of the business of the Group, which is conducive to enhancing the market image of the Company. The Directors believe that the Subscription represents an opportunity for the Company to raise capital while strengthening the capital base of the Company. Having regard to the potential benefits brought by the funds raised by the Subscription for enhancing the Group's position to achieve its business objectives, the Directors (excluding the independent non-executive Directors who will form their view after considering the advice of the Independent Financial Adviser with regard to the Subscription) believe that the Subscription is in the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole.
