The Board of the Company wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company and potential investors that based on a preliminary review of the latest available unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2016, the loss for the year of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2016 is expected to increase significantly as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2015.

Shareholders of the Company and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 17.10 of the Rule Governing The Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “GEM Listing Rules”). The board of Directors (the “Board”) of China E-Learning Group Limited (the “Company”) wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company and potential investors that based on a preliminary review of the latest available unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2016, the loss for the year of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2016 is expected to increase significantly as compared with that for the year ended 31 December 2015.

The increase in expected loss is mainly attributable to the impairment loss on other receivable and the recognition of share-based payment for the year ended 31 December 2016. As the Company is still in the process of finalizing the results for the year ended 31 December 2016, the information contained in this announcement is only based on the preliminary assessment by the Company's management according to the unaudited management accounts of the Group. Shareholders of the Company and potential investors should read the Group's first quarterly results announcement for the year ended 31 December 2016 carefully, which is expected to be published on 30 March 2017.

Shareholders of the Company and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
