ANNOUNCEMENT

Reference is made to the prospectus (the “Prospectus”) of China Communications Services Corporation Limited (the “Company”) dated 27 November 2006. As disclosed in the Prospectus, China Telecommunications Corporation (“China Telecom”) entered into equity transfer arrangements (the “Equity Transfer Arrangements”) with China Mobile Communications Corporation (“China Mobile”) and China United Telecommunications Corporation (now known as China United Network Communications Group Company Limited) (“China Unicom”), respectively. The Company was notified by China Telecom that the equity transfers contemplated under the Equity Transfer Arrangements were formally completed and became effective on 24 March 2009.

Pursuant to the Equity Transfer Arrangements, China Telecom agreed to transfer 506,880,000 and 236,300,000 domestic shares to China Mobile and China Unicom, respectively. China Telecom would hold the said portion of shares until the date on which the conditions precedent to the equity transfer were met. The equity transfers were conditional upon, amongst others, the lapse of at least one year from the listing date of the Company, the transfer having been approved by the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of the State Council and the name of the transferee being registered in the Company’s share register. The Company was notified by China Telecom that the name of China Mobile and China Unicom were registered in the Company’s share register on 24 March 2009 and the equity transfers were formally completed and became effective. Immediately before the completion of the equity transfers, China Telecom held, directly and indirectly through its wholly-owned subsidiaries, 3,778,831,800 shares of the Company, representing 65.47% of the total issued share capital of the Company. After the completion of the equity transfers, China Telecom, China Mobile and China Unicom hold 52.60%, 8.78% and 4.09% of the total issued share capital of the Company respectively.
