

China Comservice's Annual Report won the Bronze Award at the "21st Annual International Mercury Awards"

China Communications Services Corporation Limited's 2006 Annual Report won the Bronze Award among its industry in "Overall Annual Report" at the 21st Annual International Mercury Awards, an internationally renowned competition.

"International Mercury Awards" competition is organized by MerComm, Inc., an independent organization. The awards are in recognition of corporate performance in public relationships and corporate communications. The assessment is based on innovation, presentation and effectiveness on communications of idea in the annual reports. The competition is considered as an "Oscar" event in the communications industry. There were altogether about 970 entries from 23 countries participating in the contest and assessed by experts in international public relation communications.

The award was an important recognition of our outstanding performance in corporate communications and our efforts in promoting proactive interactions with the capital market.

