

China Comservice Won "Best Managed Company in China", "Best CEO in China", "Best CFO in China" and Other Awards by FinanceAsia

China Communications Services Corporation Limited has recently been voted by the institutional investors and analysts as the No.3 "Best Managed Company in China", while Mr. Li Ping, Chairman of the Company and Ms. Hou Rui, CFO of the Company have been voted as No 2. "Best CEO in China" and No.2 "Best CFO in China", respectively, in the 13th annual poll of 2013 Asia's Best Managed Companies by FinanceAsia, a reputable financial magazine in Asia. In addition, China Comservice was also accredited by FinanceAsia with the following titles including No. 3 "Best Investor Relations in China", No. 3 "Best Committed to a Strong Dividend Policy", No. 4 "Best Corporate Social Responsibility in China" and No. 5 "Best Corporate Governance in China".

FinanceAsia conducts an annual poll every year to solicit fund managers' and equity analysts' views on Asia's best managed companies. Companies are being voted based on the criteria including overall management, corporate governance, investor relations, dividend policy and corporate social responsibility.

This is another distinguished honor by the capital market following the title of No. 1 "Best Managed Company in China" by Euromoney, another international authoritative financial magazine, at the beginning of this year. The awards demonstrate the capital market's recognition on the Company's efforts in promoting its sustainable development as well as praises for the Company's managerial excellence.

