

China Comservice's President Honored with "Leadership 100 Awards" by International Finance Magazine

The President of China Communications Services Corporation Limited, Mr. Si Furong, was honored with the "Leadership 100 Awards" in 2015 by an UK-based financial magazine, International Finance Magazine.

The audience for International Finance Magazine is the financial community worldwide. The award is to identify leader with unique leadership characteristic and give them due recognition for the spectacular effort they have made. The award winners were assessed based on their strength, ingenuity, knowledge, foresight, and who drive the growth of their businesses with vision and inspiration. The award winners are leaders from round the world in many different industries, including Banking, Telecom, Manufacture, Service and more.

