

China Comservice's 2016 Annual Report Won 2 Gold Awards in International Competitions

20 Dec 2017

China Communications Services Corporation Limited's 2016 annual report won Gold Awards in both "Cover Photo & Design" in "International ARC Awards" and the "Vision Awards" in LACP (The League of American Communications Professionals) in 2017.

The 2016 annual report of China Comservice used "Innovation and Transformation" as its theme to reinforce the image of the company as a "a leading service provider in the informatization sector", and present to its reader the changes of the company's positioning, and also its service capabilities, markets development and scales over the past decade in the 10th anniversary of its listing.

"International ARC Awards" is the largest and most independent international annual report competition honoring excellence in annual reports. This year's "2017 International ARC Awards" is the 31st anniversary of such award, and there were over 2,000 entries from more than 30 countries around the world participated in the contest. The "Vision Awards" organized by LACP is also one of the world's most influential annual report competitions. This year's "2016 Vision Awards" is the 15th anniversary of such award, and there were over 1,000 organizations participated in the contest this year. The above awards are judged by communications professionals based on various factors including the annual report's overall impression, cover design, interior design, creativity and how well the spirit of the company is reflected in the annual report.
