

Pingwei Power Generation Company Supplied 130,000 GJ of Heat in First Month of 2021

In Jan. 2021, Pingwei Power Generation Company made a good start with more than 130,000 GJ of heat supply.

The Company's heat supply system has been in operation for customers and the market with quality services. In order to satisfy the customers with good heating performance in 2021, the Company has arranged service specialists to follow up with the customers, worked out accurate heating solutions to ensure economical use of heat, drew on advanced experience to improve service quality and promote service standardization, and actively cooperated with local governments and the park management committee to attract investment, promote the Company's advantages, build a heating brand and win reputation from the customers.