

Fu Jinsong meets with Ms. Yang Yuanyuan, Assistant Vice President of Towngas Group and her delegation

On November 30, 2021, Mr. Fu Jinsong, Vice President & Acting Chairman of the Labor Union of CPID, met with Ms. Yang Yuanyuan, Assistant Vice President of Towngas Group and her delegation at the headquarters of CPID in Beijing.

After expressing his welcome to Ms. Yang Yuanyuan and her delegation, Mr. Fu Jinsong introduced the new strategy and new mission of CPID, as well as its achievements in energy storage, photovoltaic power, integrated smart energy and rural revitalization, and particularly introduced the integrated smart energy "model house" project in Chaoyang County, Liaoning Province and the cooperation with Guanhexinzhi in low-carbon soilless agriculture integrating photovoltaic power, energy storage, and planting.

Ms. Yang Yuanyuan highly recognized the achievements made by CPID, and briefly introduced the low-carbon and intelligent solutions of Towngas for industrial and commercial scenarios such as zero-carbon campus, hot spring water for heating, heat and power supply of hotels, energy conservation of commercial real estates, energy supply for medical industrial parks, etc.

At the meeting, the two sides exchanged views on the application of integrated smart energy and low-carbon, green solutions for typical industrial and commercial scenarios, and agreed that they would make the best use of their respective advantages and strengthen cooperation in industrial and commercial scenarios and other fields to boost common development.