

Mr. Gao Ping Meets with Mr. Zhang Zhiquan, Secretary of CPC Committee of Yufa Town

On December 27, 2021, Mr. Gao Ping, Executive Director and President of CPID and Chairman of China Power New Life Town Technology Co., Ltd., met with Mr. Zhang Zhiquan, Secretary of CPC Committee of Yufa Town, Daxing District, at the headquarters in Beijing.

Mr. Gao introduced CPID's new strategy and industrial development route, and proposed on the cooperation areas of rural revitalization and "3060" target to fully combine the unique location and resource advantages of Daxing District, closely follow the two themes of energy security and food security, well complete the land planning, spatial planning and zero-carbon energy planning, give full play to the limited land resources, build a demonstration base and model of rural industry + low-carbon energy, introduce green electric transportation and energy storage industry, provide efficient clean low-carbon energy supply for the countryside, create a replicable and scalable efficient ecological agriculture, and achieve low-carbon empowerment for a better life.

Mr. Zhang introduced the geographic location and resource advantages of Yufa Town, and said that the local government had a highly consistent vision with China Power New Life Town Co., Ltd. in rural revitalization and carbon peaking and carbon neutrality strategy, hoping to bring into play the advantages of location and transportation, provide a good platform for the development of multi-enterprise integration, cooperate with CPID and China Power New Life Town Co., Ltd. in high-end agriculture such as greenhouse construction, agricultural tourism, outdoor picking and tourism resort, and low-carbon energy such as power recharge and swap and geothermal and new energy, promote the integration of the three networks, build a green and intensive energy system, construct practical and economical integrated modern agriculture, and help Daxing District develop with high quality.

Mr. Niu Guiyu, Deputy Director of CPID, attended the meeting.