

Mr. Gao Ping Attends Online Signing Ceremony of Cooperation Agreement between China Power New Life Town and Chaoyang County Government

On December 27, 2021, Mr. Gao Ping, Executive Director and President of CPID and Chairman of China Power New Life Town, attended the online signing ceremony of cooperation agreement between China Power New Life Town and Chaoyang County People's Government on rural revitalization and the "3060" target at the headquarters in Beijing. Mr. Song Zhen, Member of CPC Leadership Group of Chaoyang City, attended the ceremony. Mr. Liu Lidong, CPC Secretary of Chaoyang County, delivered a speech and introduced the cooperation. Mr. Shi Wantian, Deputy CPC Secretary and Governor of Chaoyang County, and Mr. Zhang Long, Director of China Power New Life Town, signed the agreement on behalf of their sides, respectively. Mr. Niu Guiyu, Deputy Director of CPID, attended the ceremony.

Mr. Gao welcomed the leaders and guests attending the signing ceremony, thanked the governments of Chaoyang City and Chaoyang County for their support and trust, and introduced CPID's new strategy and industrial development route. He said that China Power New Life Town was a flagship brand in rural revitalization and zero-carbon industry that CPID strived to build, and by promoting the integrated development of clean energy and primary, secondary and tertiary industries, China Power New Life Town would build a new pattern of rural revitalization and achieving the "3060" target in Chaoyang County, and strive to make Chaoyang County a model for national rural revitalization and carbon peaking and carbon neutrality.

Mr. Song said that the agreement between China Power New Life Town and the Government of Chaoyang County was a milestone for the development of new energy industry and comprehensive rural revitalization in Chaoyang County, and would play a great role in promoting Chaoyang County to speed up industrial restructuring, accelerate industrial clustering and build a demonstration area for rural revitalization. He said that the Government of Chaoyang County would pool the efforts of the whole county to promote deeper cooperation between both sides in various fields.
