

Mr. Gao Ping Meets with Mr. Zhao Enyu, GM of Property Management Department of Huaxia Happiness Foundation

Recently, Mr. Gao Ping, Executive Director and President of CPID, met with Mr. Zhao Enyu, GM of Property Management Department of Huaxia Happiness Foundation, and his delegation in Beijing.

Mr. Gao extended a warm welcome to Mr. Zhao and his delegation, and introduced CPID's development history and situation, as well as CPID's recent achievements in boosting China's carbon peaking and carbon neutrality goals, green and low-carbon transition and rural revitalization. Mr. Gao expressed that CPID was pushing forward the green and low-carbon transition and had a broad space for cooperation with Huaxia, hoping that both sides would expand and accelerate cooperation in new energy, energy storage, virtual power plants (VPPs), integrated smart energy, color PV power and green electric transportation.

Mr. Zhao introduced the general situation and development of the Property Management Department of Huaxia Happiness Foundation, and said that Huaxia had rich experience and outstanding performance in property development and services, investment and asset management, etc. Mr. Zhao expressed that both sides could give full play to their respective advantages in new energy and carry out all-round cooperation in domestic and overseas renewable energy, energy storage, integrated smart energy, color PV power, etc.