PRICE-SENSITIVE INFORMATION

This announcement is made by Daisho Microline Holdings Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") pursuant to Rule 13.09 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

The board of directors (the "Board") of the Company announced that some workers of the Group's production plant in Huizhou, People's Republic of China blocked the major traffic artery outside the production plant in the morning on 3 July 2012 in order to strive for their interests and to raise the concern. The event subsequently led to the strike of the Group's workers there until the afternoon on 7 July 2012.

During the intervening period of the strike, the Group had already addressed and replied to those legitimate, reasonable and sensible workers' appeals. Through the mediation of the relevant authorities of the Huizhou municipal government along with the mutual understanding and compromise between the Group and its workers, the strike was finally over in the afternoon on 7 July 2012 and the Group's production plant has resumed to normal production since then.

The delay for almost all outward shipments by the Group is inevitable due to the strike. According to the preliminary assessment, no damage to the property, plant and equipment of the Group's production plant in Huizhou is resulted from the strike and the direct impact of the strike on both the operating performance and the financial position of the Group for the current financial year should not be significant.

RESUMPTION OF TRADING
