A. WAIVERS

In preparation for the Listing, the Company had applied for, and been granted by the Stock Exchange, a number of waivers from strict compliance with certain provisions under the Listing Rules.

Set out below are the waivers granted to the Company by the Stock Exchange in light of the specific facts and circumstances applicable to the Company:

Relevant Rule(s) waived	Subject matter
Rule 8.05	Profit requirements
Rule 8.17	Requirements of company secretary
Rule 8.12	Requirements of management presence in Hong Kong
Rule 4.03	Requirements of reporting accountants
Rule 9.09(b)	Dealing in securities by connected person from four clear business days before hearing until listing

1. PROFIT REQUIREMENTS

According to Rule 8.05 of the Listing Rules, an issuer must satisfy one of the three tests in relation to: (a) profit; (b) market capitalisation, revenue and cash flow; or (c) market capitalisation and revenue requirements.

Pursuant to Rule 18.04 of the Listing Rules, a mineral company that is unable to satisfy the tests in Rule 8.05 of the Listing Rules, including the profit requirement under Rule 8.05(1)(a) of the Listing Rules, may still apply to be listed if the Stock Exchange is satisfied that the directors and senior managers of the issuer, taken together, have sufficient experience relevant to the exploration and/or extraction activity that the mineral company is pursuing. Sufficient and relevant experience are demonstrated by a five-year or more experience in the exploration for and/or extraction of relevant natural resources. The profit attributable to the Shareholders resulted from the business operation during the Track Record Period does not meet the profit requirement under Rule 8.05(1)(a) of the Listing Rules.

The Company had therefore applied for and the Stock Exchange had granted a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 8.05(1)(a) of the Listing Rules in accordance with Rules 8.05B(1) and 18.04 of the Listing Rules for the following reasons:

- (a) the Company was principally engaged in gold exploration, mining and processing in the Nordic region and is a mineral company to which Chapter 18 of the Listing Rules applies. However, (i) in respect of the Pre-Production Assets, there has been no formal production; and (ii) the ore from Svartliden Mine stockpile had exhausted during the Track Record Period;
- (b) the Company is able to demonstrate a clear path to commercial production for the Pre-Production Assets. For details of how the Pre-Production Assets have a clear path to commercial production, please refer to the paragraphs headed “Fäboliden Project — Clear path to commercial production of Fäboliden Project” and “Kaapelinkulma Project — Clear path to commercial production of Kaapelinkulma Project” in the section headed “Business” of the Prospectus; and

(Note: As disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 12 March 2021 on the annual results of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2020, the Company maintained a high level of activity on the Kaapelinkulma Gold Mine in 2020.)

*Updated on 30

- (c) 4 members of the management team (the “Core Management”), namely Mr. Smith (the executive Director), Mr. Neale Martin Edwards (the chief geologist), Mr. Ilpo Tapio Mäkinen (the country manager of Finland) and Mr. Joshua David Stewart (the project manager, Fäboliden), possess sufficient mining and management experience relevant to the exploration and/or extraction in gold mining of approximately 12, 32, 8 and 14 years respectively. For details of the biographical information of the Directors and senior management, including details of the relevant experience of the Core Management relied upon for the purpose of the waiver application, please refer to the section headed “Directors and senior management” of the Prospectus. In this regard, the Company is of the view that the Core Management, taken together, have sufficient experience that is specifically relevant to the exploration and/or extraction activities that the Company is pursuing.

(Note: Subsequent to the grant of waiver, Mr. Ilpo Tapio Mäkinen has been replaced by Mr. Patteri Tanner and Mr. Ilpo Tapio Mäkinen has become senior mining and safety engineer.)

2. REQUIREMENTS OF COMPANY SECRETARY

Pursuant to Rule 8.17 of the Listing Rules, an issuer must appoint a company secretary who satisfies Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules. Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules provides that an issuer must appoint as its company secretary an individual who, by virtue of his or her academic or professional qualifications or relevant experience, is, in the opinion of the Stock Exchange, capable of discharging the functions of a company secretary.

Ms. Pauline Anne Collinson (“Ms. Collinson”) was appointed in place of Ms. Shannon Louise Coates (“Ms. Coates”) as the joint company secretary with effect from 31 May 2019. Ms. Collinson’s qualifications do not meet the qualification requirements under note 1 to Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules. As a result, the Company is not able to comply with Rule 8.17 of the Listing Rules by engaging Ms. Collinson as the company secretary. By virtue of Ms. Collinson’s experience and familiarity with the Company, the Company is of the view that Ms. Collinson is capable of discharging her duties and is a suitable person to act as a company secretary of the Company although Ms. Collinson does not possess the formal qualifications required of a company secretary under Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules.

The Company appointed Mr. Lo Tai On (“Mr. Lo”) of Fair Wind Secretarial Services Limited as a joint company secretary of the Company on 16 October 2018 to provide assistance to Ms. Coates (until her resignation on 31 May 2019). Mr. Lo is a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and therefore meets the qualification requirements under note 1 to Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules and is in compliance with Rule 8.17 of the Listing Rules. The Company applied for and the Stock Exchange granted the Company a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rules 3.28 and 8.17 of the Listing Rules such that Ms. Coates can be appointed as a company secretary of the Company subject to the following conditions that:

*updated on 30
March 2021*

- (a) Mr. Lo, as a joint company secretary of the Company, will work closely with, and provide assistance to, Ms. Coates in the discharge of her duties as a company secretary and in gaining the relevant experience as required under Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules;
- (b) the waiver will be revoked immediately if, save and except for health reasons, Mr. Lo ceases to provide assistance to Ms. Coates as joint company secretary for the three-year period after Listing;

- (c) Ms. Coates will comply with the annual professional training requirement under Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules and will enhance her knowledge of the Listing Rules during the three-year period from the Listing Date;
- (d) the Company will further ensure that Ms. Coates has access to the relevant training and support that would enhance her understanding of the Listing Rules and the duties of a company secretary of an issuer listed on the Stock Exchange;
- (e) at the end of the three-year period, the qualifications and experience of Ms. Coates and the need for on-going assistance of Mr. Lo will be further evaluated by the Company; and
- (f) the Company will liaise with the Stock Exchange to enable it to assess whether Ms. Coates, having benefited from the assistance of Mr. Lo for three years, will have acquired the skills necessary to carry out the duties of company secretary and the relevant experience within the meaning of note 2 of Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules so that a further waiver will not be necessary.

As announced on 16 July 2019, new waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rule 3.28 and 8.17 of the Listing Rules has been granted such that Ms. Collinson can be appointed as the company secretary of the Company for a period of three years from 6 June 2019 (the “Period”) subject to the following conditions:

*updated on 30
March 2021*

- (a) Ms. Collinson has been and will be assisted by Mr. Lo during the Period;
- (b) the Company shall notify the Stock Exchange at the end of the Period for the Stock Exchange to re-visit the situation. The Stock Exchange expects that after the end of the Period, the Company will be able to demonstrate that Ms. Collinson can satisfy Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules after having the benefit of Mr. Lo’s assistance such that further waiver will not be necessary; and
- (c) the Company will disclose the details of the waiver, including the reasons for and conditions of the waiver, by way of an announcement.

3. REQUIREMENTS OF MANAGEMENT PRESENCE IN HONG KONG

Pursuant to Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules, the Company must have a sufficient management presence in Hong Kong. This normally means that at least two of its executive directors must be ordinarily residents in Hong Kong. The Company is incorporated in Western Australia. The Company's core business and operations are primarily located, managed and conducted in Finland and Sweden. Moreover, the Company's assets are located in Finland and Sweden. The Company's business, management and operations have been under the supervision of the executive Director, Mr. Smith and certain local senior management members residing in Finland and Sweden. This arrangement has proven to be effective. With the support of existing senior management members, the Company does not have, and, in the foreseeable future, will not have, the need to appoint additional executive Director(s) who would be ordinarily resident(s) in Hong Kong.

Furthermore, if additional executive Director(s) who reside(s) in Hong Kong is/are appointed, since he/she will not be physically present in Finland and/or Sweden for substantial periods of time, he/she will not be able to fully understand the daily business operations of the Group or fully appreciate the circumstances surrounding or affecting the business operations and development of the Group from time to time. As such, such executive Director(s) may not be able to perform his/her duty on a fully informed basis, or make appropriate business decisions or judgments that are most beneficial to the business operations and development of the Group. The appointment of additional executive Director(s) for the sole purpose of establishing a management presence in Hong Kong would not only increase the administrative expenses, but would also reduce the effectiveness of the senior management team in making decisions for the Group.

The Board is of the view that it would be impractical and not commercially feasible for the Company to appoint one or more Hong Kong residents as executive Director(s) merely for the purpose of complying with Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules. The Company has therefore applied for and the Stock Exchange has granted the Company a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules based on the following conditions:

- (a) the Company has appointed two authorised representatives pursuant to Rule 3.05 of the Listing Rules, who would act as the Company's principal channel of communication with the Stock Exchange and ensure that the Group complies with the Listing Rules at all times. These two authorised representatives are Mr. Arthur George Dew ("Mr. Dew"), a non-executive Director, and Ms. Collinson, the joint company secretary. The two alternate authorised representatives are Mr. Wong Tai Chun Mark ("Mr. Wong") (as alternate to Mr. Dew) and Mr. Lo (as alternate to Ms. Collinson). Save for Ms. Collinson, Mr. Dew, Mr. Wong and Mr. Lo are ordinarily residents in Hong Kong. Each of the authorised representatives (including the alternates) is available to meet with the Stock Exchange within a reasonable time frame upon request of the Stock Exchange and will be readily contactable by telephone, facsimile and email (if applicable) and is authorised to communicate on behalf of the Company with the Stock Exchange;

*updated on 9
February 2021*

- (b) each of the authorised representatives (including the alternates) has means to contact all members of the Board and the senior management team promptly at all times as and when the Stock Exchange wishes to contact the Directors for any matters. To enhance communications between the Stock Exchange, the authorised representatives (including the alternates) and the Board, the Company has implemented a policy that (i) each Director has to provide their respective office phone numbers, mobile phone numbers, residential phone numbers, fax numbers and email addresses (if applicable) to the authorised representatives (including the alternates); and (ii) in the event that a Director expects to travel and be out of office, he has to provide the phone number of the place of his accommodation to the authorised representatives (including the alternates);
- (c) all Directors have provided their mobile phone numbers, residential phone numbers, office phone numbers, fax numbers and email addresses to the Stock Exchange to ensure that they can readily be contactable when necessary to deal promptly with enquiries from the Stock Exchange; and
- (d) all Directors have confirmed that they possess valid travel documents to visit Hong Kong for business purposes and would be able to come to Hong Kong and meet the Stock Exchange upon reasonable notice.

Altus Capital Limited stepped down as the compliance adviser of the Company after the declaration of financial results of its first full financial year commencing after the Listing Date. The Company considers that the management was equipped with the necessary skills and knowledge to face the potential issues regarding the compliance with all relevant rules and regulations in future. As such, the Company contemplates that it is not required to seek advice from compliance adviser.

4. REQUIREMENTS OF REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS

Rule 4.03 of the Listing Rules requires that the accountants' report included in a listing document for a proposed listing of the shares of a company is prepared by certified public accountants who are qualified under the PAO for appointment as auditors of the company and who are independent both of the company and of any other company concerned to the same extent as that required of an auditor under the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and in accordance with the requirements on independence issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Rule 19.20 of the Listing Rules further stipulates the qualifications of the auditor of an overseas issuer, who among others, must be qualified under the PAO or a firm of accountants acceptable to the Stock Exchange.

Pursuant to Section 342(1)(b) of the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, a company incorporated outside Hong Kong and proposing to offer shares to the public in Hong Kong must state the matters specified in Part I of the Third Schedule to the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance and set out the reports specified in Part II of the Third Schedule to the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance, subject always to the provisions contained in Part III of the Third Schedule, in particular paragraph 43, to the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance in the Prospectus.

Paragraph 43 of Part III of the Third Schedule to the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance requires any report by accountants required by Part II of the Third Schedule shall be made by accountants qualified under the PAO for appointment as auditors of a company and shall not be made by any accountant who is an officer or servant, or a partner of or in the employment of an officer or servant, of the company or of the company's subsidiary or parent undertaking or of a subsidiary of the company's parent undertaking; and for the purposes of this paragraph the expression officer shall include a proposed director but not an auditor.

The Company is a public company incorporated in Western Australia and has been delisted on the ASX. In accordance with the requirements of the Australian Corporations Act, the Company has appointed Ernst & Young, Perth (“EYP”) as the statutory auditors since October 2006. EYP is not an accountant qualified under the PAO. For the purpose of the Listing, EYP has reported on the historical financial information of the Group, that was prepared by the Directors, and is included in the Prospectus in accordance with the IFRS, and it is intended that EYP will remain as the company's sole reporting accountant.

February 2021*

Engaging other certified public accountants or Ernst & Young Hong Kong (“EYHK”) who are qualified under the PAO as auditors to conduct an extensive review of the historical financial information which have already been audited by EYP for the preparation of an accountants' report in the Prospectus would result in additional and unnecessary work. It would not only result in the Company incurring unnecessary costs, but would also delay the Listing. Moreover, it would be unduly burdensome on the Company and of no material value to Hong Kong investors to require that the accountants' report be signed by EYHK or a qualified accounting and auditing firm under the PAO.

Accordingly, the Company has applied for and the Stock Exchange has granted the Company a waiver and the SFC has granted the Company a certificate of exemptions from strict compliance with Rule 4.03 of the Listing Rules and Section 342(1)(b) of the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance in respect of paragraph 43 of part III of Third Schedule to the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance on the following basis:

- (a) EYP is an internationally recognised accounting firm and supervised and regulated by the ASIC. It has extensive experience in securities offerings on the ASX. It is independent of the Company;
- (b) EYP is a member firm of Ernst & Young Global Limited. All member firms of the Ernst & Young Global Limited adopt a consistent global audit approach which is designed to support consistency of service quality and adherence to the framework of audit methodology set out in the EY Global Audit Methodology. Reviews are performed on member firms on an annual basis to ensure that adherence to the framework of audit methodology set out in the EY Global Audit Methodology is upheld by all member firms. EYP also adopts and observes the independence requirements set out under the code issued by the Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board;
- (c) EYP has been appointed by the Company as its statutory auditors since October 2006 in accordance with the requirements of the Australian Corporations Act. The Australian Corporations Act sets out the responsibilities of EYP to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards and which are similar to the International Standards on Auditing;
- (d) the responsible partner of EYP has 14 years of audit experience and is a chartered accountant of the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand ("CAANZ"). CAANZ is a member of the Global Accounting Alliance ("GAA"). The public accountancy profession in Australia is independently regulated by GAA and ASIC. ASIC is a signatory to the Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding Concerning Consultation and Cooperation and the Exchange of Information of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions. ASIC is also a founding member of the International Forum of Independent Audit Regulators ("IFIAR") and has representation on IFIAR's Advisory Council;

- (e) ASIC, which is an independent government body of Australia, is the national regulator of corporate, markets and financial services in Australia. ASIC is responsible for the following functions:
- (1) to register companies and manage investment schemes;
 - (2) to grant Australian financial services licences and Australian credit licences;
 - (3) to register auditors and liquidators;
 - (4) to grant relief from various provisions of the legislation which it administers;
 - (5) to maintain publicly accessible registers of information about companies, financial services licensees and credit licensees;
 - (6) to make rules aimed at ensuring the integrity of financial markets;
 - (7) to stop the issue of financial products under defective disclosure documents;
 - (8) to investigate suspected breaches of the law and, in so doing, require people to produce books or answer questions at an examination;
 - (9) to issue infringement notices in relation to alleged breaches of some laws;
 - (10) to ban people from engaging in credit activities or providing financial services;
 - (11) to seek civil penalties from the courts; and
 - (12) to commence prosecutions.
- (f) EYP has been included as an expert who have given opinions in the Prospectus in connection with the Listing. EYP will therefore be liable as an expert named in the Prospectus for the purpose of the Hong Kong Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance as if they are experts who have consented for their expert reports to be included in the Prospectus. Therefore, investors in Hong Kong will not be prejudiced in terms of recourse for any breach of duties by the reporting accountants under the laws of Hong Kong in any material respect.

(Note: Since 24 December 2019, EYP has become recognized as a public interest entity auditor.)

5. DEALING IN SECURITIES BY CONNECTED PERSON FROM FOUR CLEAR BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE HEARING UNTIL LISTING

Pursuant to Rule 9.09(b) of the Listing Rules, there must be no dealing in the securities for which listing is sought by any connected person of the issuer from four clear business days (as defined in the Listing Rules) before the expected hearing date until the listing is granted.

As a publicly listed company in Australia prior to Delisting and Listing, save for the Shareholders who are the Directors, the Company has no control over the investment decision of any Shareholders, including the substantial shareholders or their close associates or public investors in general, nor is it in a position to be fully aware of the dealing in the Shares of the Shareholders. The Company therefore does not contemplate that it is within the control to satisfy the strict requirement under Rule 9.09(b) of the Listing Rules. It would also be unfair to the Company if non-compliance by any Shareholders or their respective close associates with the securities dealing restrictions under Rule 9.09(b) of the Listing Rules were to jeopardise the Listing.

The Company will communicate with the existing substantial shareholders and inform them of the requirement under Rule 9.09(b) of the Listing Rules. However, it is unfeasible for the Company to inform the future substantial shareholders and their respective close associates of such requirement under the Listing Rules.

The Company had therefore applied for and the Stock Exchange had granted the Company a waiver from strict compliance with Rule 9.09(b) of the Listing Rules subject to the following:

- (a) the waiver is only applicable to future substantial shareholders and their respective close associates whose investment decisions the Company does not have control over and they have not, or will not be involved in the Group's management and operations or the Listing;
- (b) the Company shall procure that none of the Directors and senior management and their close associates deals in the Shares from four clear Business Days before the expected hearing date until Listing is granted;
- (c) the Company shall notify the Stock Exchange of any dealing or suspected dealing in the Shares by any core connected persons;

- (d) the Company shall release inside information to the public as required by relevant laws, rules and regulations applicable to the Company so that anyone who may deal in the Shares as a result of this waiver will not be in possession of non-public inside information; and
- (e) for any person who, as a result of dealing in the Shares from the date which is four clear Business Days before the listing hearing date until listing is granted, becomes a substantial shareholder (the “Potential New Substantial Shareholder”), The Company shall:
 - (i) procure that such Potential New Substantial Shareholder will not be involved in the Group’s management and operations or the Listing and would not become a Director or a member of the senior management of the Group after Listing; and
 - (ii) confirm that the Company and its management have not had control over the investment decisions of such Potential New Substantial Shareholder or its close associates.

B. SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

Set out below is a summary of certain provisions of the Constitution of the Company and salient provisions of certain laws of Australia applicable to an Australian incorporated company.

The Company was incorporated in Western Australia on 23 April 1990 under the Companies (Western Australia) Code under the name Torum Mining N.L. as a no liability company and was registered in Western Australia. The Company's name was changed from Torum Mining N.L. to Dragon Mining N.L. on 5 July 1990. On 19 September 1990, the Company was listed and began trading on the ASX under the stock code "DRA". The Directors believe the founders were geologists with extensive experience in mining and exploration. The founders are no longer with the Company. On 16 February 2007, the Company changed its corporate structure from that of a public no liability company to a public company limited by shares and traded as "Dragon Mining Limited" from then on.

1. CLASSES OF SHARES

Pursuant to the Constitution, the Company may issue any Shares with or without preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions as the Directors may think fit. When the Company issues Shares which do not carry voting rights, the words "non-voting" shall appear in the class name of such Shares. Whilst the share capital includes Shares with different voting rights, the class name of each class of Shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting" or "limited voting".

2. PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS ON NEW ISSUES OF SHARES

Under the Australian Corporations Act, Shareholders do not have any right to be offered any Shares which are being newly issued for cash before those Shares can be offered to non-Shareholders.

3. ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

The Board may do anything which it considers desirable to give effect to any resolution or other action authorising or effecting the alteration of the share capital of the Company or the variation or abrogation of rights attaching to any class of Shares or to adjust the rights of all parties and, in particular, may (without limitation):

- (a) round or disregard any fraction of Shares or any fractional entitlement; and
- (b) determine that as between the holders of Shares or other entitlements one or more of them has a preference or special advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise.

4. BUY-BACKS

Subject to compliance with the Australian Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, there are no restrictions on reducing the Company's share capital or share buy-backs.

5. VOTING RIGHTS

The Australian Corporations Act states that:

- a member of the Company who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the members may appoint any person or corporate representative as that member's proxy to attend and vote for that member at the meeting; and
- a proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member that appointed that proxy, to speak and vote at the meeting and join in a demand for a poll.

Articles 16 and 17 of the Constitution contain practical rules about entitlements to attend and vote (including by proxy) which reflect the above statutory position.

6. DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON A WINDING-UP

The Constitution provides that if the Company is wound up and after distribution of assets to repay the paid-up capital, there remain assets available for distribution to members (in that capacity), those assets will be distributed:

- (a) to members in relation to each class of Shares in accordance with the respective rights to those assets established by the terms of issue of each class of the Shares; and
- (b) so that (to the greatest possible extent), in relation to each class of Shares, the amount distributed to the members holding Shares of that class is distributed in the proportions which the amounts paid (including any amounts credited) on the Shares of a member is of the total amounts paid and payable (including amounts credited) on the Shares of all members in that class of Shares, except that a member who is in arrears in payment of any call, but whose Shares (of whatever class) have not been actually forfeited, is not entitled to share in that distribution until the amount owing in respect of the call has been fully paid and satisfied.

7. TRANSFER OF SHARES

Subject to the Constitution and the Listing Rules, a member may transfer all or any of the member's Shares by an instrument in writing in the usual or common form or in such other form as the board may accept. Article 9.1 of the Constitution provides that except where permitted by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, there is no restriction on the transfer of Shares. The board may decline to register a transfer of shares where to do so would contravene the Listing Rules and must do so when required by law (including the Listing Rules).

8. VARIATION OF RIGHTS

If at any time the issued Shares are divided into different classes, the rights attached to any class of Shares (unless the terms of issue of that class otherwise provide) may only be varied or abrogated with either:

- the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the issued Shares of that class; or
- the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of Shares of that class.

9. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS IN MATTERS

Each Director must declare and disclose a material interest to the Board as required by the Australian Corporations Act at the first meeting of the Board after the Director becomes a Director or at the first meeting of the board after the Director becomes aware of the facts which give rise to the material interest, or at the meeting of the board at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement which gives rise to that material interest is first considered, whichever is the earlier.

10. RESTRICTIONS ON DIRECTORS VOTING

A Director (including any Alternate Director) who has a material personal interest (directly or indirectly) in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of the Directors will only be excluded or prohibited from voting on the matter, being counted in a quorum for the purposes of the meeting or being present while the matter is being considered, if the Director is so prohibited or excluded under the Australian Corporations Act.

This is unless the matter being considered relates to any contract or arrangement or any other proposal in which the Director or any of his or her close associates has a material personal interest, in which case such Director (including any Alternate Director) will be excluded from voting on that matter and being counted in a quorum for the purposes of that meeting.

11. DISPOSAL OF ASSETS

The Australian Corporations Act contains no specific restrictions on the powers of directors to dispose of the assets of a company. However, in exercising those powers, the directors must discharge their duties of care to act in good faith, for a proper purpose and in the best interests of the Company as required under directors' duties in Chapter 2D of the Australian Corporations Act and fiduciary obligations under general law in Australia.

The Company cannot give a financial benefit to a related party of the Company without Shareholder approval, unless one of the exceptions specified in Chapter 2E of the Australian Corporations Act applies. A related party is defined in section 228 of the Australian Corporations Act, which includes a director of the Company or a person or entity related to a director.

12. RECONSTRUCTIONS

There are statutory provisions under Australian law which facilitate certain reconstructions and amalgamations approved by:

- a majority in number of the members present and voting; and
- 75% of the votes cast on the resolution.

Such reconstructions or amalgamations must also be approved by order of an Australian court.

13. WINDING UP

The board of the Company may authorise the presentation of a petition for the winding up of the Company by the court.

14. TAKEOVER REGULATION

The takeovers provisions in Chapter 6 of the Australian Corporations Act apply to certain dealings in the Shares. Those provisions apply to listed companies and unlisted companies with more than 50 members.

The Australian Corporations Act prohibits a person acquiring a “relevant interest” (basically power to vote or dispose of the share) in the voting shares in a company incorporated in Australia to which Chapter 6 of the Australian Corporations Act applies if, as a result, the “voting power” of the acquirer (or any other person) would:

- increase from 20% or below to more than 20%; or
- increase their voting power if that person already holds more than 20% but less than 90% of the voting power in that company.

This is unless an exception applies. These exceptions include acquisitions:

- under a formal takeover offer in which all Shareholders can participate;
- with the approval of the Shareholders given at a general meeting of the Company; and
- in 3% increments every six months (provided that the acquirer has had voting power of at least 19% in the target company for at least six months).

A person who has made a takeover bid where at the end of the offer period that person (and its associates) have a relevant interest in 90% or more of the issued shares and acquired 75% or more (by number) of shares held by other shareholders, may compulsorily acquire any remaining shares it does not hold at the same price offered under the bid, within one month after the end of the offer period. Even if a takeover bid has not been made, a person who otherwise lawfully acquires a relevant interest in 90% or more of the issued shares is able to acquire the remaining shares for fair value (confirmed by an independent expert), within six months after the person first acquires an interest in 90% or more of the issued shares.

Under the Australian Foreign Acquisition and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) and accompanying regulations, proposed acquisitions by foreign persons may require the prior approval of the Treasurer of Australia (advised by the Foreign Investment Review Board).

15. SHAREHOLDERS PROTECTIONS

The Company was incorporated in Australia and is subject to the Australian Corporations Act and other applicable laws and regulations in Australia. Set out below is a discussion on the key shareholders' protection standards offered under the Constitution and the Australian laws and regulations that the Company considers material to the Shareholders and potential investors and as required under the Joint Policy Statement.

15.1 Matters requiring a Super-Majority Vote

The Joint Policy Statement requires the following matters to be approved by a super-majority vote of the shareholders:

- changes to the rights attached to any class of shares of an overseas company (vote by members of that class);
- material changes to an overseas company's constitutive documents, however framed; and
- voluntary winding up of an overseas company.

Under the Australian Corporations Act, there is a “special resolution” voting threshold for certain matters, which is effectively a 75% approval threshold. Under the Australian Corporations Act and the Constitution, a special resolution of members is required to approve:

- changes to the rights attached to any class of shares;
- any modification to, or repeal of, the Constitution; and
- where the Company is being wound up by the Court or voluntarily.

15.2 Meanings of a Super-Majority Votes

The Joint Policy Statement requires a super-majority vote to mean at least a two-third majority where an overseas company has a low quorum requirement. When an overseas company’s threshold for deciding the matters in the paragraph headed “Matters requiring a Super-Majority Vote” above is a simple majority only, these matters must be decided by a significantly higher quorum.

Under section 9 of the Australian Corporations Act, a special resolution means a resolution of which notice has been given in accordance with certain prescribed rules and that it has been passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by members entitled to vote on that resolution.

15.3 Variation of rights

The Constitution provides that a special resolution or the consent in writing of 75% of those in a class is required to approve a variation of rights of that class of shares. The Constitution also provides that a quorum of shareholders who hold at least one third of the issued shares of the relevant class of shares present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote is required to form a quorum of all general meetings of that class.

15.4 Changes to the Constitution

Section 136(2) of the Australian Corporations Act and the Constitution provides that a special resolution of Shareholders is required for any modification to, or repeal of, the Constitution. The Constitution also provides that no rule shall be rescinded, altered or amended and no new rule shall be made until the same has been approved by a special resolution.

15.5 Individual Members to Approve Increase in Members' Liability

The Joint Policy Statement requires that there should not be any alteration in an overseas company's constitutional document to increase an existing member's liability to the company unless such increase is agreed by such member in writing.

Under section 140(2)(b) of the Australian Corporations Act, unless a member of the Company agrees in writing to be bound, that member will not be bound by any alteration of the Constitution made after the date on which they became a member, if and to the extent that alteration increases the member's liability to contribute to the share capital of, or otherwise to pay money to, the Company.

15.6 Appointment of Auditors

The Joint Policy Statement requires that the appointment, removal and remuneration of auditors must be approved by a majority of an overseas company's members or other body that is independent of the board of directors, for example the supervisory board in systems that have a two tier board structure. Australian law does not require two tier board structures.

The Constitution provides that the members of the Company may, at any general meetings, convened and held in accordance with the Constitution, remove the auditors by special resolution at any time before the expiration of the term of office and shall, by ordinary resolution, at that meeting appoint new auditors in its place for the remainder of the term.

15.7 Appointment

Section 327B(1) of the Australian Corporations Act provides that a public company must appoint an auditor at its first annual general meeting and must appoint an auditor to fill any vacancy in the office of auditor at each subsequent annual general meeting. Appointments are made by way of a resolution passed by a simple majority of members.

15.8 Removal

Section 329(1) of the Australian Corporations Act provides that an auditor of the company may be removed by simple majority resolution of the members of a company at a general meeting, provided notice of intention to move the resolution is given to the company at least two months before the meeting.

15.9 Remuneration

Section 250R(1) of the Australian Corporations Act provides that the business of an annual general meeting may include the consideration of the annual financial report, directors' report and auditor's report, the election of directors, the appointment of the auditor, and the fixing of the auditor's remuneration. However, there is no requirement under the Australian Corporations Act for the auditor's remuneration to be approved by a majority of members. It is a matter for the Board of directors under Australian law.

15.10 Annual General Meetings

The Joint Policy Statement requires that an overseas company is required to hold a general meeting each year as its annual general meeting. Generally, not more than 15 months should elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the overseas company and the next.

Section 250N of the Australian Corporations Act provides that the Company must hold an annual general meeting at least once in each calendar year and within five months after the end of its financial year.

15.11 Notice of General Meetings

The Joint Policy Statement requires that an overseas company must give its members reasonable written notice of its general meetings.

Section 249H(1) of the Australian Corporations Act provides that a company must give at least 28 days' notice of a meeting of members. However, the Company may call, on shorter notice, (i) an annual general meeting, if all the members entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting agree beforehand; and (ii) any other general meeting, if members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand. An Australian listed company is required to give at least 28 days' notice of meeting of members. The Constitution provides that an annual general meeting shall be called by notice of not less than 28 clear days and not less than 20 clear business days. All other general meetings shall be called by notice of not less than 28 clear days and not less than ten clear business days.

15.12 Rights to speak and vote at the General Meetings

The Joint Policy Statement requires that all members must have the right to speak and vote at a general meeting, except in cases where a member is required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules to abstain from voting to approve the transaction or arrangement (e.g. the member has a material interest in the transaction or arrangement).

Under the Australian Corporations Act, written notice of a meeting of a company's members must be given individually to each member entitled to vote at the meeting and to each director. A notice of meeting must set out, among other things, the time, date and place of the meeting and the general nature of the meeting's business. Section 250 of the Australian Corporations Act also provides that the chair at an annual general meeting must allow reasonable opportunity for the members as a whole at the meeting to ask questions about or make comments on the management of the company.

The Constitution provides that each member is entitled to notice of each general meeting and to be present and to speak at that general meeting.

15.13 Proxies or Corporate Representatives

The Joint Policy Statement requires that a recognised Hong Kong clearing house must be entitled to appoint proxies or corporate representatives to attend general meetings and creditors meetings. These proxies/corporate representatives should enjoy statutory rights comparable to those of other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

The Australian Corporations Act does not contain any provision to the effect that a recognised clearing house would be prohibited from appointing proxies/corporate representatives. Article 17.1(b) of the Constitution expressly gives Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited the right to appoint a proxy.

The Constitution also provides that any voting member shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend a general meeting and vote instead of him or her at that meeting. A voting member who is the holder of two or more Shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. In addition, a proxy or proxies representing either a Voting Member who is an individual or a Voting Member which is a corporation shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Member which he or they represent as such Voting Member could exercise.

C. WITHHOLDING TAX

1. TAXATION

The following taxation summary is based on the tax laws in Australia and Hong Kong in force and the administrative practices of the Australian and Hong Kong tax authorities as at the Latest Practicable Date. During the period of ownership of the Shares by investors, the taxation laws of Australia and Hong Kong, or their interpretation, may change (possibly with retroactive effect).

Australian and Hong Kong tax laws are complex. This summary is general in nature and is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement of all potential tax implications for each investor or relied upon as tax advice. The precise implications of ownership or disposal will depend upon each investor's specific circumstances. Investors should seek their own professional advice on the taxation implications of holding or disposing of the Shares, taking into account their specific circumstances. No conclusion should be drawn with respect to issues not specifically addressed by this summary.

The below summary assumes that the Company continues to be an Australian tax resident.

2. AUSTRALIAN TAX OBLIGATIONS RELATING TO THE OFFER SHARES

Shareholders who acquired Offer Shares at the time of Listing on the Stock Exchange should note the Australian tax implications relating to the Offer Shares as to the followings:

Taxation of dividends

Dividends will have different tax implications depending on the tax residency of the Shareholder. For more details of the tax implications of dividends for Australian Shareholders, please refer to Appendix VII to the Prospectus.

Shareholders who take up Offer Shares

The consideration, plus any incidental costs such as brokerage, paid by Shareholders who take up the Offer Shares will form the cost base for any future disposal.

The capital gain tax implications for any future disposal by these Shareholders will be based upon their tax residency status. For more details of the capital gain tax implications for the Shareholders who are Australian, please refer to Appendix VII to the Prospectus.

Stamp duty

An acquisition of Offer Shares by a Shareholder alone or with one or more associates or related persons (as defined in the relevant stamp duties legislation) such that the Shareholder alone or with such associates or related persons does not hold an interest of 90% (or 50% in certain circumstances) or more in the Company, will not be subject to stamp duty.

Estate duty and inheritance tax

Australia does not currently impose taxation in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax.

3. HONG KONG TAX OBLIGATIONS RELATING TO THE OFFER SHARES

Shareholders who acquired Offer Shares at the time of Listing on the Stock Exchange should note the Hong Kong tax implications relating to the Offer Shares as to the followings:

Taxation of dividends

No tax is payable in Hong Kong in respect of dividends.

Taxation on gains from sale

No tax is imposed in Hong Kong in respect of gains from the sale of the Shares, unless a Shareholder is deemed to be carrying on a business of trading or dealing in securities in Hong Kong.

Stamp duty

The subscription of the Offer Shares will not attract stamp duty as the Public Offer is not a transfer. The subsequent transfer of the Shares on the Stock Exchange will be subject to stamp duty at a rate of 0.1% for each of the transferor and transferee.

Estate duty

Hong Kong does not currently impose taxation in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax.

- (a) is fully indemnified by that Member from that liability;
- (b) may recover as a debt due from the Member the amount of that liability together with interest at the Prescribed Rate from the date of payment by the Company (if the payment is made) to the date of repayment by the Member; and and, for the purposes of this rule 8.4, the following provisions apply:

- (c) in relation to any separate meeting of the holders of Shares in a class, the provisions of this constitution which relate to general meetings apply as far as they are capable of application and modified as necessary, except that any holder of Shares of that class present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative may demand a poll; and
- (d) the rights attached to a class of Shares are not to be considered as varied if further Shares of that class are issued on identical terms except if the terms of issue of that class of Shares otherwise provide;

but so that the necessary quorum (other than at an adjourned meeting) shall be not less than three natural persons holding (or, in the case of a holder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or representing by proxy one-third of the issued Shares of that class, and that the quorum for any meeting adjourned for want of quorum shall be three holders present in person (or in the case of the holder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy (whatever the number of Shares held by them).

- (a) the Directors present may elect one of their number to be the chairman of the general meeting; and
- (b) if there is no Director present or if no Director present at the meeting is able and willing to be the chairman of the general meeting, the Voting Members present must elect one of their number to be the chairman of the general meeting.

12.6 Chairman disqualified

If the chairman of a general meeting is unwilling or unable to be the chairman for any part of the business of the meeting:

- (a) the chairman may withdraw as chairman for that part of the business and may nominate any person who would be entitled under rule 12.4 or 12.5 to chair the meeting for that part of the business; and
- (b) after that part of the business is completed, the person so nominated must cease to chair the meeting and the chairman resumes as the chairman of the meeting.

12.7 Responsibilities of chairman

The chairman of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and to ascertain the sense of the meeting concerning the business transacted at it and for these purposes may, without limitation:

- (a) prescribe procedures and make rulings, in each case finally and conclusively;
- (b) in addition to other powers to adjourn, adjourn the meeting or any item of business of the meeting without the concurrence of the meeting if the chairman determines it is desirable for the orderly conduct of the meeting or the conduct of a poll; and
- (c) determine conclusively any dispute concerning the admission, validity or rejection of a vote.

12.8 Method of voting

Every resolution put to a vote at a general meeting (except where there is an election of Directors by ballot) must be determined by a poll except where the Chairman, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands in which case every Member present in person (or being a body corporate, is present by a duly authorised representative), or by proxy shall have one vote provided that where more than one proxy or authorised representative is appointed by a Member which is a Clearing House (or its nominee(s)), each such proxy or authorised representative shall have one vote on a show of hands.

12.9 Demand for poll

Where a show of hands is allowed, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands pursuant to the Listing Rules, a demand for a poll may be made by:

- (a) the chairman of the general meeting;
- (b) any three or more natural persons present each of whom is, or represents under rules 12.1(b), (c) or (d), a different Voting Member;

- (d) any number of natural persons present each of whom is, or represents under rules 12.1(b), (c) or (d), a different Voting Member where those Voting Members hold Shares which confer a right to vote at the meeting and on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to at least 5% of the total sum paid up on all Shares conferring that right.

12.10 No poll on election of chairman

A demand for a poll may not be made in respect of the election by the general meeting of the chairman of the meeting.

12.11 Effect and withdrawal of demand for poll

The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a general meeting for the transaction of any business except in respect of the resolution for which the poll is demanded.

12.12 Votes on show of hands

Where a resolution is determined by a show of hands:

- (a) a declaration by the chairman of the general meeting that the resolution has been carried, carried unanimously, carried without dissent, carried by a particular majority or lost is conclusive evidence of the fact so declared without proof of the number or proportion of votes cast for or against that resolution; and
- (b) an entry in the book containing the minutes of that general meeting recording that declaration is conclusive evidence of the fact that the declaration was made as so recorded.

12.13 Conduct of poll

Where a resolution is determined by a poll:

- (a) if the resolution is for the adjournment of the general meeting, the poll must be taken immediately at the place and in the manner that the chairman of the meeting determines and declares to the meeting;
- (b) in all other cases, the poll must be taken at the time and place and in the manner that the chairman of the general meeting determines and declares to the meeting;
- (c) the result of the poll, as disclosed by the chairman of the general meeting at which the result is declared, is a resolution of the general meeting at which the poll is demanded; and
- (d) an entry in the book containing the minutes of the general meeting at which the result is declared recording that declaration is conclusive evidence of the fact that the declaration was made as so recorded.

12.14 Resolutions determined by majority

Subject to rule 12.16, both on a show of hands and on a poll, an Ordinary Resolution is passed if more than one half of the total number of votes cast on the resolution are cast in favour of that resolution.

12.15 Casting vote of chairman

If on a resolution proposed as an Ordinary Resolution at a general meeting there is an equality of votes (whether on a show of hands or on a poll), the chairman of the meeting may exercise a casting vote in addition to all other votes which the chairman may have (unless the chairman is not entitled for some other reason to cast a vote on the resolution or if the chairman casts a vote where rule 12.16 requires that no account be taken of the vote, in either of which cases the resolution is not passed).

12.16 Voting restrictions

Where the Company is Listed and either:

- (a) in accordance with the requirements of the Listing Rules; or
- (b) to ensure that a resolution on which the Act requires that particular persons do not cast a vote so that the resolution has a specified effect under the Act, the notice of a general meeting specifies that, in relation to particular business to be considered at that general meeting, votes cast by particular persons (whether specified by name or by description of particular classes of persons) are to be disregarded by the Company, the Company must take no account, in determining the votes cast on a resolution relating to that business (whether a special resolution or an Ordinary Resolution) or for any other purpose, of any vote cast or purported to be cast by or on behalf of any of those persons (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) in relation to that resolution.

13. ENTITLEMENTS TO ATTEND AND VOTE

13.1 Entitlement to notice and to attend

Each Member, each Director, any auditor of the Company and any other person required by law is entitled to notice of each general meeting and to be present and to speak at that general meeting.

13.2 Entitlement to vote

- (b) on a poll, each natural person present at a general meeting has the number of votes calculated as the aggregate of the following:
 - (i) the number of fully paid Shares held by the person;
 - (ii) the number of fully paid Shares in respect of which Voting Members holding those Shares have appointed the person as proxy, representative or attorney;
 - (iii) in respect of the partly paid Shares held by the person, the aggregate of the fractions determined, in respect of each of those Shares, by dividing the total amount paid (not credited) on the Share by the total of the amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) on the Share; and
 - (iv) the aggregate of the fractions determined on the same basis as paragraph (iii) above in respect of each partly paid Share in respect of which the Voting Member holding that Share has appointed the person as proxy, representative or attorney.

13.3 Vote of body corporate and Clearing House

- (a) Subject to rule 13.3(b), any body corporate which is a Voting Member may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members. The person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such body corporate as the body corporate could exercise if it were an individual Voting Member and such body corporate shall for the purposes of this constitution be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present thereat.

- (b) If a Clearing House (or its nominee(s)), being a body corporate, is a Voting Member, it may authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members provided that, if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. Each person so authorised under this constitution shall be deemed to have been duly authorised without further evidence of the facts and be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the Clearing House (or its nominee(s)) as if such person was the registered holder of the shares of the Company held by the Clearing House (or its nominee(s)). On a poll, each such person is under no obligation to cast all his votes in the same way. Where a show of hands is allowed, each such person shall have one vote on a show of hands and the right to vote individually.

13.4 Vote of transmittee

A person entitled to transmission of a Share under rule 10 who, at least 48 hours before the time notified for a general meeting (or an adjourned meeting), satisfies the Board of that person's right to that Share, may vote at that general meeting in respect of that Share as if the person were registered as the holder of the Share.

13.5 Vote of Member of unsound mind

If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under a law relating to mental health, that Member's committee or trustee or other person who properly has the management of the Member's estate may, if that person has at least 48 hours before the time notified for a general meeting (or an adjourned meeting) satisfied the Board of that person's relationship to the Member or the Member's estate, exercise the rights of the Member in respect of the general meeting as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.

Where more than one person (including, for the purposes of this rule 13.5, the several legal personal representatives of a dead Member) holds a Share:

- (a) each of those persons may tender a vote in respect of the Share either in person or by proxy, representative or attorney, as if the person were the sole holder of the Share; but
- (b) if two or more of those persons tender a vote on any resolution, the only vote which is to be counted in respect of that Share is the vote tendered by the most senior of those persons (seniority being conclusively ascertained by the order of names in respect of that Share in the Register).

13.7 Appointment of proxy

- (a) Any Voting Member shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend a general meeting and vote instead of him there at. A Voting Member who is the holder of two or more Shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. A proxy need not be a Member. In addition, a proxy or proxies representing either a Voting Member who is an individual or a Voting Member which is a corporation shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Member which he or they represent as such Voting Member could exercise.
- (b) The form of appointment of a proxy is the form in schedule 3, or another form acceptable to and approved by the Board, provided that it shall not preclude the use of a two-way voting form. The form of appointment of a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised to sign the same.

13.9 Effect of the appointment

An instrument of proxy which is valid and effective except that it does not specify an appointee in respect of any of the Shares of the relevant Member is to be treated as validly appointing the chairman of the general meeting to which it relates in respect of all of the Shares of that Member.

13.10 Attorneys – deposit of instruments

Any appointment of an attorney is effective in respect of a particular general meeting if, and only if, the power of attorney or an office copy or notarially certified copy of the power of attorney is actually received (which includes receipt of a copy of those instruments by legible fax) by the Company at its registered office (or another place notified by the Board) at least 48 hours before the time notified for that meeting.

13.11 Effect of death etc of member

13.13 Ruling on entitlements and votes

An objection may be raised with the chairman of a general meeting as to the qualification of a purported voter or the admission or rejection of a vote by any person present and entitled (or claiming to be entitled) to vote but that objection may be made only at the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the purported voter wishes to vote or the vote objected to is given or tendered and, in relation to that objection:

16. DIRECTORS' MATERIAL INTERESTS

16.1 Purpose of rule 16

The purpose of this rule 16 is:

- (a) to provide a means by which Directors may not be in breach of their general law duties to the Company by reason of conflict of interest or duty once they have made disclosure of the relevant matter and the Board has independently considered the matter;

- (b) to provide that to the extent that the Act or the Listing Rules contain requirements which relate to the same matter, compliance with those requirements will also have the effect of relieving the Directors of a breach of those general law duties; and
