DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTION IN RESPECT OF DISPOSAL OF LISTED SECURITIES

THE JANUARY 21ST DISPOSAL

The Board announces that on 21 January 2021, the Group has disposed 800,000 China Nuclear Shares at the price of HK$0.65 per China Nuclear Share on the open market for a cash consideration of approximately HK$520,000.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

The January 21st Disposal does not constitute any notifiable transaction of the Company under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. However, under Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules, such disposal of China Nuclear Shares shall be aggregated as if they were one transaction if they are all completed within a 12-month period.

In this respect, the January 21st Disposal shall be aggregated with the Disposals as disclosed in the Announcement as if they were one transaction. As the highest applicable percentage ratio as defined under the Listing Rules for the aggregated transaction amounts of the January 21st Disposal and the Disposals exceeds 5% but lower than 25%, the January 21st Disposal and the Disposals as a whole constitute a discloseable transaction of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules and is subject to notification and announcement requirements pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

THE JANUARY 21ST DISPOSAL

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 20 January 2021 in respect of the Disposals (the “Announcement”). Unless otherwise defined, capitalised terms used in this announcement shall bear the same meanings as those defined in the Announcement.

The Board announces that on 21 January 2021, the Group has disposed 800,000 China Nuclear Shares (the “Disposed Shares”) at the price of HK$0.65 per China Nuclear Share on the open market for a cash consideration of approximately HK$520,000 (the “January 21st Disposal”). The Disposed Shares amounted to approximately 0.06% of the issued share capital of China Nuclear (based on 1,313,094,192 China Nuclear Shares as at 31 December 2020).

As the January 21st Disposal were made on the open market, the Company is not aware of the identities of the counterparty(ies) of the January 21st Disposal or its/their respective principal business activities. To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Directors having made all reasonable enquiries, each of the counterparty(ies) of the January 21st Disposals and their respective ultimate beneficial owners is an Independent Third Party.

The cash consideration of the January 21st Disposal is HK$520,000 and the disposal prices of the Disposed Shares were determined according to the bid and ask prices of China Nuclear Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange on 21 January 2021 at the relevant times of the January 21st Disposal.

Upon the completion of the January 21st Disposal, the Group holds 9,264,000 China Nuclear Shares.

INFORMATION ON CHINA NUCLEAR

According to the publicly available information, China Nuclear is a Hong Kong-based investment holding company and is positioned as a foreign investment financing service platform for industrialization of China’s new nuclear technology and implementation of overseas development strategy. It aims to establish a financial services business with focus on the financing and leasing sector of nuclear power, clean energy, energy conservation and environmental protection industries, to realize industry and financial synergies.

The following financial information is extracted from the annual report of China Nuclear for the two financial years ended 31 December 2019:

	For the year ended 31 December

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE JANUARY 21ST DISPOSAL

The principal activity of the Company is investment holding. The Group is principally engaged in (i) software business; and (ii) money lending.

Based on the recent market prices of China Nuclear Shares, the Directors are of the view that the January 21st Disposal represented an opportunity to realise the Group's investment in the Disposed Shares. The Directors expect to recognise a gain before taxation of approximately HK$210,000 included in the other comprehensive income which is calculated on the basis of the difference between the acquisition price and the disposal price (exclusive of transaction costs) of the China Nuclear Shares. Shareholders should note that the actual amount of gain on the January 21st Disposal to be recorded by the Company will be subject to review. It is expected that the proceeds from the January 21st Disposal will be used as for the general working capital of the Group. The Directors consider the January 21st Disposal are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

The January 21st Disposal does not constitute any notifiable transaction of the Company under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. However, under Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules, such disposal of China Nuclear Shares shall be aggregated as if they were one transaction if they are all completed within a 12-month period.

In this respect, the January 21st Disposal shall be aggregated with the Disposals as disclosed in the Announcement as if they were one transaction. As the highest applicable percentage ratio as defined under the Listing Rules for the aggregated transaction amounts of the January 21st Disposal and the Disposals exceeds 5% but lower than 25%, the January 21st Disposal and the Disposals as a whole constitute a discloseable transaction of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules and is subject to notification and announcement requirements pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.
