FEC Wins Three Awards in “iNOVA Awards 2016” Highlighted by Gold Award for “Activism/Cause Marketing in Video Category”

(07 December, 2016 - Hong Kong) Far East Consortium International Limited (“FEC” or the “Group”; SEHK: 35) is proud to announce that it has won three awards in iNOVA Awards 2016. The video gallery on the Group’s website won the Gold Award for “Activism/Cause Marketing in Video Category”; the live webcast and investor relations presentation for results announcement won the Silver Award for “Virtual Conference in Marketing Category” and the Group’s corporate website, which is newly revamped, received the Bronze Award in “Corporate Website Category” for the second consecutive year.

The iNOVA Awards, in its 16th year, is organized by Mercomm, Inc. and aims to recognize and promote achievements in creative web design, original contents, and functional performance. The awards honour professionals, corporations, government and non-profit organizations who contribute to the process of building brand image and making a difference in the global market place.

On winning the awards, Mr. Chris HOONG, Managing Director of FEC, said: “We are indeed proud to have received these accolades in iNOVA Awards 2016. FEC is committed to enhance the Group’s transparency by providing shareholders, potential investors, the media and general public an easier way to learn about the Group’s development. The iNOVA Awards advocates creativity and excellence which are exactly what we are pursuing for. We will continue to explore more effective ways to maintain a close relationship with all our stakeholders.”
