Re : Article entitled : GuocoLand in bid to develop UM land?

* Contents :-

We refer to your letter of 12 June 2007 with regard to the above article, in particular, the underlined sentences which are reproduced as follows:-

"Guocoland (Malaysia) Bhd has made a bid to relocate University Malaya from Petaling Jaya to Sepang"

"As part of the plan, GuocoLand will then own the land in Petaling Jaya and develop it into a commercial and residential township."

"A company source said such a development is estimated to have a gross development value of RM10 billion."

GuocoLand (Malaysia) Berhad wishes to inform that currently, the Company has not made any bid to relocate University Malaya from Petaling Jaya to Sepang. As part of its normal business activities, GLM is constantly exploring opportunities to enhance shareholder value. Should such opportunities result in definitive agreements, the Company will make the appropriate announcement, where required.

This announcement is dated 13 June 2007.
