Hutchison Telecom Hong Kong receives accolades for 2010 Annual Report

Hong Kong, 7 November 2011 – Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (“HTHKH”; “the Group”; Stock Code: 215) today announced that its 2010 Annual Report has won Bronze and Silver honours in the telecommunications categories of the 2011 International GALAXY Awards Competition and the 2010 Vision Awards Annual Report Competition respectively. The 2010 Vision Awards, which is run by the League of American Communications Professionals LLC, also ranked HTHKH’s entry among the top-20 Chinese annual reports.

The theme for HTHKH’s 2010 Annual Report was “Striving for Excellence, Maximising Growth”, representing the Group’s strategic direction in its second year of listing. Featuring a silver and blue colour scheme on glittering art card, the cover was designed to illustrate the vast potential held by telecommunications. This avant-garde styling also reflected the Group’s flair in delivering world-class telecommunications services based on innovation and the latest technologies.

HTHKH Chief Financial Officer Jennifer Tan said: “We regard financial reports as an important communications bridge between the Group and its shareholders. We aim to present our financials, operational highlights and information on significant corporate developments to our audience in a concise and reader-friendly manner. A high-quality annual report is crucial to maintaining the Group’s transparency and enhancing the public’s understanding of our vision and strategy.”

The Annual Report received full marks when judged against the criteria of Reporter Cover, Letter to Shareholders, Report Narrative, Message Clarity and Information Accessibility in the 2010 Vision Awards, which claims to be one of the world’s largest annual report competitions.

HTHKH’s 2010 Annual Report received Bronze honours in the category of “Annual Reports: Telecommunications” of the International GALAXY Awards Competition organised by MerComm, Inc.. The judges commented that the cover is exciting and dynamic, reflecting the power of HTHKH’s telecommunications operations.

Reni Witt, President of MerComm, Inc., said: “With over 600 entries from 22 countries, the stakes were formidably high. HTHKH’s 2010 annual report deserves the honour and praise bestowed on it by the distinguished panel of judges.”
