Lukfook Group
Awarded as “Manpower Developer” by the Employees Retraining Board

(Hong Kong, 30th April 2013) ----- Luk Fook Holdings (International) Limited (“Lukfook” / the “Group”) (Stock Code: 00590), proudly announced that the Group was awarded as “Manpower Developer” in the “ERB Manpower Developer Award Scheme” again by the Employees Retraining Board (“ERB”), in recognition of the Group’s outstanding achievements in manpower training and development.

Mr. Wong Wai Sheung, Chairman and Chief Executive of the Group, said, “The Group believes that people are its most valuable asset and places great emphasis on manpower development. Comprehensive training programmes as well as recreational activities are provided to our staff in order to pursue work-life balance. This award does not only recognize our long-standing commitment in manpower training, but also encourages us to strive for the ideal working environment for our staff members.”

With a view to instilling a corporate culture advocating the importance of manpower training and development, the ERB launched the “ERB Manpower Developer Award Scheme” to recognize organizations which demonstrate outstanding achievements in manpower training and development as Manpower Developers. The ERB hopes that manpower training and development will become a common value which will be conducive to the competitiveness of Hong Kong.

The presentation ceremony was held at Holiday Inn Hong Kong on 25 April 2013. Ms. Shirley Wong, Director and Deputy General Manager of Lukfook Group, received the award on behalf of the Group.
