Lukfook Group Dedicated to Charity, Donated HKD1,000,000 to Support Chinese Medicine Services “TWGHs Lukfook Group Chinese Medicine Clinic” Officially Opened

(Hong Kong, 18 September 2019) – Luk Fook Holdings (International) Limited (“Lukfook”/the “Group”) (Stock Code: 00590) has been enthusiastic about charity over the years and actively supporting local charitable organisation, Tung Wah Group of Hospitals (TWGHs). Previously, the Group donated a total of HKD $2.2 million to TWGHs, of which the HKD $1 million donated in “Tung Wah Charity Gala 2018” was utilized in supporting its Chinese medicine services. In light of this, the Board of TWGHs has named the Chinese Medicine Clinic located at Cheung Sha Wan Plaza as “TWGHs Lukfook Group Chinese Medicine Clinic” and officially unveiled on 30 August, 2019 (Friday).

Mr. Wong Wai Sheung, Chairman and Chief Executive of the Group said, “The Group always strives to give back to our society and continues to support the services of TWGHs. I am honored that the TWGHs Chinese Medicine Clinic is named after Lukfook Group in recognition of our contribution to the community. We hope to provide quality, convenient and diversified Chinese medicine specialist services to benefit citizens in need. In the future, we will continue to support various charity initiatives, fulfil our corporate citizenship and help more needy.”

The Tung Wah Group of Hospitals is the most well-established charitable organization with the longest history in Hong Kong. “TWGHs Lukfook Group Chinese Medicine Clinic” provides a wide range of specialist services, including internal medicine, acupuncture and naprapathy (Tui-na). Meanwhile, for better convenience of the patients, TWGHs also offers a Chinese medicine home or office delivery service to suit the needs of the people in that community.
