LITIGATION

Brief descriptions of the relevant ongoing legal actions in relation to Guangzhou Mayer are as follows:-

Singapore: HC/S 320/2015

On 6 April 2015, Bamian issued a writ of summons in the High Court of the Republic of Singapore (the "Singapore Court") against, inter alia, its former director, Lo Haw (who was also the director of Guangzhou Mayer before being removed on 14 February 2017) for breach of his director's duties owed to Bamian in relation to the unauthorized amendments made to the Articles of Association of Guangzhou Mayer (the "Articles") which were passed as the resolutions at the alleged general meetings of Guangzhou Mayer (the "Resolutions") held on 30 May 2014 and 30 September 2014 respectively (the "General Meetings"). Following the court hearings completed on 6 April 2017, a judgment was handed down by the Singapore Court on 17 May 2017 and filed on 9 June 2017 (the "Judgment"). Pursuant to the Judgment, Bamian succeeded in its claim and it was held that Lo Haw had acted in breach of his duties owed to Bamian with respect to the General Meetings and the Resolutions.

In the Judgment the court has remarked, among others, that Lo Haw be a dishonest and evasive witness. He claimed that it was Wu Kuo-lung's idea to amend the Articles, yet the evidence revealed otherwise. It was clear from his own conduct that he played a major role in the preparation of the amendments to the Articles and the Resolutions, in convening the General Meetings and in ensuring the Resolutions were passed. By engineering the passing of the Resolutions which he knew were to the detriment of Bamian, he had favoured the interest of Guangzhou Mayer and his to the expense of Bamian. Lo had admitted that the effect of the amendments to the Articles was to entrench his position as chairman of the board of Guangzhou Mayer. Lo Haw had breached the duty to act bona fide in the interest of Bamian and the duty of good faith. He had not served Bamian faithfully and loyally as if Bamian was his only principal and had clearly subordinated Bamian's interest to that of Guangzhou Mayer and his.

It was adjudged by the Singapore Court that Lo Haw to pay to Bamian, (i) damages to be assessed, (ii) interest; and (iii) the cost of this action fixed at S$93,500 (with reasonable disbursements). On 16 June 2017, Lo Haw has filed an appeal to the Court of Appeal of the Republic of Singapore under the case no. CA/CA 108/2017.
