QX Paper Conferred the "Growing China Corporate Citizen in 2008"

(24 November 2008 – Hong Kong) Qunxing Paper Holdings Company Limited ("QX Paper", HKEx stock code: 3868, together with its subsidiaries, "QX Group"), the largest decorative base paper manufacturer in the PRC, is pleased to announce today that QX Paper was conferred the honorary title of the "Growing China Corporate Citizen in 2008". This demonstrates the efforts of QX Group in performing corporate social responsibility and participating in community services.

The "Growing China Corporate Citizen in 2008" was jointly organized by Committee of Corporate Citizenship of China Association of Social Workers, CCTV Economic Channel and Tencent Charity Foundation. The results were announced at the conferment ceremony held at the Great Hall of the People on 16 November 2008. This award aims to promote corporate social responsibility. Conferees were selected via stringent evaluation conducted by the judging panel, including recommendations from relevant organizations, corporate information submitted from corporations, site visit, online polling and evaluations from the subject panel in corporate citizenship.

Commenting on the conferment of the "Growing China Corporate Citizen in 2008", Dr. Zhu Yu Guo, Chairman of QX Paper said, "We are delighted and encouraged by this honorable conferment. This award has recognized the efforts of QX Group in contributing to the well-being of communities. Being a responsible corporate citizen, QX Group has proactively participated in community services and has demonstrated endless effort in disaster relief and environmental protection. To be a good model of corporate citizen while expediting the growth of our business, QX Group continues to fulfill its responsibility as a corporate citizen. Upholding our corporate belief of "Developing Qunxing, contributing to society", we will continue to bring lucrative return for our shareholders and reward the community."
