Success Universe Group Joined Careers Exhibition Hosted by Hong Kong Vocational Training Council

(June 23, 2008 - Hong Kong) The parent company of Macau Success Limited (“Macau Success” or the “Company”; Stock Code: 00487.HK), Success Universe Group, (collectively the “Group”) participated in a Careers Exhibition organized by Hong Kong Vocational Training Council (“VTC”) on 20 June 2008 for recruitment of new talents to meet the Group’s growing needs. The flagship project of the Company, Ponte 16, also joined the exhibition to locate potential employees for the booming gaming, entertainment and tourist-related industry in Macau.

Mr. Sonny YEUNG, Chairman of the Group, said, “This is the first time for the Group to take part in the exhibition and we are pleased to participate in this event. It demonstrates the importance of a close collaboration among various industries, academia and the Government. The Exhibition provides a valuable opportunity for students to interact with us and have a better understanding of the requirements and attributes for careers in our industry. As we aspire to become one of the major players in the gaming and entertainment-related business in the Asia-Pacific region and we are actively developing our financial business, we expect our employees to grow with us. I sincerely believe what we are offering is more than a job; it is a long-term career prospect.”

The booths highlighted the Group’s and Ponte 16’s career opportunities, and gave a brief introduction of the Group’s core businesses in gaming and entertainment, cruise, travel, finance and securities and property development. On-site interviews were also conducted at the exhibition.

“Our continuous effort to locate young talent to expand our team reflects our optimism about our future prospects. We will continue to build our team. By training a new generation of professionals, we believe we will soon be able to realize our expansion plans in Macau and beyond. In return, we will sustain our growth and create better value for our shareholders” Mr. Yeung concluded.

The Careers Exhibition, held at the Hong Kong Institute of Vocational Education in Chai Wan, attracted almost 70 firms from various sectors to participate, providing approximately 4,100 vacancies and drawing approximately 3,000 graduates to come to the exhibition.
