

INSIDER TRADING & DEALING IN THE COMPANY'S SECURITIES

1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 NEED FOR SHARE TRADING POLICY

There are legal duties placed on directors and officers of the China Yunnan Copper Australia Limited Group (CYU) in relation to transactions in the securities of China Yunnan Copper Australia Limited. Criminal and civil penalties apply if these duties are breached. The major issue is the matter of price sensitive information.

In view of this and the difficulties in determining whether certain information is price sensitive, CYU has adopted a Share Trading Policy governing dealings in securities by Directors, Employees and their Associates.

Nothing in this policy sanctions a breach of any relevant legal or regulatory requirement. In particular all Directors, Employees and their Associates must comply with applicable insider trading legislation.

1.2 BACKGROUND - LEGAL CONSTRAINTS

Legal constraints which apply to directors and officers of a public company who buy or sell securities in that company arise from the following sources:

- Common law
- Corporations Act
- ASX Listing Rules

If a director or an officer is in possession of Price Sensitive Information, which has not been publicly disclosed, there are a number of general and some specific legal rules which provide constraints on dealing in securities.

1.3 HOLDING SECURITIES IN CHINA YUNNAN COPPER AUSTRALIA LIMITED

Whilst it is desirable that Directors, Employees and their Associates hold CYU Securities, Directors, Employees and their Associates wishing to buy or sell CYU Securities must have regard to the legal constraints and to the spirit of this Policy.

2.0 DEFINITIONS

3.4 INFORMING THE COMPANY AND THE ASX

Directors, Employees and their Associates who have been involved in any Trading in CYU Securities, must advise the Company Secretary in writing of the details of the completed transactions within 2 business days of each transaction. Such notification is necessary whether or not prior written approval from a Notification Officer has been required.

Directors must notify the Company Secretary, who in turn must notify the ASX of any changes in their holdings of CYU Securities. Such notification must be made to the ASX within 5 business days of the Trade.

3.5 CERTAIN TRADING EXCLUDED FROM POLICY

Subject to insider trading laws, the restrictions on trading in columns 2 and 3 of the table in clause 3.1 do not apply in relation to the following dealings in CYU Securities to the extent specified below:

- (a) being issued CYU Securities under:
 - a rights issue;
 - a dividend reinvestment plan;
 - a security purchase plan; or
 - an employee option plan, employee share acquisition scheme, executive share acquisition plan or similar arrangement;
- (b) disposing of CYU Securities:
 - under a buy back or capital reduction made available to most or all security holders; or
 - as a result of a secured lender exercising their right under a margin lending arrangement;
- (c) disposing of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata rights issue;
- (d) accepting (or undertaking to accept) an offer under a takeover bid, disposing of CYU Securities under a scheme of arrangement or agreeing to cancel options over unissued securities in conjunction with a change of control transaction;
- (e) transferring CYU Securities to a superannuation fund or other saving scheme in which the transferee is a beneficiary;
- (f) investing in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme investing only in CYU) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party; and
- (g) entering into a transaction where the beneficial interest in CYU Securities will not change.

3.6 OTHER COMPANIES' SECURITIES

In the event that the Board declares that a nominated company is the subject of an investment activity (whether direct or indirect) by CYU, a Director or Employee who is aware of the Board's declaration and holds shares in that nominated company, must immediately disclose the existence of that shareholding to the Company Secretary who in turn must notify the Board.

Directors, Employees or Associates who are made aware of a CYU investment activity in a nominated company are deemed to have Price Sensitive Information and are prohibited from trading

3.7 TRUSTEES

A person who is included under this Policy and who is a joint trustee or a trustee of a deceased estate should advise his co-trustees or trust beneficiaries, as the case may be, of his relationship with CYU the consequential restrictions on his ability to give advice in respect of CYU Securities.

3.8 DISCLOSURE

Directors are to note that the terms and existence of any finance arrangements, such as margin loans, in relation to their CYU Securities, may require disclosure by CYU under Listing Rule 3.1, if the information is such that a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of CYU Securities.

As the obligation to disclose this information is placed on CYU, Directors are to immediately disclose to the Chairman and the Company Secretary, whenever their holding of CYU Securities encounter or could encounter, a situation which could have a material effect on the orderliness of general market trading in the CYU Securities.

Directors should not enter into any arrangements in respect of their CYU Securities which could lead them to encounter a situation which could have a material effect on the orderliness of general market trading in the CYU Securities or could lead them to breach the provisions of this Share Trading Policy.

SCHEDULE 1

Price Sensitive Information

Price sensitive information can be both financial and non financial information.

Price sensitive information is any information that a reasonable person thinks would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, or buy or sell, the securities.

This list is not exhaustive. It aims to provide examples of what information could be considered price sensitive:

- current or prospective profit/loss figures
- proposed action in the form of dividends, bonus or new share issues
- proposed major disposals or acquisition of assets
- proposed major contracts beyond the size and nature of contracts normally undertaken by the company
- proposed changes in the debt and equity structure of CYU
- information to be disclosed under the continuous disclosure provisions of the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules
- proposed changes to the membership or structure of the Board
- proposed changes in the general character or nature of the business
- information regarding changes in the holdings of substantial shareholders
- an agreement between CYU and a director
- a change in accounting policy to be adopted by the entity
- drilling results
- resource/reserve estimations
