Prospectus

Letter from the Joint Chairmen

22 October 2012

Dear Chinalco Yunnan Shareholder

On behalf of the Directors of Chinalco Yunnan, we are pleased to invite all Eligible Shareholders to participate in a 1 for 2 non-renounceable entitlement offer, as described in this Prospectus.

Each Eligible Shareholder is being offered the right to acquire additional fully paid ordinary shares in the Company (New Shares) at $0.10 per New Share to raise approximately $8,667,915.40 before costs (Offer). The number of New Shares to which you are entitled is specified in the enclosed Entitlement and Acceptance Form. In addition to the Entitlement, Shareholders are also able to apply for additional New Shares if they wish to do so.

Chinalco Yunnan has an impressive number of quality copper exploration ventures in Australia, Chile and Laos. In Australia, exploration success includes the Elaine discovery of 27.7 Mt @ 0.53% Cu Eq including high grade > 3g/t gold which occurs in narrow high-grade veins within the larger and broad copper mineralization. The Elaine Inferred Mineral Resource was discovered by a drilling program based on a review of historical records. Chinalco Yunnan is currently working on a resource extension drilling program in order to attempt to at least double the resource tonnage within the next year.

In Chile, Chinalco Yunnan has a program of exploration aimed at discovering billion tonne porphyry copper systems. The Company has secured five projects, two of which are JVs with Rio Tinto at Candelabro and Caramasa that have been drill tested in recent months, with positive visual results at Candelabro. Other JVs with Rio Tinto at Palmani, with Xstrata at Humito and with Codelco at Sulfatos remain on the planned work program for early 2013. In Laos, drilling of the Juizhai and Xinzhai targets has generally been disappointing to date with the projects now subject to review. Chinalco Yunnan's Chinese vehicle, Sanmu, is currently reviewing other opportunities in the area of Laos and Southern China.

Chinalco Yunnan has investigated a number of alternative sources in relation to capital raising, but has deemed it fairest to offer existing Shareholders the opportunity to continue to invest in the business, particularly in light of the recent Share price performance. The Offer Price of $0.10 is at a slight discount (of 2.9%) to the 30-day volume weighted average price (of $0.103) prior to announcing the Offer.

The Shareholders of Chinalco Yunnan who may participate in the Offer are those who have a registered address in Australia or New Zealand and who hold Shares in Chinalco Yunnan at 7:00pm (AEDT) on 30 October 2012. Under the Offer, Chinalco Yunnan aims to raise approximately $8,667,915.40 from the issue of approximately 86,679,154 New Shares. Once all of the expenses associated with the Offer have been met, Chinalco Yunnan intends to use the balance of the money raised for working capital and exploration purposes. Further details are set out in Section 1.5 of this Prospectus.

The Offer is underwritten up to $6,934,332.30, representing 80% of the Offer and a total of 69,343,323 New Shares, by the Company's largest Shareholder, China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd (CYCAID). The underwriting means that the receipt of at least 80% of the funds sought under the Offer can be guaranteed and the Company will be able to implement its planned activities. The Company will pay CYCAID a nominal fee of $1.00 in relation to the underwriting provided.

If there is a Shortfall in the applications received from Eligible Shareholders, Eligible Shareholders who subscribe for their full Entitlement will also have the opportunity to apply for additional New Shares in the Shortfall at the same price of $0.10 each. There is no guarantee of the number of New Shares issued under a Shortfall (if any) that will be available to Eligible Shareholders and the allocation of those New Shares amongst applicants will be at the discretion of the Board of Directors of Chinalco Yunnan in accordance with the policy described in Section 3.4 of this Prospectus.

To participate in the Offer, you will need to complete the Entitlement and Acceptance Form and return it with the required Application Monies, or make an application via BPAY®, so that it is received by Chinalco Yunnan's Share Registry by 5:00pm (AEDT) on 16 November 2012 and otherwise in accordance with the instructions contained on the form. Further details of how you may accept the Offer are also set out in Section 3 of this Prospectus.

Investing in New Shares in Chinalco Yunnan involves risk. There are a number of factors, both specific to Chinalco Yunnan and of a general nature, which may affect the future operating and financial performance of Chinalco Yunnan and the value of your investment in Chinalco Yunnan. You should carefully read Section 7 of this Prospectus, which sets out in more detail some of the risks associated with an investment in New Shares. If you are unsure about subscribing for New Shares, you should first seek advice from your stockbroker, accountant, or financial or other professional adviser.

The Directors of Chinalco Yunnan who are, or whose controlled entities are, Shareholders have indicated that they intend to take up part of their Entitlements under the Offer.

Further information about the Offer and your Entitlement to participate in the Offer is set out in this Prospectus, which you should read in its entirety before deciding whether to participate in the Offer.

On behalf of the Directors, we thank you for your continued support of Chinalco Yunnan and encourage you to carefully consider this investment opportunity.

Yours faithfully

Norman Zillman

Prospectus

1. Investment overview

The information set out in this section is not intended to be comprehensive and should be read in conjunction with the full text of this Prospectus.

1.1 The Offer

This Prospectus is for the non-renounceable entitlement offer of 1 New Share at $0.10 each for every 2 Shares held by Eligible Shareholders at 7:00pm (AEDT) on the Record Date of 30 October 2012 (Offer).

Only those Eligible Shareholders with registered addresses in Australia or New Zealand are entitled to participate in the Offer and, accordingly, only those Shareholders will be entitled to subscribe for New Shares.

On the same date as announcing the Offer, the Company applied to the ASX for the New Shares to be granted Official Quotation on the ASX. Official Quotation of the New Shares is expected to occur on or about 26 November 2012.

The Directors may at any time decide to withdraw this Prospectus and the Offer of New Shares made under this Prospectus, in which case the Company will return all Application Monies (without interest) within 28 days of giving notice of such withdrawal.

1.2 New Share terms

Upon issue, each New Share will rank equally with all existing Shares then on issue. A summary of the rights and liabilities attaching to the New Shares is set out in Section 8.4.

1.3 How Eligible Shareholders can apply under the Offer

The number of New Shares to which an Eligible Shareholder is entitled and the total amount an Eligible Shareholder would have to pay if they choose to take up all of their rights to subscribe for New Shares is shown on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form accompanying this Prospectus. This Prospectus is for the information of Eligible Shareholders who are entitled and may wish to apply for the New Shares. Fractional entitlements will be rounded up to the nearest whole number.

Entitlements to New Shares can be accepted in full or in part by completing and returning the Entitlement and Acceptance Form which accompanies this Prospectus in accordance with the instructions set out below and in the Entitlement and Acceptance Form, or by making an application payment via BPAY®.

Application Monies for the New Shares must be received by the Company at its Share Registry by 5:00pm on the Closing Date of 16 November 2012. Please refer to the timetable for the important dates of the Offer. For further details of how to take up your Entitlement and apply under the Offer, please refer to Section 3.

1.4 Additional New Shares

New Shares that are not acquired by Eligible Shareholders under the Offer will be placed in a pool of shares referred to as Additional New Shares. Eligible Shareholders who have accepted their Entitlement in full may apply for Additional New Shares, in addition to their Entitlement, at the Offer Price. Directors of Chinalco Yunnan (and any other related parties of Chinalco Yunnan) are not permitted to apply for Additional New Shares but may take up their Entitlement, if any, and/or participate as an underwriter as disclosed in this Prospectus.

Prospectus

In the event that there is a Shortfall in subscriptions under the Offer, the Directors reserve the right, as contemplated within the Listing Rules and subject to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, to allocate any Shortfall of New Shares in their discretion (which may include to subscribers for Additional New Shares) so as to ensure a maximum amount of funds is raised. They will do so in a manner which will ensure that no Shareholder will, as a consequence of taking up their Entitlement or being placed with any Shortfall, hold a relevant interest in more than 19.99% of all of the Shares in Chinalco Yunnan after completion of the Offer (except as contemplated by the Underwriting Agreement).

Applications for Additional New Shares can be made by completing the Additional New Shares section of the Entitlement and Acceptance Form, in accordance with the instructions on the form, and including the consideration for these Additional New Shares with the payment for your Entitlement.

There is no guarantee that Eligible Shareholders will be successful in being allotted any of the Additional New Shares that they may apply for. The Company may reject any application for Additional New Shares or allocate fewer New Shares than applied for by subscribers for Additional New Shares. For further details regarding Additional New Shares and the Company's allocation policy for any Shortfall, please refer to Sections 2.4 and 3.4.

1.5 Purpose of the Offer and use of funds

The funds raised under the Offer (after payment of expenses in connection with the Offer) will be used to continue to develop Chinalco Yunnan's business and meet its strategic goals. More particularly, funds raised under the Offer have been earmarked for exploration activities in Chile, Australia and Laos where Chinalco Yunnan's current projects are held and working capital purposes:

Proposed use of funds	$ (m)
Exploration - Chile	3.5
Exploration - Australia	2.5
Exploration - Laos	1.0
Corporate and working capital	1.5
Costs of the Offer	0.1
Total	8.6

Chile: The Caramasa project is currently being drilled while at Palmani road access is being completed to allow drilling prior to November. The initial drill program at the Candelabro project has been completed to date discovering a mineralised porphyry of low tenor grade and with assays still pending from three holes. Once all the assay results are received a project review will be completed to plan the next steps. The Sulfatos and Humito projects are proposed to be drilled in the first half of 2013. Chinalco Yunnan will retain only the properties from these five that produce economic discoveries so as is the normal exploration process, some project rationalisation may occur mid to late 2013. In summary, most of the expenditure in Chile is for drilling programs and associated road construction required for safe access to the projects.

Australia: Chinalco Yunnan has progressed the Elaine project from initial discovery to an Inferred Mineral Resource, with JV partner Goldsearch Ltd, of 27.7Mt @ 0.53% copper and 0.08 g/t gold. Chinalco Yunnan in the next year will complete drill programs along the 8 kilometres of known strike length of the newly acquired prospective Mary Kathleen shear.

Prospectus

Laos: A review of the two projects on which initial drilling programs have been completed, Xinzhai and Juizhai, will take place for remaining prospectivity and to identify any additional targets, before any further drilling takes place.

However, in the event that circumstances change, business opportunities vary from expected, or other beneficial opportunities arise, the Directors reserve the right to vary the proposed use of funds to maximise the benefit to Shareholders.

If the full amount sought under the Offer is not obtained, it is expected that funds raised will be applied in a manner that will allow Chinalco Yunnan to maximise the value which it is anticipated will arise from the abovementioned exploration activities. If insufficient funds are raised to pursue the above strategy, and if other capital raising initiatives are not successful, then Chinalco Yunnan would evaluate alternative strategies, including mergers, joint venture or sale of projects and operational efficiencies across the business.

1.6 Directors' intentions in respect of Entitlements

As at the date of this Prospectus, the Directors of Chinalco Yunnan have either a direct or indirect interest in Shares. Set out below is a table summarising the Entitlement of each Director (based on their current holding) and how they intend to treat their Entitlements.

Director	Shares	Entitlement	Intentions
Mr Norman Zillman	12,647,195	6,323,598	Take up 2,000,000 New Shares
Mr Zhihua Yao	36,839,852 ¹	18,419,926 ¹	Refer to Section 1.7
Mr Jason Beckton	645,160	322,580	Take up 150,000 New Shares

Note 1: Mr Yao and Mr Yang are executives within Chinalco Yunnan Copper Industry (Group) Co. Ltd, which is the ultimate parent company of China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd (CYCAID). CYCAID holds the 36,839,852 Shares – please refer to Section 1.7 below for further details regarding CYCAID's shareholding and intentions with respect to its Entitlement under the Offer.

1.7 Underwriting and potential effects on control

The Offer is underwritten up to $6,934,332.30, representing 80% of the Offer and a total of 69,343,323 New Shares, by CYCAID. Details of the Underwriting Agreement are contained in Section 8.10 of this Prospectus. CYCAID currently has an interest in 36,839,852 Shares on issue (representing a 21.25% interest) and an Entitlement to 18,419,926 New Shares under the Offer. CYCAID only intends to subscribe for its Entitlement under the Offer (or part thereof) if Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements under the Offer such that CYCAID's subscription would cause it to maintain its existing interest in the Company. CYCAID will otherwise subscribe for New Shares in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement.

If CYCAID was required to subscribe for all of the New Shares it has agreed to underwrite, upon completion of the Offer (assuming that none of the existing Options on issue are exercised prior to the Record Date), CYCAID would have an interest in 106,183,175 Shares, representing 43.75% of the Shares on issue in the Company after completion of the Offer.

For further information regarding the potential effect of the Offer on control of Chinalco Yunnan, please refer to Section 6.

Prospectus

1.8 FIRB approval

1.10 Risk factors

Investing in the Company involves risk. There are factors, both specific to the Company and of a general nature, which may affect the future operating and financial performance of the Company. Some of these factors can be mitigated by appropriate commercial action. However, many are outside the control of the Company, dependent on the policies adopted and approaches taken by regulatory authorities, or cannot otherwise be mitigated. If you are unsure about subscribing for New Shares, you should first seek advice from your stockbroker, accountant, financial or other professional adviser.

The following sets out a summary of some of the key risks relevant to the Company and its operations (further details are contained in Section 7):

Prospectus

Risk	Details
Regulatory risk and government policy	The availability and rights to explore, as well as industry profitability generally, can be affected by changes in government policy that are beyond the control of Chinalco Yunnan. The relevant government departments in the countries in which Chinalco Yunnan has interests do conduct reviews from time to time of policies in connection with the granting and administration of mining tenements. At present Chinalco Yunnan is not aware of any proposed changes to policy that would affect its tenements.
Operational risks and costs	Prosperity for Chinalco Yunnan and its subsidiaries will depend largely upon an efficient and successful implementation of all the aspects of exploration, developments, business activities and management of commercial factors. Exploration has been and will continue to be hampered on occasions by unforeseen weather events, accidents, unforeseen cost changes, environmental considerations, natural events and other incidents beyond the control of Chinalco Yunnan.
Business risks	There are risks inherent in doing business, such as unexpected changes in regulatory requirements, trade barriers, longer payment cycles, problems in collecting accounts receivable, network and infrastructure issues and potentially adverse tax consequences, any of which could adversely impact on the success of Chinalco Yunnan's operations.
Contractual and joint venture risk	Chinalco Yunnan's ability to efficiently conduct its operations in a number of respects depends upon a third party product and service providers and contracts have, in some circumstances, been entered into by Chinalco Yunnan and its subsidiaries in this regard. As in any contractual relationship the ability for Chinalco Yunnan to ultimately receive benefits from these contracts are dependent upon the relevant third party complying with its contractual obligations. To the extent that such third parties default in their obligations, it may be necessary for Chinalco Yunnan to enforce its rights under any of the contracts and pursue legal action. Such legal action may be costly and no guarantee can be given by Chinalco Yunnan that a legal remedy will ultimately be granted on appropriate terms. The Company may wish to develop its projects or future projects through joint venture arrangements, while a number of the Company's projects are already the subject of joint venture arrangements. Any joint ventures entered into by, or interests in joint ventures assigned to the Company, could be affected by the failure or default of any of the joint venture participants.
Tenements	A failure to adhere to the requirements to exceed certain levels of expenditure on concessions and tenements held by Chinalco Yunnan (or its subsidiaries) in various jurisdictions may make certain concessions and tenements subject to possible forfeiture. All granted concessions and tenements are currently in good standing and, in

Risk	Details
	accordance with normal industry practice. Chinalco Yunnan surrenders some or all un-prospective parts of its concessions and tenements at the appropriate time so as to manage its minimum expenditure obligations and to retain the capacity to apply for additional prospective areas. Applications for new concessions and tenements are never certain to be granted but Chinalco Yunnan knows of no reason why any of its concession and tenement applications should not be granted in due course.
Feasibility and development risks	Given the early stage of the Company's projects, there will be a complex, multidisciplinary process to be undertaken to complete a feasibility study to support any development proposal. There is a risk that the feasibility study and associated technical works will not achieve the results expected. There is also a risk that even if a positive feasibility study is produced, the project may not be successfully developed for commercial or financial reasons.
Additional requirements for capital	Depending on the outcome of the Company's exploration programs, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under this Prospectus. Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programs. In addition, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern may be diminished. There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to secure any additional funding or be able to secure funding on terms favourable to the Company and such circumstances will adversely affect the Company.
Foreign jurisdiction risk	The Company has operations, interests and assets located in foreign jurisdictions (Chile and Laos). As a result, the Company is subject to political, economic and other uncertainties, including but not limited to changes in mining and exploration policies or the personnel administering them, nationalisation or expropriation of property, cancellation or modification of contractual rights, foreign exchange restrictions, currency exchange rate fluctuation, royalty and tax increases and other risks arising out of foreign government sovereignty over the areas in which the Company's operations are conducted. Changes in laws and regulations in foreign jurisdictions may have a significant effect on the Company's exploration operations, especially changes to environmental, mining, grant or renewal of concessions and taxation. The political conditions under which the Company currently operates are stable compared to many areas of the world, but arguably not as stable as Australia. Potential risk to the Company's activities may arise if there are changes to the political, legal and fiscal systems which might affect the ownership and operation of the Company's foreign interests. This may also include changes in exchange control regulations, expropriation of mining rights, changes

Risk	Details
	in government and in legislative and regulatory regimes.
Contractors	The Company is dependent on contractors and suppliers to supply vital services to its operations. The Company is therefore exposed to the possibility of adverse developments in the business environments of its contractors and suppliers. Any disruption to services or supply may have an adverse effect on the financial performance of the Company.
Reliance on key personnel	In formulating its exploration programs, the Company relies to a significant extent upon the experience and expertise of the Directors and management. Although information concerning the Company's tenements has been chronicled, the loss of one or more of these key personnel may adversely affect the Company's prospects of pursuing its exploration programmes within the timeframes and within the cost structure currently envisaged. Although the key personnel have a considerable amount of experience and have previously been successful in their pursuits of important prospecting discoveries, there is no guarantee or assurance that they will be successful in their objectives pursuant to this Company.
Employees	The ability of the Company to achieve its objectives depends on being able to retain certain key employees, skilled operators and tradespeople. Whilst the Company has entered into employment contracts with key employees, the retention of their services cannot be guaranteed. The loss of key employees or skilled operators and tradespeople could significantly affect the performance of the Company's operations.
Native Title risk	The Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) recognises certain rights of indigenous Australians over land where those rights have not been extinguished. These rights, where they exist, may impact on the ability of the Company to carry out exploration and in future, mining activities, or obtain exploration or mining licences in Australia. In applying for licences over crown land, the Company must observe the provisions of Native Title legislation.
Investment speculative	Potential investors should consider that an investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for New Shares.

In addition, there are a number of general risks that are common to all investments in shares and are not specific to the business model and operations of the Company. Further details regarding risks which may affect the Company in the future are set out in Section 7.

2. Details of the Offer

2.1 Offer to Eligible Shareholders

The Directors of Chinalco Yunnan have approved a non-renounceable entitlement offer of approximately 86,679,154 New Shares at $0.10 per New Share to raise approximately $8,667,915.40 (before costs of the Offer). Eligible Shareholders of Chinalco Yunnan are entitled to subscribe for 1 New Share for every 2 Shares held. Only those Eligible Shareholders shown on the share register at 7:00pm (AEDT) on the Record Date of 30 October 2012 will be entitled to participate in the Offer.

Chinalco Yunnan has applied to the ASX for the New Shares to be granted Official Quotation on the ASX. Official Quotation of the New Shares is expected to occur on or about 26 November 2012. ASX Participating Organisations (as defined in the ASX Business Rules) cannot deal in the New Shares either as principal or agent until Official Quotation is granted.

2.2 Eligible Shareholders

The Offer is open to Eligible Shareholders, that is Shareholders who are registered as at 7:00pm (AEDT) on the Record Date of 30 October 2012 with addresses in Australia and New Zealand.

Eligible Shareholders do not include Shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia and New Zealand.

2.3 Entitlement

As an Eligible Shareholder, your Entitlement will be based on a pro-rata ratio of 1 New Share for every 2 Shares held as at the Record Date. In total, up to 86,679,154 New Shares will be issued pursuant to the Offer (unless Options are exercised, as described in Section 2.14). In calculating the Entitlement, fractional entitlements to New Shares determined in respect of each holding will be rounded up to the nearest whole number of New Shares. The Offer Price for New Shares will be $0.10 per New Share.

Shareholders who take up their Entitlements in full will not have their percentage shareholding in Chinalco Yunnan diluted as a result of the Offer. The percentage shareholding in Chinalco Yunnan of Shareholders who do not take up all of their Entitlements and of Shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia and New Zealand will be diluted.

Your Entitlement is non-renounceable, which means it cannot be sold. For further details of how to take up your Entitlement and apply under the Offer, please refer to Section 3.

2.4 Additional New Shares

New Shares that are not acquired by Eligible Shareholders under the Offer will be placed in a pool of shares referred to as Additional New Shares.

Eligible Shareholders who have accepted their Entitlement in full may apply for Additional New Shares, in addition to their Entitlement, at the Offer Price. Directors of Chinalco Yunnan (and any other related parties of Chinalco Yunnan) are not permitted to apply for Additional New Shares but may take up their Entitlement, if any, and/or participate as an underwriter as disclosed in this Prospectus.

In the event that there is a Shortfall in subscriptions under the Offer, the Directors reserve the right, as contemplated within the Listing Rules and subject to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, to allocate any Shortfall of New Shares in their discretion (which may include to subscribers for Additional New Shares) so as to ensure a maximum amount of funds is raised.

Prospectus

They will do so in a manner which will ensure that no Shareholder will, as a consequence of taking up their Entitlement or being placed with any Shortfall, hold a relevant interest in more than 19.99% of all of the Shares in Chinalco Yunnan after completion of the Offer (except as contemplated by the Underwriting Agreement).

Applications for Additional New Shares can be made by completing the Additional New Shares section of the Entitlement and Acceptance Form, in accordance with the instructions on the form, and including the consideration for these Additional New Shares with the payment for your Entitlement.

There is no guarantee that Eligible Shareholders will be successful in being allotted any of the Additional New Shares that they may apply for. The Company may reject any application for Additional New Shares or allocate fewer New Shares than applied for by subscribers for Additional New Shares.

For further details regarding Additional New Shares and the Company's allocation policy for any Shortfall, please refer to Section 3.4.

2.5 Closing Date of the Offer

Applications under the Offer must be received at the Company's Share Registry by no later than 5:00pm (AEDT) on the Closing Date of 16 November 2012.

Chinalco Yunnan reserves the right, subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and any requirements of the ASX, to accept late applications or, without notice, extend the Closing Date for the Offer. If the Closing Date is varied, subsequent dates may also be varied accordingly. Unless Chinalco Yunnan decides to accept late applications or extend the Closing Date for the Offer, applications received after 5:00pm (AEDT) on the Closing Date will be rejected and Application Monies will be refunded without interest.

2.6 Underwriting

The Offer is underwritten up to $6,934,332.30, representing 80% of the Offer and a total of 69,343,323 New Shares, by China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd (CYCAID). Details of the Underwriting Agreement are contained in Section 8.10 of this Prospectus.

In respect of Additional New Shares, the allocation policy is set out in Sections 2.4 and 3.4.

Successful applicants will be notified in writing of the number of New Shares allocated to them as soon as possible following the allocation being made.

Prospectus

It is the responsibility of applicants to confirm the number of New Shares allocated to them prior to trading in New Shares. Applicants who sell New Shares before they receive notice of the number of New Shares allocated to them do so at their own risk. No New Shares will be allotted or issued on the basis of this Prospectus later than 13 months after the date of issue of this Prospectus.

2.9 ASX listing

Chinalco Yunnan has applied for the listing and quotation of the New Shares on the ASX. If granted, Official Quotation of the New Shares is expected to commence on or about 26 November 2012.

Should the New Shares under the Offer not be granted Official Quotation on the ASX within 3 months after the date of this Prospectus, none of the New Shares under this Prospectus will be issued and all Application Monies will be refunded without interest to applicants within the time prescribed by the Corporations Act.

2.10 Transaction confirmation statements

Each successful applicant under the Offer will be provided with a transaction confirmation statement which sets out the number of New Shares issued to that applicant under the Offer, and other information required by the Corporations Act.

Transaction confirmation statements for the New Shares issued under the Offer are expected to be dispatched on 26 November 2012. It is the responsibility of applicants to be sure of their respective holdings of New Shares prior to trading in them. 2.12 No rights trading

2.13 CHESS

After allotment of the New Shares, those who are issuer sponsored holders will receive an issuer sponsored statement and those who are CHESS holders will receive an allotment advice.

The CHESS statements, which are similar in style to bank account statements, will set out the number of New Shares allotted to each successful applicant pursuant to this Prospectus. The statement will also advise holders of their Holder Identification Number. Further statements will be provided to holders which reflect any changes in their holding in Chinalco Yunnan during a particular month.

2.14 Options

The Company currently has 15,200,000 unlisted Options on issue, each of which entitles the holder to subscribe for 1 Share in Chinalco Yunnan. The lowest exercise price of the Options is $0.30 and the highest is $0.40.

The terms of the Options do not permit the holders to participate in the Offer, except by exercise of the Options and thereby acquiring the underlying Shares in Chinalco Yunnan before the Record Date for the Offer. While the Company has not received any information as to whether or not, or to what extent, if any, existing Optionholders intend to convert their Options into Shares prior to the Record Date, the Directors consider that it is unlikely as the exercise price of each Option is materially higher than the price at which Shares in Chinalco Yunnan have been trading on ASX in recent times.

If all entitled existing Optionholders elect to exercise all their Options prior to the Record Date and participate in the Offer, a further 7,600,000 New Shares may be issued under this Prospectus (Option Exercise Shares). The Entitlements accruing in respect of Option Exercise Shares are not underwritten.

The terms of some of the Options provide for an adjustment in their exercise price according to a formula based on the formula in rule 6.22.2 of the Listing Rules.

The exercise price adjustment takes effect upon issue of the New Shares offered under the Offer and is, in part, dependent on the difference between the price under the Offer and the volume weighted average closing price of Chinalco Yunnan Shares sold on ASX for the 5 trading days ending on the day before the "ex-date" for the Offer. Accordingly, that market price will be determined after the "ex-date" and if there is any change to the exercise price of any Options in consequence, Chinalco Yunnan will notify ASX of the change in accordance with rule 3.1.2 of the Listing Rules.

Please refer to Section 6.2 for further details of existing Options on issue.

Chinalco Yunnan has decided that it is unreasonable to make offers under this Offer Statement to Shareholders with registered addresses outside Australia and New Zealand having regard to the small number of these Shareholders, the small number and value of the New Shares these Shareholders would be offered and the cost of complying with the legal and regulatory requirements in the relevant overseas jurisdictions. Any failure to comply with those restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws.

In particular, this Prospectus does not constitute an offer for sale of New Shares or any rights to a security into the United States or to U.S. persons (as defined for the purposes of the U.S. Securities Act 1933). The New Shares and rights have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act 1933 and must not be offered or sold within the United States or to U.S. persons unless they are registered under the US Securities Act 1933 or exemption from the registration required under the U.S. Securities Act 1933 is available.

4. Company overview

4.1 Update

Chinalco Yunnan continues to advance its Australian projects in Northwest Queensland with the release of an Inferred Mineral Resource of 27.7 Million tonnes 27.7 Mt @ 0.53% Cu Eq with a contained metal content of 147,000 tonnes of copper and 75,000 ounces of gold at its Elaine copper-cobalt-gold prospect. Work in the next year is focused on increasing resources in the Mary Kathleen fold belt.

Additional regional field programs have commenced. These programs target the Mary Kathleen shear zone, including a recently completed drillhole at "Copper Gossan" 1km SE of Elaine in the Elaine 2 area. Drill target generation is underway with drilling of the targets expected to commence in Q4 2012.

Palmani, Humito and Sulfatos are all being prepared for drill activity in sequence during 2013. Laos results have not been significant in terms of drilling some old workings at Juizhai and Xinzhai and the Chinalco Yunnan Board is reviewing this at present. The style of mineralisation is thought to be sediment hosted copper silver as per Botswana style deposits. These have not been evaluated in a bulk scale previously with only minor veins or cross cutting faults having been exploited by previous French colonial miners.

- (b) increase the number of Shares by 86,679,154 to 260,037,462, assuming a $0.10 per New Share subscription price.

If an Eligible Shareholder does not take up their Entitlement in full it will result in their percentage holding in the Company being diluted by the Offer.

6. Control issues arising from the Offer

6.1 Present position

As at the date of this Prospectus, the Directors are of the view that there is no one entity that “controls” the Company within the meaning of the Corporations Act. The largest Shareholder is China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd (CYCAID), which currently holds 36,839,852 Shares, representing 21.25% of the Shares on issue prior to the date of this Prospectus.

6.2 Capital structure

Assuming full subscription under the Offer, the share capital structure of Chinalco Yunnan immediately following the Offer (assuming the Offer is fully subscribed and no New Shares are issued on the basis of the exercise of Options prior to the Record Date) will be as follows:

	Shares
Shares on issue at the date of the Prospectus	173,358,308
Maximum number of New Shares to be issued under the Prospectus	86,679,154
Total	260,037,462

As at the date of this Prospectus, the Company has the following Options on issue:

1,600,000	$0.30	12 August 2012	12 August 2014

6.3 Potential effect of the Offer on control

The Offer is a pro-rata offer so that if all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements and none of the Optionholders exercise their existing options and participate in the Offer, the voting power of all Eligible Shareholders will remain the same. In that event, there will be no actual or potential effect or consequences arising from the Offer on the control of Chinalco Yunnan.

However, the proportional shareholdings of Shareholders who are not resident in Australia or New Zealand may be diluted as those Shareholders are not entitled to participate in the Offer. Additionally, if an Eligible Shareholder does not take up their Entitlement in full, there may be a dilutionary effect on that Shareholder’s proportional shareholdings.

The Offer is underwritten to $6,934,332.30, representing 80% of the Offer and a total of 69,343,323 New Shares, by CYCAID. CYCAID currently holds 36,839,852 Shares, representing 21.25% of the Shares on issue prior to the date of this Prospectus. CYCAID only intends to subscribe for its Entitlement under the Offer (or part thereof) if Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements under the Offer such that CYCAID’s subscription would cause it to maintain its existing interest in the Company. CYCAID will otherwise subscribe for New Shares in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement.

Depending on the take up of the Offer by existing Shareholders, the shareholding of CYCAID may increase to 106,183,175 Shares as a result of the underwriting. As a result, the voting power of CYCAID could increase from the present 21.25% to as high as 43.75%.

The following tables set out the voting power in the Company's Shares for CYCAID under various scenarios of take-up (assuming that no Options are exercised prior to the Record Date).

Scenario 1 – 100% take up

Under Scenario 1, all Eligible Shareholders take up their Entitlements under the Offer and the Offer is fully subscribed. In this case, CYCAID would maintain its existing interest in the Company.

Scenario 1 – Offer fully subscribed (and no New Shares issued)	Total for Company	CYCAID holding – CYCAID acquires its Entitlement
	Number of Shares	Number of Shares	Voting power
Shares on issue pre-Offer	173,358,308	36,839,852	21.25%
New Shares issued pursuant to the Offer	86,679,154	18,419,926
Total post-Offer	260,037,462	55,259,778	21.25%

Scenario 2 – 20% take up

Under Scenario 2, subscriptions from Eligible Shareholders (not including China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd) total 20% of the Offer and as a result China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd is required to subscribe for the remaining 80% of the Offer in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement.

Scenario 2 – Subscriptions (other than from CYCAID) total 20% of the Offer	Total for Company	CYCAID holding – CYCAID acquires 80% of New Shares pursuant to Underwriting Agreement
	Number of Shares	Number of Shares	Voting power
Shares on issue pre-Offer	173,358,308	36,839,852	21.25%
New Shares issued pursuant to the Offer	86,679,154	69,343,323
Total post-Offer	260,037,462	106,183,175	40.83%

Scenario 3 – 0% take up

Under Scenario 3, no subscriptions are received from Eligible Shareholders and as a result China Yunnan Copper (Australia) Investment and Development Co. Ltd is required to subscribe for 80% of the Offer in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement.

Prospectus

Scenario 3 – No subscriptions received for Offer (ie 80% of New Shares issued to CYCAID)	Total for Company	CYCAID holding – CYCAID acquires 80% of New Shares pursuant to Underwriting Agreement
	Number of Shares	Number of Shares	Voting power
Shares on issue pre-Offer	173,358,308	36,839,852	21.25%
New Shares issued pursuant to the Offer	69,343,323	69,343,323
Total post-Offer	242,701,631	106,183,175	43.75%

The Directors understand that, should CYCAID obtain “control” of the Company upon completion of the Offer, its present intentions are to procure that the Company will:

- (a) generally continue the business of the Company;
- (b) not make any material changes to the business of the Company; and
- (c) continue the employment of the Company’s present employees.

In addition, the Directors understand that CYCAID may in the future seek additional Board representation should its shareholding in the Company increase, in accordance with both the needs of Chinalco Yunnan at the time and the best interests of all Chinalco Yunnan Shareholders. Where appropriate, CYCAID may also assist in the search for and appointment of independent skilled people to join the Board of Chinalco Yunnan. In any case, the appointment of a Director to the Board will require the ratification by Chinalco Yunnan Shareholders and such appointments are yet to be determined.

The Directors do not expect that the potential effects on control outlined above will result in any material change to the Company’s current objectives and proposed actions.

6.4 Takeovers provisions

The Company understands that CYCAID intends to rely on the “underwriting of fundraising” exception to Section 606 of the Corporations Act (which prohibits certain acquisitions of relevant interests in a company’s voting shares) in the event that its voting power in the Company increases as outlined above.

There is another exception to the rule in Section 606 for acquisitions made under a rights issue. However, the Company understands that CYCAID does not intend to rely on the “rights issues” exception.

Prospectus

7. Risk factors

7.1 Introduction

There are risks which may impact on the operating and financial performance of the Company and, therefore, on the value of the New Shares offered under this Prospectus. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the Company's systems and internal controls, but many are outside of the control of the Company and the Board. There can be no guarantee that the Company will achieve its stated objectives or that any forward-looking statements will eventuate. An investment in a business with limited operating history, such as Chinalco Yunnan, is considered highly speculative and an investor could lose most or all of any investment. There are also general risks associated with any investment in shares.

More specifically, the risks are that:

- (a) the price at which the applicant is able to sell the New Shares is less than the price paid due to changes in market circumstances;
- (b) the applicant is unable to sell the New Shares;
- (c) the Company is placed in receivership or liquidation making it reasonably foreseeable that Shareholders could receive none, or only some of their initial investment; and
- (d) the Company fails to generate sufficient profit in order to pay dividends.

In the event of insolvency, the holders of fully paid ordinary Shares would not normally be liable to pay money to any person. An exception could occur where a distribution, such as a dividend, has been made to Shareholders in circumstances where the Company was unable at that time to meet the solvency test set out in the Corporations Act. In that case, a liquidator may call for a return of such distributions.

Potential investors should therefore carefully consider all associated risks before applying for New Shares under this Prospectus and should consider their personal circumstances (including financial and taxation issues) and seek advice from their stockbroker, accountant, solicitor or other professional advisers before deciding whether to invest.

A number of material risk factors which may adversely affect the Company and the value of the New Shares offered under this Prospectus are set out in this Section. This is not an exhaustive list and there may be other factors which have an adverse effect on the Company and the value of the Shares offered under this Prospectus.

7.2 Key risks specific to an investment in the Company

(a) Regulatory risk and government policy

The availability and rights to explore, as well as industry profitability generally, can be affected by changes in government policy that are beyond the control of Chinalco Yunnan.

The relevant government departments in the countries in which Chinalco Yunnan has interests do conduct reviews from time to time of policies in connection with the granting and administration of mining tenements. At present Chinalco Yunnan is not aware of any proposed changes to policy that would affect its tenements.

Prospectus

(b) Operational risks and costs

Prosperity for Chinalco Yunnan and its subsidiaries will depend largely upon an efficient and successful implementation of all the aspects of exploration, developments, business activities and management of commercial factors.

Exploration has been and will continue to be hampered on occasions by unforeseen weather events, accidents, unforeseen cost changes, environmental considerations, natural events and other incidents beyond the control of Chinalco Yunnan.

By its nature, the business of exploration is a highly speculative endeavour and involves significant risks. The Company's performance depends on the successful exploration and/or acquisition of Resources or Reserves, competent operational management and efficient financial management. Further, the nature of exploration can sometimes result in industrial accidents and other incidents beyond the control of the Company.

There can be no assurances that the Company's exploration programs described in this Prospectus or those relating to any projects or tenements that the Company may acquire in the future, will result in the discovery of a significant mineral target. Even if a significant target is identified, there is no guarantee that it will be viable for economic exploitation.

Ultimate success depends on the discovery and delineation of economically recoverable mineral Resources, establishment of efficient exploration operations, obtaining necessary titles and access to projects, as well as government and other regulatory approvals.

The exploration and mining activities of the Company may be affected by a number of factors, including but not limited to geological conditions, seasonal weather patterns, technical difficulties and failures, continued availability of the necessary technical equipment, plant and appropriately skilled and experienced technicians, adverse changes in government policy or legislation and access to the required level of funding.

(c) Business risks

There are risks inherent in doing business, such as unexpected changes in regulatory requirements, trade barriers, longer payment cycles, problems in collecting accounts receivable, network and infrastructure issues and potentially adverse tax consequences, any of which could adversely impact on the success of Chinalco Yunnan's operations.

(d) Contractual and joint venture risk

Chinalco Yunnan's ability to efficiently conduct its operations in a number of respects depends upon a third party product and service providers and contracts have, in some circumstances, been entered into by Chinalco Yunnan and its subsidiaries in this regard. As in any contractual relationship the ability for Chinalco Yunnan to ultimately receive benefits from these contracts are dependent upon the relevant third party complying with its contractual obligations.

To the extent that such third parties default in their obligations, it may be necessary for Chinalco Yunnan to enforce its rights under any of the contracts and pursue legal action. Such legal action may be costly and no guarantee can be given by Chinalco Yunnan that a legal remedy will ultimately be granted on appropriate terms.

The Company may wish to develop its projects or future projects through joint venture arrangements, while a number of the Company's projects are already the subject of joint venture arrangements. Any joint ventures entered into by, or interests in joint ventures assigned to the Company, could be affected by the failure or default of any of the joint venture participants.

(e) Tenements

A failure to adhere to the requirements to exceed certain levels of expenditure on concessions and tenements held by Chinalco Yunnan (or its subsidiaries) in various jurisdictions may make certain concessions and tenements subject to possible forfeiture. All granted concessions and tenements are currently in good standing and, in accordance with normal industry practice. Chinalco Yunnan surrenders some or all un-prospective parts of its concessions and tenements at the appropriate time so as to manage its minimum expenditure obligations and to retain the capacity to apply for additional prospective areas.

Applications for new concessions and tenements are never certain to be granted but Chinalco Yunnan knows of no reason why any of its concession and tenement applications should not be granted in due course.

(f) Feasibility and development risks

Given the early stage of the Company's projects, there will be a complex, multidisciplinary process to be undertaken to complete a feasibility study to support any development proposal. There is a risk that the feasibility study and associated technical works will not achieve the results expected. There is also a risk that even if a positive feasibility study is produced, the project may not be successfully developed for commercial or financial reasons.

(g) Additional requirements for capital

The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors. Depending on the outcome of the Company's exploration programs, the Company may require further financing in addition to amounts raised under this Prospectus. Any additional equity financing will dilute shareholdings and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, it may be required to reduce the scope of its operations and scale back its exploration programs. In addition, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern may be diminished.

There is no guarantee that the Company will be able to secure any additional funding or be able to secure funding on terms favourable to the Company and such circumstances will adversely affect the Company.

(h) Foreign jurisdiction risk

The Company has operations, interests and assets located in foreign jurisdictions (Chile and Laos). As a result, the Company is subject to political, economic and other uncertainties, including but not limited to changes in mining and exploration policies or the personnel administering them, nationalisation or expropriation of property, cancellation or modification of contractual rights, foreign exchange restrictions, currency exchange rate fluctuation, royalty and tax increases and other risks arising out of foreign government sovereignty over the areas in which the Company's operations are conducted.

Changes in laws and regulations in foreign jurisdictions may have a significant effect on the Company's exploration operations, especially changes to environmental, mining, grant or renewal of concessions and taxation.

Prospectus

The Company's projects in Laos and Chile are subject to the risks associated in operating in a foreign country. These risks may include economic, social or political instability or change, hyperinflation, currency non-convertibility or instability and changes of law affecting foreign ownership, government participation, taxation, working conditions, exchange control, exploration licensing, export duties, repatriation of income or return of capital, environmental protection, mine safety or labour regulations that require the employment of local staff or contractors or require other benefits to be provided to local residents.

The Company may also be hindered or prevented from enforcing its rights with respect to a governmental instrumentality because of the doctrine of sovereign immunity. Any future material adverse changes in government policies, conditions or legislation in Laos or Chile or other countries in which the Company operates that affect foreign ownership, mineral exploration, development or mining activities, may affect the viability and profitability of the Company. The legal systems operating in Laos or Chile or other countries in which the Company operates may be less developed than more established countries, which may result in risks such as:

- (1) difficulties in obtaining effective legal redress in the courts, whether in respect of a breach of law or regulation, or in an ownership dispute;
- (2) a higher degree of discretion on the part of governmental agencies;
- (3) the lack of political or administrative guidance on implementing applicable rules and regulations including, particularly in relation to local taxation and property rights;
- (4) inconsistencies or conflicts between and within various laws, regulations, decrees, orders and resolutions; and
- (5) the relative inexperience of the judiciary and courts in resolving a disputed matter.

The commitment by local business people, government officials and agencies and the judicial system to abide by legal requirements and negotiated agreements may be more uncertain, creating particular concerns with respect to licences and legal contacts. These may be susceptible to revision or cancellation and legal redress may be uncertain or delayed. There can be no assurance that joint ventures, options, tenement acquisition agreements, licences, licence applications or other legal arrangements will not be adversely affected by the actions of the government authorities, officials or others and the effectiveness of and enforcement of such arrangements cannot be assured.

The political conditions under which the Company currently operates are stable compared to many areas of the world, but arguably not as stable as Australia. Potential risk to the Company's activities may arise if there are changes to the political, legal and fiscal systems which might affect the ownership and operation of the Company's foreign interests. This may also include changes in exchange control regulations, expropriation of mining rights, changes in government and in legislative and regulatory regimes.

(i) Contractors

The Company is dependent on contractors and suppliers to supply vital services to its operations. The Company is therefore exposed to the possibility of adverse developments in the business environments of its contractors and suppliers. Any disruption to services or supply may have an adverse effect on the financial performance of the Company.

Prospectus

(j) Reliance on key personnel

In formulating its exploration programs, the Company relies to a significant extent upon the experience and expertise of the Directors and management.

These persons possess knowledge of many of the Company's tenements through extensive personal experience of prospecting in those areas.

Although information concerning the Company's tenements has been chronicled, the loss of one or more of these key personnel may adversely affect the Company's prospects of pursuing its exploration programmes within the timeframes and within the cost structure currently envisaged.

Although the key personnel have a considerable amount of experience and have previously been successful in their pursuits of important prospecting discoveries, there is no guarantee or assurance that they will be successful in their objectives pursuant to this Company.

(k) Employees

The ability of the Company to achieve its objectives depends on being able to retain certain key employees, skilled operators and tradespeople. Whilst the Company has entered into employment contracts with key employees, the retention of their services cannot be guaranteed. The loss of key employees or skilled operators and tradespeople could significantly affect the performance of the Company's operations.

(l) Native Title risk

The Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) recognises certain rights of indigenous Australians over land where those rights have not been extinguished. These rights, where they exist, may impact on the ability of the Company to carry out exploration and in future, mining activities, or obtain exploration or mining licences in Australia. In applying for licences over crown land, the Company must observe the provisions of Native Title legislation.

In carrying out exploration and/or mining operations, the Company must observe Native Title legislation (where applicable), Aboriginal heritage legislation and heritage legislation which protects sites and objects of significance and these may delay or impact adversely on the Company's operations in Australia.

7.3 General risks

(a) Share market investments

The New Shares are to be quoted on the ASX, where their price may rise or fall in relation to the Offer Price. The New Shares carry no guarantee in respect of profitability, dividends or return of capital, or the price at which they may trade on the ASX. The value of the Shares will be subject to the ASX market and hence a range of factors outside of the control of the Company and the Directors and officers of the Company. Such factors include the demand for and availability of Shares, movements in domestic and international interest rates and inflation rates, economic conditions and general economic outlook, exchange rates, fluctuations in the Australian and international share markets, taxation, government and monetary policies and demand and supply for capital. Returns from an investment in the New Shares offered under this Prospectus may also depend on general share market conditions, as well as the performance of the Company. Investors who decide to sell their New Shares may not receive the entire amount of their original investment. There can be no guarantee that an active market in the Shares will develop or that the price of the New Shares will increase.

Prospectus

(b) General economic conditions

Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, supply and demand, industrial disruption, government policy and legislation have an impact on operating costs, commodity prices, and the parameters in which the Company operates. Factors that may be beyond the control of the Company include:

- (1) general economic conditions in Australia and its trading partners and, in particular, inflation rates, interest rates, exchange rates, commodity supply and demand factors;
- (2) financial failure or default by a participant in any of the joint ventures or other contractual relationship to which the Company is, or may become, a party;
- (3) insolvency or other managerial failure by any of the contractors used by the Company in its activities; and
- (4) industrial disputes.

These as well as other conditions can affect the Company's future revenues and profitability and the price of its securities.

(c) Industrial risk

Industrial disruptions, work stoppages and accidents in the course of the Company's operations could result in losses and delays, which may adversely affect profitability.

(d) Management actions

The Directors will, to the best of their knowledge, experience and ability (in conjunction with management) endeavour to anticipate, identify and manage the risks inherent in the activities of the Company, but without assuming any personal liability for same, with the aim of eliminating, avoiding and mitigating the impact of risks on the performance of the Company and its securities.

(e) Government policy and legislative changes

Capacity to explore and mine, as well as industry profitability generally, can be affected by changes in government policy that are beyond the control of the Company and which may materially adversely affect the Company and the value of its securities.

(f) Taxation

In all places where the Company has operations, in addition to the normal level of income tax imposed on all industries, the Company may be required to pay government royalties, indirect taxes, goods and services tax and other imposts which generally relate to revenue or cash flows. Industry profitability can be affected by changes in government taxation policies.

Minerals Resource Rent Tax

The Federal Government has introduced a Minerals Resource Rent Tax (MRRT) on coal, iron ore and some gas projects in Australia, which will broadly tax MRRT assessable profits at a rate of 30%.

The Minerals Resource Rent Tax Bill 2011 passed through the House of Representatives on 22 November 2011 and applies from 1 July 2012.

Prospectus

Clean Energy Act 2011 (Cth)

In addition, the Australian Federal Government has introduced the Clean Energy Act 2011 (Cth) (CEA), which is designed to implement a carbon tax. The broad intent of the CEA is to impose a form of carbon tax on the major carbon emitters in Australia, who will be required to pay for their emissions. It is expected that the CEA will also indirectly lead to increased costs for other companies in the resource and exploration industry. At this preliminary stage of the implementation of the CEA, it is difficult to ascertain whether the scheme will negatively impact the operations of the Company.

It is possible that both the introduction of the MRRT and implementation of the CEA may adversely impact on the Company in the event that the Company commences commercial mining operations in Australia.

It is also possible future policy and legislative changes will adversely affect the mining industry and participants in it, including the Company.

(g) Commodity price risks

The Company's prospects and Share price will be influenced by the price obtained from time to time for the commodities targeted in its exploration programs. Commodity prices fluctuate and are affected by factors including the relationship between global supply and demand for minerals, forward selling by producers, costs of production and general global economic conditions.

Commodity prices are also affected by the outlook for inflation, interest rates, currency exchange rates and supply and demand factors. These factors may have an adverse effect on the Company's exploration and any subsequent development and production activities, as well as its ability to fund its future activities.

(h) Foreign exchange

Foreign exchange rates fluctuate over time. Fluctuating exchange rates have a direct effect on the Company's operating costs and cash flows expressed in Australian dollars. The Company does not currently have any formal currency hedging in place, which means that adverse changes to foreign exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company and its business.

(i) Environmental risks

The Company's projects are subject to laws and regulations in relation to environmental matters. As a result, there is the risk that the Company may incur liability under these laws and regulations. The Company proposes to comply with applicable laws and regulations and conduct its programs in a responsible manner with regard to the environment.

7.4 Speculative nature of investment

The above list of risk factors is not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by Shareholders in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the New Shares offered under this Prospectus.

Accordingly, the New Shares to be issued pursuant to this Prospectus carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns, returns of capital or market value at any time. Shareholders should consider that an investment in the Company is highly speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to take up their Entitlement.
