

China Comservice Ranked as One of "the Most Promising Companies 2009" by the Asset

China Communications Services Corporation Limited ranked the third in telecom industry category in the award for The Most Promising Companies 2009 organized by the authoritative financial magazine The Asset.

There were 300 listed Chinese enterprises from 20 industries participated in the contest of this year. The Award has a judging panel made up of professional investors and financial analysts to select enterprises based on various aspects, including profitability, quality of management, standard of corporate governance, treatment of minority shareholders and effectiveness of investor relations.

The honoring indicates that the continuously efforts of the Company over the years to maximize returns of our shareholders, and the Company's vision are highly recognized by the capital market.

