THE AMENDMENT DEED

The Board announces that on 25 March 2014, the Company entered into the Amendment Deed with each of the Noteholders whereby the parties agreed to the Amendments as follows:–

1. the Maturity Date of the Outstanding Convertible Notes shall be extended from 15 April 2014 to 15 April 2016; and
2. the interest to be accrued on the outstanding principal of the Convertible Notes for the period from 16 April 2014 to 15 April 2016 shall be payable annually (as opposed to semi-annually under the existing terms and conditions of the Convertible Notes).

Save as the above mentioned amendments, each and every term and condition under the Outstanding Convertible Notes shall remain unchanged and valid.

To avoid any changes to be made to the register of the Noteholders prior to the Amendments becoming unconditional, it is stipulated in the Amendment Deed that the Noteholders could not transfer any of the Convertible Notes from execution of the Amendment Deed to the Effective Date.

To the best of the Director's knowledge, information and belief having made all reasonable enquiries, the Noteholders are third parties independent of and not connected with the Company and its connected persons.

The Amendments are conditional upon:

1. passing of resolution by the Shareholders approving, authorising and ratifying the entering into of the Amendment Deed and performance by the Company of all transactions contemplated thereunder at the SGM;
2. approval from the Stock Exchange of the Amendments in accordance with Rule 28.05 of the Listing Rules; and
3. the Listing Committee granting listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares to be issued pursuant to the Convertible Notes as amended by the Amendment Deed.

The Amendment Deed was arrived at after arms length negotiation between the Company and the Noteholders.

If any of the conditions precedent set out in the Amendment Deed are not fulfilled on or before 31 May 2014 or such later date as may be agreed between the Noteholders and the Company, the Amendment Deed will lapse and become null and void and the parties thereto will be released from all obligations thereunder, save the liabilities for any antecedent breaches thereof.

Given the conditions precedent may not take place before the Existing Maturity Date, the Noteholders have agreed to, jointly or severally, irrevocably waive all their rights (if any), whether contractual or otherwise, to bring any claim and/or commence any proceedings against the Company for any remedies and/or reliefs for any breach of the Terms and Conditions committed by the Company in connection with the expiry of the Existing Maturity Date during the period from the Existing Maturity Date up to and inclusive of 31 May 2014. In the event that the Amendment Deed becomes unconditional after the Existing Maturity Date, the Amendments are deemed to be effective from the Existing Maturity Date.

An application will be made to the Listing Committee for approval of the Amendments in accordance with Rule 28.05 of the Listing Rules and for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Conversion Shares to be issued pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Convertible Notes as amended by the Amendment Deed.

As at the date of this announcement, the Outstanding Convertible Notes are convertible into 1,022,727,272 Shares at a conversion price of HK$0.22 per Share, representing approximately 22.72% of the existing issued share capital of the Company and approximately 18.51% of the enlarged share capital of the Company assuming that the Outstanding Convertible Notes are converted in full and no change in the shareholding structure of the Company. Such Conversion Shares may be issued upon exercise of the conversion right of the Convertible Notes pursuant to a specific mandate to be sought at the SGM.

The Directors consider that the terms of the Amendment Deed are fair and reasonable and the Extension is in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.
