

CPID Signs Strategic Cooperation Agreement with Qingyuan Municipal People's Government

On December 27, 2021, Mr. Fu Jinsong, Vice President and Acting Chairman of Labor Union of CPID, attended a forum on cooperation and development between Qingyuan City and enterprises under the Central Government or provincial government and the signing ceremony of strategic cooperation agreement.

Mr. Fu Jinsong introduced CPID's new strategy of "Lower Carbon Empower Better Life" and the development route of new energy industry of CPID, and highly praised the favorable natural and business environment of Qingyuan City, hoping to reach more and deeper cooperation with Qingyuan City. Afterwards, Mr. Fu signed a strategic cooperation agreement with Qingyuan City on behalf of CPID, and both sides reached an investment framework intention on five aspects, including jointly building a high-quality modern intelligent agricultural production base, jointly promoting the electrification of Qingyuan City's transportation and logistics, investing in new energy bases, promoting the ecological restoration and reconstruction of mines, and promoting the construction of a modern zero-carbon integrated smart energy system.

Mr. Li Cheng, Director of State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of Guangdong Province, Mr. Yin Zhaoju, Secretary of Qingyuan Municipal Party Committee, and Mr. Wen Wenxing, Deputy Secretary of Qingyuan Municipal Party Committee and Mayor of Qingyuan City, attended the event.