AUDIT COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

I. OBJECTIVE

The Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (the “Company”) is to assist the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) in (i) ensuring that effective risk management and internal control systems in compliance with the Company’s obligations (including external financial reporting obligations) under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited as modified from time to time (the “Listing Rules”) and applicable laws and regulations are in place; and (ii) overseeing the integrity of the financial statements of the Company.

The Committee shall also be directly responsible on behalf of the Board for (i) the selection, oversight and remuneration of the Company’s external auditor (the “Auditor”), (ii) the assessment of the independence and qualifications of the Auditor, and (iii) the oversight of the performance of the Company’s internal audit function and the Auditor.

II. MEMBERSHIP

- A. The Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall comprise a minimum of three Non-executive Directors.
- B. The majority of the members of the Committee (the “Members”) shall be Independent Non-executive Directors, at least one of whom has to be an Independent Non-executive Director with appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise as required under rule 3.10(2) of the Listing Rules.

- C. The chairman of the Committee (the “Chairman”) shall be appointed by the Board and must be an Independent Non-executive Director.
- D. All Members are appointed by the Board and can be removed by the Board at its sole discretion. The Board may from time to time vary the composition of the Committee as may be required by the Listing Rules or the rules of any other stock exchange in respect of which the shares of the Company are listed or quoted, or other codes, rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission or any other applicable regulatory authority from time to time (the “Applicable Rules”).
- E. A former partner of the existing auditing firm of the Company is prohibited from acting as a Member for a period of two (2) years commencing on the later of (a) the date of his ceasing to be a partner of the firm; and (b) the date of his ceasing to have any financial interest in the firm.
- F. The Company Secretary of the Company or his/her delegate shall be the secretary of the Committee.

III. AUTHORITY

- A. The Committee shall report directly to the Board on its decisions or recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on its ability to do so (such as a restriction on disclosure due to regulatory requirements).
- B. The Committee is authorised to inspect all accounts, books and records of the Company and the Committee shall have the right to require the management of the Company to furnish all information requested by the Committee as may be required for the purposes of discharging its duties.
- C. The Committee is authorised to obtain external legal and other independent professional advice and to secure the assistance from external parties with relevant experience and expertise where it considers necessary. The Committee shall have the sole authority to approve all reasonable related fees and terms of engagement.
- D. The Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties.

IV. DUTIES

The duties of the Committee shall include the following aspects:

A. Relationship with the Company's external auditor

1. to be primarily responsible for making recommendation to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the Auditor, and to approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the Auditor, and any questions of resignation or dismissal of the Auditor;
2. to act as the key representative body for overseeing the relations of the Company with the Auditor and the external auditor;
3. to review and monitor the independence and objectivity of the Auditor, including to:
  - (a) consider all relationships between the Company and the audit firm;
  - (b) obtain from the audit firm, on an annual basis, information about policies and processes for maintaining independence and monitoring compliance with relevant requirements, including those for rotation of audit partners and staff; and
  - (c) meet with the Auditor, at least annually, in the absence of management of the Company, to discuss matters relating to the audit fees, any issues arising from the audit and any other matters the Auditor or the Committee may wish to raise;
4. to review and monitor the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards. The Committee shall discuss with the Auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences;
5. to develop and implement policy on the engagement of external auditor to supply non-audit services. For this purpose, "external auditor" includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party having knowledge of all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally;

6. to be primarily responsible for making recommendation to the Board for the approval of any non-audit services provided to the Company by the external auditor. The Committee should ensure that the provision of such non-audit services would not impair the external auditor's independence or objectivity having taken into account the following matters:
  - (a) whether the skills and experience of the audit firm make it a suitable supplier of such non-audit services;
  - (b) whether there are safeguards in place to ensure that there is no threat to the objectivity and independence of the external auditor notwithstanding its proposed provision of the non-audit services;
  - (c) the nature of the non-audit services, the related fee levels and the individual and aggregate fee levels relative to the audit firm; and
  - (d) the criteria for determining the compensation of the individuals performing the non-audit services; and
7. to set policies on hiring employees or former employees of the Auditor and the external auditors and monitoring the application of these policies.

B. Review of financial information of the Company

1. to monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the Company and the annual report and accounts and half-year report and accounts of the Company, to discuss such annual report and audited accounts and half-year report and accounts with management and the Auditor, and to review significant financial reporting judgments contained in them. In reviewing these reports and accounts of the Company before submission to the Board, the Committee shall focus particularly on:
  - (a) financial reporting and accounting policies and practices and any subsequent changes;
  - (b) major judgmental areas;
  - (c) significant adjustments resulting from audit;
  - (d) the going concern assumptions and any qualifications;
  - (e) compliance with accounting standards; and
  - (f) compliance with the Listing Rules, the Applicable Rules and legal requirements in relation to financial reporting;

2. with regard to the preparation of the reports and accounts referred to above, to liaise with the Board and senior management and to meet, at least twice a year, with the Auditor; and
3. to consider any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in the reports and accounts referred to above, and to give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the staff responsible for the accounting and financial reporting function, compliance officer or the Auditor.

C. Oversight of the Company's financial reporting system, risk management and internal control systems

1. to review the group's financial and accounting policies and practices;
2. to review the financial controls, and the risk management and internal control systems of the Company with particular regard to their effectiveness;
3. to discuss the risk management and internal control systems with management of the Company to ensure that management has discharged its duty to have effective systems. This discussion should include:
  - (a) the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budget of the Company's accounting, internal audit and financial reporting functions;
  - (b) the changes in the nature and extent of significant risks, and the Company's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment;
  - (c) the scope and quality of management's ongoing monitoring of risks and of the internal control systems, and the work of its internal audit function;
  - (d) the extent and frequency of communication of monitoring results to the Board which enables it to assess control of the Company and the effectiveness of risk management; and
  - (e) significant control failings or weaknesses that have been identified. Also, the extent to which they have resulted in unforeseen outcomes or contingencies that have had, could have had, or may in the future have, a material impact on the Company's financial performance or condition;

4. to consider major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters as delegated by the Board or on its own initiative and the response of management of the Company to these findings;
5. where an internal audit function exists, to ensure co-ordination between the Auditor, the internal auditor and external auditors, to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and to review and monitor the effectiveness of the internal audit function, and to meet with the head of internal audit at least once each year to ensure that there are no unresolved issues or concerns;
6. to review the statement of the Company on risk management and internal control systems prior to endorsement by the Board;
7. to discuss any problems and reservations which the Auditor may have arising from the interim and final audits, and any interim audits or otherwise, and any response of management in connection therewith;
8. to review the management letter of the Auditor, any material queries raised by the Auditor to management of the Company in respect of the accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and the response of management of the Company;
9. to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the management letter of the Auditor; and
10. to review arrangements for employees of the Company to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters, and to ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters and for appropriate follow-up action.

D. Corporate Governance delegated by the Board

To ensure the upheld of good corporate governance including, but not limited to:

1. to develop and review the policies and practices of the Company on corporate governance and make recommendations to the Board;

2. to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of Directors and senior management;
3. to review and monitor the policies and practices of the Company on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
4. to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) applicable to the Directors and employees; and
5. to review the compliance by the Company with the Corporate Governance Code (Appendix 14 to the Listing Rules) and the disclosure requirements for the Corporate Governance Report.

E. Other duties

1. to ensure the Company's practices and procedures with respect to related party transactions are adequate for compliance with the requirements under the Listing Rules and the Applicable Rules;
2. to review from time to time as appropriate these Terms of Reference and recommend to the Board any necessary changes;
3. to report to the Board on the matters in these Terms of Reference and where the monitoring activities of the Committee reveal cause for concern or scope for improvement, the Committee shall make recommendations to the Board to address the issue or to make improvements;
4. to provide to the Board such assurances as it may reasonably require regarding compliance by the Company's subsidiaries and associates for which the Company provides management services with all supervisory and other regulations to which they are subject; and
5. to consider other topics or matters, as defined or referred to the Committee by the Board.

V. MEETINGS

A. Frequency

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year. Additional meetings may be held as and when the Committee or the Auditor shall see fit.

B. Notice

Notice of any meetings of the Committee has to be given at least 14 days prior to any such meeting being held, unless all Members unanimously waive such notice. Irrespective of the length of notice being given, attendance of a meeting by a Member shall be deemed waiver of the requisite length of notice by such Member. The requisite notice period is not required if a Committee meeting is adjourned for less than 14 days.
