

Press release

HGC and 3 Hong Kong are the only local telecoms players to win honours in the International Business Awards section of the Stevie Awards 2014

Hong Kong, 28 August 2014 - Hutchison Global Communications Limited (HGC), the fixed-line division of Hutchison Telecommunications Hong Kong Holdings Limited (HTHKH, the Group. Stock code: 215) and 3 Hong Kong, the Group's mobile arm, have each won a Bronze Stevie® Award. This was achieved in the "Best New Product or Service of the Year - Telecommunications - Service" category of the International Business Awards (IBA), which form part of the Stevie Awards.

HGC was honoured in recognition of its Application and Content Provider (ACP) Solution, while the 3 Citi Wallet mobile wallet service was the reason for 3 Hong Kong's success in the awards scheme.

The IBA featured 11 categories this year, attracting more than 3,500 entries from more than 60 nations and regions - but HTHKH was the only Hong Kong telecoms organisation to win awards in the prestigious scheme.

HGC's ACP Solution

This solution extended global coverage and increased customer numbers for a widely-known over-the-top player. The one-stop bundle includes hosting, colocation and network solutions, along with HGC's extensive local and international network capabilities, plus cloud and data centre services. The ACP Solution provides organisations with a solid network foundation and comprehensive IT services to handle ever-rising demand for data transmission capacity, while boosting cost-efficiency.

3 Citi Wallet mobile wallet service

3 Hong Kong and Citibank Hong Kong harnessed Near Field Communication technology to develop this innovative mobile wallet service. Features include mobile payment, transaction history, special offers and a location-based search function that directs users to the nearest hot deals. 3 Citi Wallet is compatible with a variety of smartphones and supports the Android and iOS operating systems. From today until 31 October 2014, customers can opt for 12 months' free trial of the service to experience a new era of shopping convenience. Terms and conditions apply.
