PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

The following summaries certain of the principal terms of the Convertible Bonds:

Principal amount of the Convertible Bonds:

HK$44,000,000.

Authorised denomination for issue, transfer and conversion:

HK$1,000,000.

Maturity Date:

Three (3) years from the relevant date of issue.

Conversion Period:

The Bondholders will be able to convert the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds in whole or in part into Shares at any time from the date of issue until the Maturity Date under the Specific Mandate.

Conversion Price:

Initially set at HK$0.305 per Conversion Share, subject to customary adjustments in certain events, including share consolidation, share subdivision, capitalisation issues, capital distribution, rights issue and issues of other securities below 80 per cent of market price.

Interest:

Six (6) per cent per annum payable annually in arrears.

The Bondholders shall have the option (the “Interest Payment Option”) to request the Company to pay the interest by the Additional Shares instead of cash by giving at least 7 days’ notice prior to the due date for payment of such interest, subject to redemption of the Convertible Bonds by the Company on or prior to such interest payment date. In such event, the amount of interest payable shall be deemed to be part of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds (the “Relevant Interest Payment”) (for the purpose of calculating number of Shares it will be convertible into) and convertible into Shares at the Conversion Price in accordance with the terms of the Convertible Bonds. The Relevant Interest Payment will not be subject to any interest. Assuming no part of the Convertible Bonds are converted prior to the Maturity Date, maximum amount of interest of the Convertible Bonds will be approximately HK$7,920,000. Based on the Conversion Price of HK$0.305 and assuming there is no adjustment to the Conversion Price, a maximum of 25,967,213 Additional Shares will be issued, representing approximately 2.3% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this announcement and approximately 2.0% of the Company’s issued share capital as enlarged by the issue of the Conversion Shares and the Additional Shares (assuming there is no change in the issued share capital of the Company from the date of this announcement and up to the date on which the conversion rights are exercised in full). The Additional Shares will be issued under the Specific Mandate.

Pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Bonds, exercise of the Interest Payment Options will result in the Relevant Interest Payment, where such amount will be deemed to be part of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds (for the purpose of calculating number of Shares it will be convertible into). According to the terms of the Convertible Bonds, the Relevant Interest Payment are convertible into the Additional Shares at the Conversion Price. In addition, conversion of the Relevant Interest Payment into Additional Shares will also be subject to the conversion restriction of the Convertible Bonds as described in the paragraph headed “Conversion restriction” below.

For the avoidance of doubt, conversion of the Relevant Interest Payment into the Additional Shares will only take place as long as (i) the public float of at least 25 per cent of the issued share capital of the Company as enlarged by the issue of the Additional Shares can be maintained; and (ii) it does not trigger a mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26 of the Takeovers Code on the part of the Bondholders and any parties acting in concert with it (as defined under the Takeovers Code).

The Directors are of the view that the Interest Payment Option will provide the Group with an opportunity to avoid immediate cash outlay in respect of the interest payment to be made to the Bondholders if the Bondholders exercise the Interest Payment Option. In addition, upon exercise of the Interest Payment Option by Bondholders, it will strengthen the capital base and broaden the shareholder base of the Group. In this connection, the Directors consider that the Interest Payment Option is in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Transferability:

The Convertible Bonds is fully transferable after the first anniversary of the date of issue in respect of the whole or any part (in an authorised amount) of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds in integral multiples of HK$1,000,000 except that the Convertible Bonds may not be transferred to any connected person of the Company without written consent of the Company.

Voting:

The Bondholders will not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company by reason only of them being the Bondholders.

Listing:

No application will be made for the listing of the Convertible Bonds on the Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange.

Application will be made by the Company for the listing of, and permission to deal in, (i) the Conversion Shares to be issued upon the exercise of the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds; and (ii) the Additional Shares.

Ranking:

The Conversion Shares and Additional Shares allotted and issued on conversion will be fully paid and will rank pari passu in all respects with, and within the same class, as the Shares in issue on the Conversion Date, except that the Conversion Shares and/or Additional Shares so allotted will not rank for any dividend or other distribution declared or paid or made by reference to a record date for the payment of a dividend or other distribution with respect to the Shares on or prior to the Registration Date in respect of the Convertible Bonds converted into such Conversion Shares and/or the exercise of the Interest Payment Option.

Conversion restriction:

The conversion rights shall only be exercisable so long as:

- (i) in the opinion of the Company, the public float of at least 25 per cent of the issued share capital of the Company as enlarged by the issue of Conversion Shares can be maintained; and
- (ii) it does not trigger a mandatory offer obligation under Rule 26 of the Takeovers Code on the part of the Bondholders and any parties acting in concert with it (as defined under the Takeovers Code).

Redemption:

The Convertible Bonds may be redeemed at 100% of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds (in whole or in part) at any time and from time to time at the option of the Company prior to the Maturity Date provided that the Company shall have given to the Bondholders not less than seven (7) Business Days' prior notice of its intention to make such redemption, specifying the amount to be redeemed and the date of such redemption.

Upon maturity of the Convertible Bonds, the Company intends to repay the Convertible Bonds by its internal resources. The Company will consider other means of fund raising, including but not limited to bank borrowings and equity fund raising, if no sufficient fund is available at the time of repayment of the Convertible Bonds.

Events of Default

The Conversion Price was determined with reference to the prevailing market price of the Shares, the continuous loss-making track record, capital deficiency for the last three consecutive financial years, the current par value of HK$0.0004 and the net liability position of approximately HK$0.20 per Share as per the unaudited financial statements for the nine months ended 31 December 2016 of the Group, and was negotiated on an arm’s length commercial basis between the Company and the Lender.

INFORMATION OF THE GROUP

The Group is principally engaged in provision of digital television services in the PRC, provision of car beauty services and money lending business in Hong Kong.

REASONS FOR THE ISSUE OF THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

The Loan was overdue by a year since the Repayment Date. As at 31 December 2016, the Group recorded net current liabilities and net liabilities of approximately HK$95.4 million and approximately HK$222.6 million respectively.

Given that the issue of Convertible Bonds is proposed as full settlement of the Outstanding Sums which are overdue, no cash proceeds will be received by the Company in connection with such issue. The Directors consider that the issue of Convertible Bonds with a three-year maturity period could slow down the pace of cash outflow of the Company to repay the overdue Outstanding Sums which could eventually strengthen the working capital position of the Group to maintain more sufficient internal resources for the Group's daily operation and future business development. The Directors consider that the issue of the Convertible Bonds does not have an immediate dilution effect on the shareholding of the Company. The Directors also consider that the issue of the Convertible Bonds will provide an opportunity for the Company to further enlarge and strengthen its capital base upon exercise of the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds.

Having considered the above reasons, the Directors consider that the terms of the Deed (including the interest rate of the Convertible Bonds and the Conversion Price) are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
