Article 43

Various parts of the register of shareholders shall not be duplicate. When a part of the shares in the register is being transferred, such shares shall not be registered in other parts of the register during the transfer period.

(mandatory
37)

The amendment and correction of various parts of the register shall be undertaken according to the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is kept.

Article 44 All fully paid overseas listed foreign shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange may be freely transferred according to the Articles of Association. However, unless the following requirements are met, the board of directors may refuse the recognition of any transfer document without any need to provide any explanation:

- (1) HK$2.50 transfer fee is paid to the Company, or a higher fee agreed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, for the registration of the transfer of shares and other documents relating to or affecting ownership;
- (2) The transfer document only concerns overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (3) The stamp duty on the transfer document required by laws of Hong Kong is fully paid;
- (4) The proof of transferor having the right to transfer the relevant shares and the proof for the reasonable requirement of the board of directors shall be provided;
- (5) If the shares are intended to be transferred to joint shareholders, the number of joint shareholders shall not exceed four; and
- (6) There is no lien on the shares being transferred.

Where the board of directors refuses to register the share transfer, the Company shall deliver the notice of refusing to register such share transfer to the transferor and transferee within two months after the date of formal application of share transfer.

No shares can be transferred to minors or mentally incompetent or other legally incapable persons.

Article 45 Within thirty (30) days of the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, or five (5) days prior to the book close closing date for distribution of dividends, no registration is permitted in the register of shareholders for any change to the register as a result of share transfer. (mandatory 38)

Article 46 The board of directors shall fix a date for the confirmation of share ownership, when the company convenes the shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, conducts liquidation, or carries out other activities requiring the confirmation of share ownership. At the end of the date of confirmation, the shareholders in the register shall be the Company's shareholders. (mandatory 39)

Article 47 Any person who wishes to register or delete his name from the register because of his difference of opinion on the register of shareholders may apply to the court within the jurisdiction of the register for verification. (mandatory 40)

Any shareholder who has registered or requested to register his name on the register of shareholders loses his share certificates (the original shares), may apply to the Company for replacement by new share certificates of such shares (the relevant shares). (mandatory 41)

Shareholders of domestic shares who lose their share certificates shall apply for replacement according to the regulations of Article 143 of the “Company Law.”

Shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares who lose their share certificates shall apply for replacement according to the laws of where the register of shareholders is located, the regulations of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

The application for replacement of lost share certificates, by the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares listing in Hong Kong, shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit the application using the standard form designated by the Company and enclose notarial or other legal declaration documents. The contents of the notarial or other legal declaration documents shall include the reasons for the application, the circumstances leading to the loss of share certificates and proof thereof, and the declaration that no other person may request to register as shareholders for the relevant shares;
- (2) No request has been received by the Company to register as shareholders for these shares other than the applicant before the Company decides to issue new share certificates for replacement;
- (3) After deciding to issue new share certificates to the applicant for replacement, the Company shall place an announcement for reissuing new shares in the newspapers designated by the board of directors. The period of the announcement is ninety (90) days. The announcement shall be published again every thirty (30) days;
- (4) Prior to publishing announcement for reissuing new shares, the Company shall submit a copy of the draft of the announcement to its listing stock exchange. After receiving a reply from the stock exchange confirming that the announcement has been posted in the stock exchange, the Company may publish the announcement. The announcement will be posted in the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days. If the application of reissuing share certificates has not been approved by the registered shareholder of the related shares, the Company shall send by mail a copy of the draft of the announcement to that registered shareholder;

- (5) After the expiration of the ninety (90) day notice period for announcements in sections (3) and (4) of this article, and no disagreement is received by the Company for the replacement of lost shares from any person, the Company may reissue new share certificates based on the applicant's information;
- (6) When the Company issues new share certificates according to the regulation of this article, it shall cancel the original shares immediately. The cancellation and the reissue shall be recorded in the register of shareholders;
- (7) All the expenses incurred by the Company in canceling lost shares and issuing new share certificates are borne by the applicant. The Company has the right to decline to take any action before the applicant can provide reasonable surety; and
- (8) The publication of announcement for reissuing share certificates in section 3 shall include at least one Chinese and one English newspaper in Hong Kong.

Article 49 The names of the purchasers in good faith of the above-mentioned new shares, reissued by the Company according to regulation of the Articles of Association, and all shareholders who registered as owners of these shares thereafter (when purchased in good faith), shall not be deleted from the register of shareholders. (mandatory 42)

Article 50 The Company has no obligation to indemnify any person who suffers any loss resulting from the cancellation of original share certificates or reissue of share certificates, unless the person can prove that the Company has committed a fraudulent act. (mandatory 43)

CHAPTER 7 RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 51 A shareholder of the Company is the person who holds the Company's shares legally and whose name is recorded in the register of shareholders. (mandatory 44)

Shareholders' share rights and obligations are based on the class and number of shares held. Shareholders holding the same class of shares enjoy equal rights and bear the same obligations.

When two or more persons register as joint holders of any shares, they shall be considered as joint holders of the relevant shares, but subject to the following restrictions:

- (1) The Company is not obligated to record the names of more than four joint holders;
- (2) All joint holders of shares must jointly and severally be responsible for the subscription monies due for the shares;

- (3) If one of the joint holders is deceased, only the remaining joint holders shall be considered as owners of the relevant shares. However, the board of directors has the right to request the relevant and deemed appropriate proof of death certificates for the deceased shareholder to make changes in the register of shareholders;
- (4) For any shares held by joint holders, only the first holder among the joint holders in the register of shareholders has the right to collect the relevant share certificates from the Company, receive notices from the Company, attend the shareholders' general meetings, and exercise all the voting rights of the relevant shares. Any notice to the above-mentioned person shall be considered as sufficient to all the joint holders for the relevant shares.

Article 52

Common share shareholders have the following rights:

(mandatory
45)

- (1) Receive dividend and other kinds of distribution according to the number of shares held;
- (2) Request, convene, preside, attend or appoint nominees to attend shareholders' general meetings according to the law, and exercise voting rights;
- (3) Supervise the Company's business operating activities; propose suggestions or make inquiries;
- (4) Transfer, donate or pledge shares held according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (5) Receive the following information according to the Articles of Association, including:
 1. Receive the Articles of Association after payment of subscription monies;
 2. After payment of reasonable fees, obtain the right to inquire and photocopy:
 - i. The register of shareholders of all classes;

- ii. Personal information of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management personnel, including:
 - (a) Present and past names including alias;
 - (b) Principal address (residential);
 - (c) Nationality;
 - (d) Major job position and all other part-time positions, duties; and
 - (e) Personal identity document and its number;
 - iii. Condition of share capital;
 - iv. From the previous accounting year the total face value, quantities, highest and lowest prices of every class of shares repurchased by the Company, and report of all the expenses paid by the Company therefor;
 - v. Minutes of shareholders' general meetings and resolutions of board of directors' meetings and meetings of the supervisory committee;
 - vi. Corporate bonds stubs; and
 - vii. Financial reports.
- (6) Share in the distribution of surplus assets according to the number of shares held when the Company is being terminated or liquidated;
 - (7) Require the Company's acquisition of shares held given a different view in respect of resolutions regarding merger and division adopted in a general meeting; and
 - (8) Other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall not, for the reason that any direct or indirect beneficial owner does not disclose his interest to the Company, exercise any right to impair any right in the held shares by freezing or other ways.

Article 53

Common share shareholders bear the following obligations:

(mandatory
46)

- (1) Abide by the Articles of Association;
- (2) Pay subscription money for the shares of a particular class subscribed; and
- (3) Other necessary obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Apart from the conditions agreed by the share purchasers at the time of purchase, shareholders do not bear any obligation regarding the share capital imposed afterwards.

Article 54

Other than the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Listing Rules”) in which the Company’s shares are listed, the controlling shareholder (according to the definitions in the following sections) when exercising his voting rights accorded to him as by his shareholding, may not make any of the following decisions detrimental to the interests of all or part of shareholders:

(mandatory
47)

- (1) Release the obligation of a director or supervisor from acting honestly in the best interest of the Company;
- (2) Authorize a director or supervisor (for his own or other persons’ interest) to appropriate company assets by any means, including (but not limited to) any profitable opportunity; or
- (3) Authorize a director or supervisor (for his own or other persons’ interest) to abrogate the personal rights and interests of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) any distribution right, voting right but not including company restructuring passed by resolution of the shareholders’ general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 55

The controlling shareholder referred to in the previous Article possesses one of the following conditions:

(mandatory
48)

- (1) That person acting alone or with others in concert can elect more than half of the directors;
- (2) That person acting alone or with others in concert can exercise thirty percent (30%) or above (containing thirty percent (30%)) of the voting rights, or can control thirty percent (30%) or above (containing thirty percent (30%)) of the Company’s voting rights;

- (3) That person acting alone or with others in concert holds thirty percent (30%) or above of the Company's issued shares (containing thirty percent (30%)); or
- (4) That person acting alone or with others in concert controls the Company in fact by other means.

CHAPTER 8 SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 56 The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company, which exercises its powers in accordance with the laws. (mandatory 49)

Article 57 The shareholders' general meeting exercises the following powers: (mandatory 50)

- (1) To decide on the Company's operating policies and investment plans;
- (2) To elect or change directors, and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
- (3) To elect or change supervisors who are representatives of shareholders and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
- (4) To examine and approve reports of the board of directors;
- (5) To examine and approve reports of the supervisory committee;
- (6) To examine and approve the Company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (7) To examine and approve the Company's proposals for profit distribution and for recovery of losses;
- (8) To decide on any increase or reduction in the Company's registered capital;
- (9) To decide on merger, division, change in corporate form, dissolution or liquidation and other matters of the Company;
- (10) To decide on the issue of bonds and other securities by the Company and the listing of the Company;
- (11) To decide on the appointment, dismissal or discontinued appointment of auditors;

- (12) To examine matters in respect of the Company's purchase or sale of material assets accounting for more than thirty percent (30%) of the Company's latest audited total assets within one (1) year;
- (13) To examine and approve the following guarantees of the Company (referring to guarantees provided to individual or legal entity other than the Company and its subsidiaries):
 - 1. Any guarantees provided after the total amount of external guarantees of the Company has reached or exceeded thirty percent (30%) of the Company's latest audited total assets;
 - 2. Any external guarantees provided involving an amount of more than ten percent (10%) of the Company's latest audited net assets in a single deal;
 - 3. Any guarantees provided after the total amount of external guarantees of the Company and its subsidiaries has reached or exceeded fifty percent (50%) of the Company's latest audited net assets;
 - 4. Any external guarantees provided to a guaranteed party with an asset liability ratio of more than seventy percent (70%); and
 - 5. Any guarantees provided to the shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties.
- (14) To amend the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (15) To examine any interim proposals put forward by shareholders singly or jointly holding three percent (3%) (containing (3%)) or above of the voting rights;
- (16) To decide on equity incentive schemes; and
- (17) To decide on any other matters to be decided by the shareholders' general meeting according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 58

Unless approved by the shareholders' general meeting, the Company may not sign contract with any person other than the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management personnel, that gives that person the responsibility of managing all or major part of the Company's business.

(mandatory
51)

Article 59

Shareholders' general meetings can be classified into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings are convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings are held once a year and shall be held within six (6) months after the end of the previous financial year. (mandatory 52)

Extraordinary shareholders' general meetings are required to be held within two months after the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (1) The number of directors is less than the number provided for in the "Company Law" or less than two thirds (2/3) of the number specified in the Company's Articles of Association;
- (2) The aggregate losses of the Company which are not made up reach one third (1/3) of the Company's total share capital;
- (3) A request in writing by shareholders singly or jointly holding ten percent (10%) (containing ten percent (10%)) or more of the Company's voting rights;
- (4) When deemed necessary by the board of directors or requested by the supervisory committee; or
- (5) When requested by two or more independent non-executive directors.

Article 60

A written notice of the shareholders' general meeting, stating the matters to be considered at the meeting and the venue and date of the meeting, shall be given to all shareholders in the register forty-five (45) days before the meeting convened by the Company. Shareholders wishing to attend are required to give to the Company their written replies of attendance twenty (20) days prior to the meeting. (mandatory 53)

Article 61

When the Company convenes the annual general meeting, shareholders singly or jointly holding three percent (3%) or more of the Company's total shares with voting rights are entitled to propose in writing to the Company any interim resolutions to be considered at that meeting and submit to the convener ten (10) days before the meeting. The convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall make a supplementary notice to other shareholders within two (2) days upon the receipt of the resolutions and the resolutions, if within the powers of the shareholders' general meeting, are required to be added to the agenda of that meeting for consideration by shareholders in the general meeting. (mandatory 54)

Article 62

Based on the written replies received twenty (20) days prior to the meeting, the Company can calculate the number of shares with voting rights represented by the shareholders attending the meeting. If the number of shares with voting rights represented by the attending shareholders reach half (1/2) or above of the total number of shares with voting rights of the Company, the shareholders' general meeting can be convened. If not, the Company shall within five (5) days from the last day for receipt of the replies notify the shareholders again by public announcement the matters to be considered, and the date and place of the meeting. The Company may then convene the shareholders' general meeting. (mandatory 55)

An extraordinary general meeting may not announce any items not included in the agenda.

Article 63

A notice of the shareholders' meeting shall meet the following requirements: (mandatory 56)

- (1) In written form;
- (2) Specify the date, venue and time of the meeting;
- (3) Specify the date of registration of shares held by shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting;
- (4) Specify the name and telephone number of the permanent contact person for meeting affairs;
- (5) State the matters to be considered;
- (6) Provide sufficient information and explanation to shareholders for matters to be considered to enable them to make informed decisions. This principle includes (but not limited to) providing the relevant transaction conditions and contracts (if applicable) of the agreements when the Company proposes merger, repurchase of shares, restructuring of share capital or other restructuring, and providing serious explanation of the causes and consequences;
- (7) When any director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management personnel has great conflict of interest with the matters to be discussed in the meeting, he shall disclose the nature and seriousness of the conflict of interest. If the matters to be considered shall affect that director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management personnel as shareholder differently from other classes of shareholders, explanation is necessary for clarifying the differences;
- (8) Contain the entire text of any special resolution to be considered and passed at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (9) Explain in clear wording that shareholders with the rights to attend and vote in the shareholders' general meeting have the right to appoint one or more than one proxies to attend and vote. Such a proxy needs not be a shareholder; and
- (10) State the time and place for delivery of the proxy appointment letter.

Article 64

Notices of shareholders' general meetings shall be delivered by special delivery or by postal mail (whether or not the shareholders have the voting rights in the meetings). Notices shall be mailed according to the addresses in the register of shareholders. For shareholders of domestic shares, notices of shareholders' general meetings can also be made by public announcement. As for shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, notices of shareholders' general meetings can also be delivered or made through the Company's website or methods as stipulated by the Listing Rules from time to time, provided that the laws, administrative regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed are observed. (mandatory 57)

The announcement mentioned above shall be made within forty-five (45) to fifty (50) days prior to the date of the shareholders' general meeting, published in one or several of the national newspapers designated by the institution in charge of securities supervision and administration in the State Council. After the announcement, shareholders of domestic shares are deemed to have received the notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 65

The shareholders' general meeting and the resolutions passed in the meeting will not be ineffective because certain persons who possess the right to be notified did not receive the notice due to accidental omission, or certain persons did not receive the notice at all.

(mandatory
58)

Article 66

Any shareholder, who has the rights to attend and vote in the shareholders' general meeting, has the right to appoint one or several persons (such persons need not be shareholders) as his proxy/ies to attend and vote. The shareholder's proxy may exercise the following rights as the proxy of shareholder:

(mandatory
59)

- (1) To speak in the shareholders' general meeting on behalf of the shareholder;
- (2) To request the casting of ballots by himself or jointly with others; and
- (3) To vote by show of hands or by ballot unless otherwise provided in applicable listing rules or other securities laws and regulations; however, if the appointed representative exceeds one (1) person, the shareholder's representative can only exercise the voting rights by casting ballots.

If the shareholder is a designated clearing house (or its proxy) according to Hong Kong Law Chapter 420 of the Securities and Futures (Clearing House) Ordinance, it may appoint any person (one or more than one) deemed appropriate to be its proxy in any shareholders' general meeting, or any kinds of general meeting. However, for one or more persons so appointed, the appointment letter shall state the number of shares and classes of shares represented by the proxy. The person so appointed has the right to represent the clearing house (or its proxy) to exercise its rights as if the clearing house is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 67

A shareholder shall appoint his proxy in writing, to be signed by the appointer or by the proxy appointed in writing. If the appointer is a legal person, the appointment letter should be stamped with the company's legal stamp, or signed by its directors or the proxy appointed officially. The written form shall state the number of shares the proxy represents.

Article 68	The appointment letter for appointing voting proxy shall be delivered at least twenty-four (24) hours before the convening of the relevant meeting, or twenty-four (24) hours before the designated time for voting, to the Company's legal address or another place designated by the notice of the shareholders' general meeting. For appointment letters signed by persons appointed by the member, the appointment letter authorizing the signature and other appointment documents shall be notarized. The notarized appointment letter and other appointment documents shall be delivered together with the appointment letter for appointing voting proxy to the company's legal address or another place designated by the notice of the shareholders' general meeting. If the member is a legal person, its legal representative or board of directors, or person appointed and delegated by other decision authority shall represent the member as proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings. For the purposes of the Articles of Association, the proxy attending the meeting and the actions taken by the proxy in the meeting shall be considered as the member attending the meeting (as appropriate) and taking such actions personally.
Article 69	Any proxy form distributed by the board of directors to shareholders to appoint proxy shall provide members the freedom to instruct the proxy to vote for or against in the shareholders' general meeting, and give instruction for voting for each of the items on the agenda. The proxy form shall state clearly that if the member does not give instruction, the proxy can vote according to his wishes.
Article 70	In the event the member is deceased, loses his functions, withdraws the appointment, withdraws the authority for appointment or has transferred his shares before voting, the voting by the proxy appointed by the member is still valid, if the company does not receive a written notice of such events prior to the meeting.
Article 71	Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.
	An ordinary resolution shall be passed by more than one half (1/2) of the votes represented by shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting in favour of the resolution.
	A special resolution may be passed by more than two thirds (2/3) of the votes represented by the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting in favour of the resolution.
Article 72	When shareholders (including proxies) vote in shareholders' general meetings by exercising their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares held, they have one vote for each share held. However, shares held by the Company have no voting right and such portion of shares shall not be counted in the total number of shares with the right to vote in shareholders' general meetings.

When any resolutions in respect of related transaction is to be considered in shareholders' general meetings, the related shareholders shall abstain from voting and the number of voting shares they represented shall not be counted in the total number of effective votes. The related shareholders may, if unable to abstain from voting under special circumstances, cast their votes in accordance with the normal procedures upon the unanimous consent of other non-related shareholders.

When any resolutions in respect of the Company's provision of guarantees to its shareholders or de factor controller or its related person is to be considered in shareholders' general meetings, shareholders being controlled by the aforesaid shareholders or de factor controller shall abstain from voting on such resolution and such resolution shall be passed by the majority of the votes cast by other shareholders attending the meeting.

Where any shareholder is, pursuant to the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 73

Voting in the meeting is by show of hands unless specifically required under the Listing Rules to be by poll or demanded by any of the following persons requesting a poll before or after voting by show of hands:

(mandatory
66)

- (1) Chairman of the meeting;
- (2) At least two shareholders (proxies) with voting rights; or
- (3) Any one or more shareholders (including proxies) in the meeting holding alone or in aggregate ten percent (10%) or more (containing ten percent (10%)) of voting shares.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman as to the passing of the resolution based on the results of a show of hands and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such a resolution.

The request for a poll can be withdrawn by the person making the request.

Article 74

If the request for a poll is to elect the chairman or to end the meeting, then a poll shall be conducted immediately. For other matters where a poll is requested, the chairman shall decide to conduct a poll at any time before the end of the meeting. The meeting may continue to consider other matters. The results of the polls shall be considered resolution approved in the meeting.

(mandatory
67)

Article 75	In casting votes, shareholders (including proxies) holding two or more voting shares do not have to cast the votes all for or all against the resolution.	(mandatory 68)
Article 76	In the case of equality of votes, whether by a show of hand or poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one extra vote.	(mandatory 69)
Article 77	The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolution in the shareholders' general meeting: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Report of the board of directors and the supervisory committee; (2) Proposals for profit distribution and for recovery of losses prepared by the board of directors; (3) Termination of, and remuneration and payment of remuneration for members of the board of directors and the supervisory committee; (4) The Company's proposed annual financial budget, final accounts, balance sheet, profit and loss report and other financial reports; (5) Equity incentive schemes; and (6) Matters other than those to be passed by special resolution according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. 	(mandatory 70)
Article 78	The following matters shall be approved by special resolution in the shareholders' general meeting: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) To increase, or decrease the Company's share capital, issue any class of shares, warrants or other similar securities instruments; (2) To issue company bonds; (3) To decide on division, merger, dissolution or change in corporate form of the Company; (4) To amend the Company's Articles of Association; (5) Any matters in respect of the Company's purchase or sale of material assets accounting for more than thirty percent (30%) of the Company's latest audited total assets within one (1) year; (6) Any matters in respect of guarantees provided after the total amount of external guarantees provided by the Company has reached or exceeded thirty percent (30%) of the Company's latest audited total assets; 	(mandatory 71)

- (7) Matters of material importance to the Company which the shareholders' general meeting has decided, by ordinary resolution, should be approved by special resolution; and
- (8) Any other matters, which should be approved by special resolution, as required under the laws, administrative regulations and rules and the Listing Rules.

Article 79

Shareholders seeking to convene an extraordinary or class shareholders' meeting shall follow the following procedures: (mandatory 72)

- (1) Two or more shareholders holding ten percent (10%) or more of voting shares in the proposed meeting may sign one or several written requests with similar content and format to request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class shareholders' meeting and list the resolutions to be considered. After receipt of such written request, the board of directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or class shareholders' meeting as soon as possible. The amount of shareholding is calculated on the date of the shareholders making the written request.
- (2) If the board of directors does not issue a notice for convening a meeting after thirty (30) days of receipt of the above written request, the shareholders making the request may propose to the supervisory committee for convening an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting with reference to the provisions in item (1) referred to above. If the supervisory committee fails to convene and preside over an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting within five (5) days upon the receipt of the aforesaid written request, shareholders making such request and singly or jointly holding ten percent (10%) or more of the shares of the Company for a consecutive period of ninety (90) days or above may convene a meeting by themselves within four (4) months after the board's receipt of the notice. The procedures of convening the meeting shall closely follow that of the general meeting convened by the board of directors.

The reasonable expenses incurred by the shareholders who convene the meeting by themselves as a result of the board of directors' failure to do so shall be borne by the Company, and to be deducted from the money due to the negligent director.

Article 80

General meetings shall be convened by the board of directors and presided over by the chairman of the board who shall act as the chairman of the meetings. When the chairman cannot or fails to perform such duty, the vice chairman shall take the chair to preside as chairman of such meetings. When the vice chairman cannot or fails to perform such duty, a director elected by more than half of the directors shall take the chair to preside as chairman of such meetings. If no director is elected to preside over the meeting and play the role of chairman of the meeting by more than half of the directors, the shareholders attending the meeting may elect one of them to act as chairman. If, for any reason, the shareholders cannot elect a chairman, the shareholder (including proxy) attending the meeting with the highest number of voting shares shall be the chairman. (mandatory 73)

In the event that the board of directors cannot or fails to perform the duty for convening a general meeting, the board of supervisors shall act timely to convene and chair the meeting. In the event that the board of supervisors cannot convene and chair the meeting, shareholders separately or jointly holding ten percent (10%) or more of the shares of the Company for a consecutive period of ninety (90) days or above may convene and chair the meeting themselves.

Shareholders' general meetings that are convened by the supervisory committee itself shall be presided over by the chairman of the supervisory committee. In the event that the chairman is unable or unwilling to perform the duty, a supervisor jointly elected by more than one-half (1/2) of the supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

Shareholders' general meetings that are convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative as elected by the convener.

Article 81 The chairman of the meeting shall announce whether the resolutions are approved or not. The result shall be announced in the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. (mandatory 74)

Article 82 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt about the voting result of a resolution, he may request a vote count. If the chairman of the meeting has not carried out any vote count and the shareholders or their proxies disagree with the result announced by the chairman, they have the right to request a vote count immediately after the announcement. The chairman shall immediately carry out the vote count as per request. (mandatory 75)

Article 83 If vote counting is carried out at the meeting, the result shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. (mandatory 76)

The minutes of the meeting, together with the sign-in book of attending shareholders and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's legal address.

Article 84 Shareholders may inspect the copies of the minutes of the meetings during office hours free of charge. Upon request by shareholders, the Company shall deliver copies of the minutes of the meetings within seven (7) days after receipt of reasonable fees from the shareholders. (mandatory 77)

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR RESOLUTION ON CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Article 85 Members holding different classes of shares are class shareholders. (mandatory 78)

Class shareholders enjoy rights and share obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 86 The Company, wishing to alter or cancel the rights of class shareholders, shall proceed only by special resolution in the shareholders' general meeting and by convening a separate meeting of affected class shareholders according to Articles 88 to 92. (mandatory 79)

The following conditions are deemed to alter or eliminate the rights of shareholders of a particular class: ^(mandatory 80)

- (1) To increase or reduce the number of shares of that class; or to increase or reduce the number of shares of another class that enjoys the same or more voting right, distribution right and other privileges as that class;
- (2) To exchange part or all of shares of that class into another class, or change part or all of shares of the other class into that class or authorize such a conversion;
- (3) To remove or reduce the accumulated dividend or the right to the accumulated dividend for that class;
- (4) To reduce or cancel the priority enjoyed by that class to dividend, or the right to priority distribution at the Company's liquidation;
- (5) To increase, remove or reduce the rights of exchange, selection, voting, transfer and preferred subscription, and the rights of receiving the Company's securities, enjoyed by that class;
- (6) To remove or reduce the right to receive the Company's accounts receivable for designated currency enjoyed by that class;
- (7) To create a new class of shares enjoying the same or more rights of voting, distribution and other privileges as that class;
- (8) To restrict or increase restriction on the transfer and ownership of that class;
- (9) To issue option or conversion rights to that class or other classes;
- (10) To increase the rights and privileges of shares of other classes;
- (11) The restructuring of the Company results in different classes bearing responsibilities disproportionately; and
- (12) To amend or remove the rules set by this Chapter.

Article 88	Affected class shareholders, whether they have voting rights in the shareholders' general meeting originally or not, shall have voting rights in class meetings in matters concerning Article 87 sections (2) to (8), and (11) to (12). However, shareholders with conflict of interest shall have no voting right in class meetings. The meaning of shareholder with conflict of interest in this article is as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) "Shareholder with conflict of interest" is referred to the controlling shareholder as defined in Article 55 of the Articles of Association, when the Company issues repurchase offer for shares to all shareholders on pro rata basis according to Article 31 of the Articles of Association, or repurchase its shares in the open market approved by the stock exchange; (2) "Shareholder with conflict of interest" is referred to the shareholder who is a party in the negotiation to repurchase shares outside the stock exchange according to Article 31 of the Articles of Association; or (3) In the Company's restructuring, "shareholder with conflict of interest" is the one who bears a proportionately lower level of obligation compared with other class shareholders, or enjoying different rights from other shareholders in the same class.
Article 89	To be effective, resolutions of a class shareholders' meeting shall be approved by two thirds (2/3) or more of the class shareholders with voting power present at the meeting according to Article 88.
Article 90	When convening a class shareholders' meeting, a written notice, containing agenda, date and venue of the meeting, shall be given to all class shareholders in the register of shareholders forty-five (45) days prior to the meeting. Shareholders wishing to attend the meeting shall return to the Company a written reply to confirm their attendance twenty (20) days prior to the meeting. When the voting rights represented by shareholders attending the meeting reach half (1/2) or more of the total, the Company may convene the class shareholders' meeting. If not, the Company shall within five (5) days notify its shareholders the agenda, date and place by means of announcement. After such announcement, the Company may convene the class shareholders' meeting.
Article 91	The notices of class shareholders' meetings are required to be delivered only to shareholders with voting rights in the meetings. Class shareholders' meetings shall be conducted with procedures closely similar to that of the shareholders' general meetings as far as possible. Articles in the Articles of Association regarding the procedures of convening shareholders' general meetings are applicable to class shareholders' meetings.

Other than the shareholders of other classes of shares, shareholders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares are considered as shareholders of different classes of shares. (mandatory 85)

Special procedures for resolutions by class shareholders are not applicable to the circumstances below:

- (1) Approved by special resolution in the shareholders' general meeting, the Company may, once within twelve (12) months, issue singly or jointly domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares, provided that both the amount of domestic and overseas listed foreign shares proposed to issue will not exceed twenty percent (20%) of its issued shares respectively; and
- (2) The issue of domestic and overseas listed foreign shares had been completed within fifteen (15) months after receiving the approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission when the Company was first established.

CHAPTER 10 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 93

The Company shall have a board of directors consisting of eleven directors, including one chairman and two vice chairman. (mandatory 86)

The board should have over half (1/2) (including half (1/2)) outside directors (the directors which are not working in the company), and over one-third (1/3) independent non-executive directors (the directors which are independent to the shareholders and not working in the company).

Article 94

Directors are elected in shareholders' general meetings. The term of service is three years (commencing from the approval date of election). After completion of a term, a director can stand for re-election. (mandatory 87)

The term of office of directors shall commence on the date of their appointment and terminate upon expiry of the term of office of the current board of directors. In the event of failure to timely call for re-election on the expiry of term of office of directors, the original directors shall, prior to the assumption of office by re-elected directors, continue to perform their duties as directors in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any notice of intention to propose a person for election as a director and any notice by such person of his willingness to be elected shall be given no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the meeting appointed for such shareholders' meeting and no later than seven (7) days prior to the date of such meeting.

Chairman and vice chairman are elected and dismissed by more than half of all of the directors. The term of service is three years. They can stand for re-election after their term is completed.

The shareholders' general meeting, in accordance with the premises of adhering to the relevant laws and administrative regulations, may dismiss any director whose term is not completed by ordinary resolution (any request for contract indemnity is not affected.)

Directors may tender resignation prior to the expiry of term of office. Directors shall tender a written resignation to the board of directors.

If the quorum of the board of the directors falls below the required number as a result of the resignation of a director, the former director shall perform the duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles of Association prior to the engagement of a new director. When the vacancy of the board of directors does not exceed the required minimum number, the board of director is entitled to appoint any person as a director to fill the temporary vacancy of the board of directors. The term of office of such temporary director shall be expired till the next annual general meeting and he can stand for re-election.

Save as provided above, resignation of a director shall take effect upon the submission of a written resignation to the board of directors.

Directors need not hold any shares of the Company.

The chairman, vice chairman and the directors may hold the positions of general manager, deputy general manager and other senior management positions at the same time.

Article 95

The board of directors is responsible to the shareholders' general meeting and exercise the following powers: (mandatory 88)

- (1) to convene the shareholders' general meeting and report on its work to the meeting;
- (2) to implement the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) to decide on the Company's business and investment plans;
- (4) to formulate the Company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (5) to formulate the Company's proposals for distribution of profits and recovery of losses;
- (6) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital, the issue of corporate bonds and other securities, and listing;
- (7) to prepare plans for the merger, division, dissolution or change in corporate form of the Company;
- (8) to decide on the Company's internal management structure;

- (9) to appoint or dismiss the Company's general manager, and based on the general manager's recommendation, to appoint or dismiss deputy general manager and other senior management personnel, and to decide on their remuneration;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (11) to formulate the plan to amend the Articles of Association;
- (12) to prepare the Company's plans for major acquisition or sale;
- (13) to evaluate and determine the nature and extent of the risks it is willing to take in achieving the Company's strategic objectives;
- (14) to ensure the establishment and maintenance of appropriate and effective risk management and internal control systems;
- (15) to oversee management in the design, implementation and monitoring of the risk management and internal control systems;
- (16) to make proposals to shareholders' general meeting on the appointment, re-appointment or dismissal of accounting firms undertaking the audit of the Company; and
- (17) other powers conferred by the Articles of Association and the shareholders' general meeting.

Other than sections 6, 7 and 11 in this article, which must be approved by more than two thirds of the directors, other sections above may be approved by more than half of the directors.

Article 96

When handling fixed assets, if the total sum of the expected value of the assets together with the value obtained from the assets handled within four (4) months before the proposal exceeds the value of fixed assets in the balance sheet examined by the shareholders' general meeting by more than thirty-three percent (33%), the board of directors may not, without receiving approval from the shareholders' general meeting, handle or agree to handle such fixed assets.

(mandatory
89)

The handling of fixed assets in this section includes the action to transfer some rights and interests of assets, but excludes the action to provide guarantee by the fixed assets.

The effectiveness of the Company's handling of fixed assets shall not be affected due to contravention with the first section of this article.

Article 97

The chairman may exercise the following powers:

(mandatory
90)

- (1) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to check on the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;
- (3) to sign the Company's securities; and
- (4) to exercise other powers authorised by the board of directors.

The vice chairman shall assist the chairman in his work. If the chairman is unable or unwilling to perform his duties, the vice chairman shall act on his behalf. If the vice chairman is unable or unwilling to perform his duties, a director jointly elected by more than one-half (1/2) of the directors shall act on his behalf.

Article 98

The board of directors shall meet at least twice (2) a year. The chairman convenes the meeting and shall notify all directors and supervisors ten (10) days before the meeting.

Shareholders representing ten percent (10%) or more of the voting rights, more than one-third (1/3) of the directors, the supervisory committee, two (2) or more independent non-executive directors, or the general manager may propose for convening an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors. The chairman of the board of directors shall convene and preside over the meeting within ten (10) days upon the receipt of such proposal.

(mandatory
91)

Article 99

Notices for the convening of regular or extraordinary meeting of the board of directors can be delivered by the following methods:

(mandatory
92)

- (1) If the venue and time of the regular meeting of the board of directors have been fixed by the board, then no notice is required to be sent;
- (2) If the board has not fixed the time and venue for the regular meeting, the chairman shall instruct the secretary for the board to serve notice of the time and venue of the board meeting by cable, telegraph, fax, special delivery, registered mail, electronic mail or by person to all directors and supervisors ten (10) days prior to the meeting;
- (3) If an extraordinary board meeting is required to consider urgent matters, the chairman shall instruct the secretary for the board to serve notice of the time, venue and form of the extraordinary board meeting by cable, telegraph, fax, special delivery, registered mail, electronic mail or by person to all directors and supervisors at least two (2) days prior to the meeting;

- (4) Notices including agenda of the meeting shall be in Chinese, and in English additionally if necessary. Any director and supervisor may decide to give up the right to receive notice of the meeting of the board;
- (5) A director and a supervisor, who attends to the meeting and has not shown disagreement on receiving notice of the meeting before attending the meeting or at the time of arriving, is deemed to have received notice;
- (6) The meeting and extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be conducted by telephone conference or with the assistance of other similar communication facilities. If all the directors present can hear clearly the conversation from other directors through the above-mentioned media, all the participating directors are deemed to have attended the meeting in person;
- (7) The board of directors may accept a written resolution to replace a meeting of the board. However, the draft of such a resolution must be delivered by hand, mail, telegraph or fax to every director. If the board has sent the resolution to all the directors, and the number of directors who sign and agree to the resolution reaches the quorum and return the signed document to the secretary of the board by the above methods, such a resolution then becomes a resolution of the board, without having to convene a board meeting. However, if the listing stock exchange has other rules, then the Company shall abide by the rules of the stock exchange;
- (8) Written resolution signed and agreed by all directors respectively shall be deemed with similar effect as resolutions passed by meetings of the board of directors legally convened. Such written resolution may comprise one set or more documents, with each document signed by one or more directors. A resolution signed by directors or bearing the names of the directors and sent by telegram, telex, express mail, facsimile or by hand shall for the purpose of this clause be regarded as document signed by them.

Article 100

The quorum for the meeting of the board of directors is half (1/2) or more of the directors (including proxies) present. (mandatory 93)

Each director has one vote. A board resolution must be passed by more than half of all the directors unless otherwise stipulated in this Articles of Association. In case of a tie, the chairman has an extra vote.

When a quarter (1/4) or more of the directors or two (2) or more non-executive directors (that is, directors, including independent non-executive directors, who are not employees of the Company) consider the provided information regarding the matters under discussion is not sufficient or the evidence is not clear, they may jointly suggest the adjournment of the meeting or the part under consideration. The board shall accept the suggestion.

When a director or any of his close associates (as defined under the Listing Rules) has a connected relationship with the board resolutions, he shall not be involved and shall abstain from voting in respect of the resolution and shall not exercise any voting rights on behalf of other directors. When counting attendance for quorum, that director shall not be counted.

When a director has a connected relationship with enterprises involved in the board resolutions, he shall not exercise any voting rights in respect of such resolutions and shall not exercise any voting rights on behalf of other directors. The quorum for the meeting of the board of directors is half of the present of directors who do not have any connected relationship. A board resolution must be passed by more than half of all the directors who do not have any connected relationship. When the number of the present of directors who do not have any connected relationship is less than three (3), the board resolutions shall be proposed to the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

Article 101

The director shall attend in person in meetings of the board of directors. If the director cannot attend a meeting, he may appoint in writing another director to be his proxy. The appointment letter shall state clearly the scope of authority.

(mandatory
94)

The director who attends a board meeting as a proxy shall exercise the powers of a director within the scope of authority. A director, who does not attend a board meeting and does not appoint any proxy, is deemed to have given up his voting right in that board meeting.

Article 102

The board of directors shall record the resolutions passed in the meetings as minutes of the meetings. The chairman, secretary of the board and recorder attending the meetings shall sign on the minutes of the meetings. Opinions stated by independent directors shall be clearly stated in the resolutions of the board.

(mandatory
95)

Directors shall bear responsibility for the resolutions passed. Participating directors, who passed resolutions that are against the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association, and whose action causes serious damages to the Company, shall be responsible for indemnity to the Company. A director can be exonerated if he can prove that he was recorded in disagreement when such resolution was passed.

Article 103 From time to time, the board of directors may form committees or working groups of two (2) or more directors. The board can delegate some powers, functions and discretionary power of the board to the committees or working groups. The relevant committees or working groups shall work within the scope delegated by the board, and shall abide by the rules set by the board from time to time. The board may resolve at any time to dissolve the relevant committees or working groups or alter their scope of authority.

The quorum of a committee or working group shall be more than half of the two (2) members or all members, whichever is higher. Articles 99 to 102 of this Articles of Association regarding the rules on agenda and minutes of the board meetings are also applicable to committees and working groups, unless otherwise governed by the rules established by the board according to the above paragraph.

Unless otherwise regulated by the board, the general manager who is not a director may attend board meetings and has the right to receive notices and other materials of the meetings. However, unless the general manager is also a director, he has no right to vote in the meetings.

CHAPTER 11 SECRETARY OF THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 104 The Company shall have a secretary of the board of directors. He is a member of senior management of the Company. (mandatory 96)

Article 105 The secretary to the board of directors of the Company shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the board of directors. The primary responsibilities of the board secretary are:

- (1) to be responsible for preparing shareholders' general meetings and board of directors' meetings and maintaining documents to ensure that the Company has maintained complete constitution documents and records;
- (2) to ensure that the Company prepares and delivers those reports and documents required by competent authorities entitled thereto in accordance with law;

- (10) exercise other powers conferred by the Articles of Association and the board of directors.

Article 109 The general manger of the Company shall attend the meetings of the board of directors. The general manager who is not a director has no vote in the meetings of the board of director. (mandatory 101)

Article 110 The general manager of the Company has the obligation to carry out his duties in honesty and with diligence according to the rules of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. (mandatory 102)

CHAPTER 13 SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 111 The Company shall have a supervisory committee. The committee supervises the board of directors and its members, general manager, assistant general managers and other senior management officers in their performance of their duties to prevent their abuse of their positions to abrogate the rights of shareholders, the Company and employees of the Company. (mandatory 103)

Article 112 The supervisory committee is made up of three (3) persons, with one (1) being the chairman of the committee. The term of office is three (3) years (commencing from the approval date of election). A supervisor can serve a consecutive term if re-elected. (mandatory 104)

(1) The appointment and removal of the chairman is by resolution passed by two thirds (2/3) or more (including two thirds (2/3)) of the supervisory committee members.

(2) The resolutions of the supervisory committee shall be approved by two thirds (2/3) or more (including two thirds (2/3)) of the supervisory committee members.

Article 113 The supervisory committee is made up of two independent representatives (supervisors who are independent from the shareholders of the Company and hold no internal positions in the Company) and one employee representative. Independent representatives are elected and dismissed by the shareholders' general meeting. Employee representative is elected and removed by the employees of the Company through workers' congresses, trade union congresses and other forms of democratic elections. (mandatory 105)

Article 114 The directors, general manager and other senior management of the Company may not serve concurrently as supervisors. (mandatory 106)

Article 115 The supervisory committee shall convene meetings at least once (1) every six (6) months and supervisors may propose for convening an extraordinary meeting of the supervisory committee. The chairman of the committee shall convene and preside over the meetings. If the chairman is unable or unwilling to perform the duty, a supervisor jointly elected by more than one-half (1/2) of the supervisors shall convene and preside over the meeting. (mandatory 107)

Article 116	The supervisory committee is responsible to the shareholders' general meeting and exercise the following powers in accordance with the law: It is to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) review the company's finances; (2) supervise the directors, general manager and other senior management officers in their performance of their duties and propose for the removal of those who have violated laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association; (3) require correction of those acts of directors, general manager or other senior management officers which are harmful to the Company's interests; (4) examine the finance reports, operating reports, profit distribution proposals and other financial information to be presented by the board to the shareholders' general meeting; if in doubt appoint certified accountants and chartered auditors in the name of the Company and to carry out audit; (5) propose the convening of extraordinary shareholders' general meeting and, when the board of directors fails to perform the duty to convene and preside over a shareholders' general meeting, convene and preside over the meeting; (6) make proposals to the shareholders' general meeting; (7) take legal actions against directors, the general manager and other senior management in accordance with the provisions of Article 151 of the "Company Law"; and (8) exercise other powers in accordance with laws, regulations and the Articles of Association. Supervisors shall attend meetings of the board of directors to raise questions or suggestions in respect of board resolutions.
Article 117	A written notice shall be given to all supervisors ten (10) days prior to a supervisory committee meeting. Supervisors attending the meeting who have not given notice of failure in receiving the notice prior to the meeting or when the meeting commences shall be considered to have informed of the meeting in accordance with the provisions referred to above. A quorum for the supervisory committee meeting is more than two thirds (2/3) (including two thirds (2/3)) of the supervisors attending the meeting.
Article 118	The reasonable expenses incurred by the supervisory committee in hiring lawyers, certified accountants and chartered auditors and other professional persons in the performance of their duties shall be borne by the Company.
Article 119	Supervisors shall honestly carry out their supervisory duties according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.
