To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief, having made all reasonable enquiries, except for the holding of the Convertible Bonds, each of the Purchaser and its ultimate beneficial owners is a third party independent of the Company and connected persons of the Company.

Proposed Second Amendments

Under the Subscription Agreement, among other things, each Obligor acknowledges, agrees and undertakes that for so long as any Convertible Bonds remain outstanding, if the Collateral Coverage Ratio for any Trading Day falls below 1.6 (“Security Top-Up Triggering Event”):

- (a) the Chargor shall, within three (3) Business Days from the day on which the Security Top-Up Triggering Event occurs, complete the grant of Security over additional Shares (“Additional Security”) by transferring such number of additional Shares which are beneficially owned by the Chargor and free from encumbrances to the CCBI Account (or through any other actions or mechanisms satisfactory to the Purchaser at its absolute discretion) so that, on the Trading Day during which the grant of such Additional Security is completed, the Collateral Coverage Ratio will increase to no less than 2.0, provided that the Chargor shall promptly at its own cost do all things and/or take all actions as the Purchaser may specify; and/or
- (b) the Company shall redeem such portion of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds as directed by the Purchaser so that, on the Trading Day on which such redemption is completed, the Collateral Coverage Ratio will increase to no less than 2.0, provided that the redemption date shall be within three (3) Business Days from the day on which the Security Top-Up Triggering Event occurs and that such portion of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds shall be redeemed at a redemption amount equal to the aggregate of:
 - (i) the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds being the subject of the redemption;
 - (ii) any accrued but unpaid interest and annual fees on the Convertible Bonds being the subject of the redemption; and
 - (iii) such additional amount which would make up an Internal Rate of Return of 10% on the aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Bonds from the Closing Date until the date of redemption.

Pursuant to the Second Supplemental Deed, the Company, the Chargor, Mr. Chen and the Purchaser conditionally agreed to, among others, further amend certain terms of the Subscription Agreement and enter into the Second Supplemental Bond Instruments to further amend certain terms and conditions and obtain waiver to certain covenant of the Convertible Bonds, in particular, that the Security Top-Up Triggering Event would be amended to refer to a situation where the Collateral Coverage Ratio on any Trading Day falls below 1.75 for three consecutive Trading Days, instead of the original situation where the Collateral Coverage Ratio on any Trading Day falls below 1.6 as mentioned above.

Save as disclosed above, there are no other proposed amendments to the terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds.

As at the date of this announcement, none of the Convertible Bonds have been redeemed or converted.

The Purchaser, as the one and only one Bondholder as at the date of the Second Supplemental Deed, gave the Bondholders' Approval pursuant to the Bond Conditions, and agreed to the Proposed Second Amendments to be made to the Bond Conditions by the Company with effect from the Second Amendments Effective Date, subject to the satisfaction of the Second Amendments Conditions Precedent.

Second Waiver

Pursuant to the Second Supplemental Deed, the Purchaser has also agreed to, upon the Purchaser having received a payment of a partial Default Interest in the amount of HK$800,000 one (1) Business Day from the Company or Mr. Chen before and excluding the Second Amendments Effective Date, waive, with effect from the Second Amendments Effective Date, the balance of an accrued and unpaid Default Interest in the amount of HK$4,600,000 ("Second Waiver") payable by the Company resulting from the breach by the Obligors of their undertaking given under the Subscription Agreement and the breach by the Company of its undertaking given under the Bond Conditions, as the Collateral Coverage Ratio was not restored to not less than 2.0 upon the occurrence of a Security Top-Up Triggering Event taking place from 12 December 2017 to 13 March 2018 in a manner as required by the Transaction Documents which constitutes an Event of Default pursuant to the Bond Conditions.

Second Amendments Conditions Precedent

The Proposed Second Amendments and the Second Waiver are subject to the following Second Amendments Conditions Precedent being satisfied:

1. a written approval having been granted by the Stock Exchange regarding the Proposed Second Amendments;
2. the Additional Security Shares not having been withdrawn from the CCBI Account;
3. the Warranties remaining true, accurate and not misleading in each case in accordance with their terms;
4. since the date of the Second Supplemental Deed, there having been, in the opinion of the Purchaser, no Material Adverse Change;
5. the following documents having been delivered by the Company to the Purchaser on or prior to the Second Amendments Effective Date:
 - (a) an original of the Second Supplemental Series 1 CB Instrument dated the Second Amendments Effective Date duly executed as a deed poll by the Company;
 - (b) an original of the Second Supplemental Series 2 CB Instrument dated the Second Amendments Effective Date duly executed as a deed poll by the Company;

7. receipt by the Purchaser of the payment of the partial Default Interest in the amount of HK$800,000 by the Company or Mr. Chen in accordance with the terms of the Second Supplemental Deed.

The Purchaser may, at its absolute discretion and upon such terms as it thinks fit, waive compliance with any of the Second Amendments Conditions Precedent, save for Second Amendments Condition Precedent 1 above.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATION

Pursuant to Rule 28.05 of the Listing Rules, any alterations in the terms of convertible debt securities after issue must be approved by the Stock Exchange, except where the alterations take effect automatically under the existing terms of such convertible debt securities.

The Company has applied to the Stock Exchange for approval of the Proposed Second Amendments.

REASONS AND BENEFITS OF THE PROPOSED SECOND AMENDMENTS

The Group primarily operates in three business segments in the PRC, namely (i) pharmaceutical distribution, (ii) self-operated retail pharmacies; and (iii) pharmaceutical manufacturing.

In view of the fluctuating market prices of the Shares, the Board considers there is difficulty in restoring the Collateral Coverage Ratio following a Security Top-Up Triggering Event in view of the time constraint and there is an imminent need to amend the meaning of a Security Top-Up Triggering Event in accordance with the Second Supplemental Transaction Documents.

The amendment to the meaning of a Security Top-Up Triggering Event is expected to alleviate the burden on the Chargor to provide Additional Security or the Company to redeem necessary portion(s) of the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds to restore the required Collateral Coverage Ratio within the prescribed time period.

The Proposed Second Amendments are arrived at after arm's length negotiation between the Company and the Purchaser. The Board considers that the terms and conditions of the Second Supplemental Deed are fair and reasonable, and the Proposed Second Amendments are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
