Reasons for the Subscriptions and use of net proceeds

Based on the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2020, as at 31 December 2020, the Group's cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately RMB121.7 million. As (i) the aggregate principal amount and accrued interests payable by the Company upon redemption of the Promissory Notes, which will be redeemable upon maturity in August and December 2021, amounted to approximately HK$154.1 million and (ii) the aggregate principal amount and accrued interests payable by the Company upon maturity of the Convertible Bonds, which will be redeemable upon maturity in August 2021, amounted to approximately HK$153.0 million, it is necessary for the Group to finance the redemption of the Promissory Notes and the Convertible Bonds.

The gross proceeds of the Subscriptions are HK$33,544,400. The net proceeds of the Subscriptions, after deducting professional fees and other related expenses, are estimated to be approximately HK$33,344,400; and the net issue price per Subscription Share is approximately HK$0.169.

The net proceeds of the Subscriptions are intended to be used to lower the gearing ratio of the Group by repayment of the outstanding indebtedness.

The Directors consider that the Subscriptions represents a good opportunity for the Company to reduce its debts without having to increase the Group's financing costs. Accordingly, the Directors consider that the terms of each of the Subscription Agreements are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
