Closes at HK$1.29 per Share Up 5.7% from Offer Price

(Hong Kong, 13 June 2013) – Trading in shares of Wuzhou International Holdings Company Limited (“Wuzhou International” or the “Group;” stock code: 01369), a leading developer and operator of specialised wholesale markets in China and of multi-functional commercial complexes in both the Yangtze River Delta and Jiangsu Province, has commenced on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong today.

Wuzhou International's shares were actively traded and recorded impressive price movements today. The shares of the Group opened at HK$1.30, and hit an intra-day high of HK$1.38, approximately 6.56% and 13.1% higher than the offer price of HK$1.22 per share. The shares closed the day at HK$1.29, up 5.7% from its Offer Price. This is in sharp contrast to the performance of HSI, which closed down 2.19% today. Approximately 74.38 million shares were traded with a turnover of approximately HK$97 million.

Mr Shu Cecheng, Executive Director and Chairman, said, “We are very pleased with the satisfactory performance on the first trading day. This not only reflects our strong capability, but also indicates investors’ confidence in the Group’s unique business model and the development of the commercial property industry in China. The listing in Hong Kong places the Group on the international stage, which we are leveraging to further enhance our brand awareness and corporate reputation. Looking ahead, we are well-positioned to capture the development opportunities in China’s commercial property industry and replicate our proven business model in other cities and provinces with development potential. These advances will consolidate our leadership position in China’s commercial property industry and reward the support and trust of our shareholders with solid returns.”
