Corporate Award

Changchun Wuzhou International Fur City named “Most Promising Commercial Property 2014”

Jointly presented by the core organising committee and organising committee (Jilin Division) of China International Real Estate & Architectural Technology Fair (CIHAF) and the Jilin Real Estate Association, and promoted by Cheng Shi Wan Bao in Changchun City, the CIHAF Top Three Awards for “Famous People,” “Famous Companies, and “Famous Property Projects” (Jilin Division), were successfully held. Changchun Wuzhou International Fur City was honored as the “Most Promising Commercial Property 2014.”

The award-winning property is located in Jingyue economic development zone in Changchun, an ecological business district developed by the Changchun Municipal Government, with the city centre on its north end. Changchun Wuzhou International Fur City is to be developed in two phases. Phase One features large exhibition and commercial facilities and office space. Phase Two is to develop into a shopping street. This is the first integrated commercial complex in Jilin Province with the fur trade as the main theme while fulfilling shopping, tourism, leisure, entertainment, dining, office and commercial uses.
